

Awareness programme organized with the help of Asha workers, ANMs, Anganwadi workers etc. on Legal Services Day:

Year 2024

9th November is celebrated as Legal Services Day across the country with the aim of spreading awareness to ensure fair and impartial justice process to every citizen of the country. In this sequence, the National Legal Services Authority organized the Legal Services Day commemoration at New Delhi with virtual presence of all the State Legal Services Authorities and other legal services institutions on 9th November, 2024

Hon'ble the Executive Chairman, UPSLSA has pleased to direct the observance and celebration of Legal Services Day on 9th November, 2024 by all the DLSAs. The objective of this celebration is to spread awareness and access to justice for all. It also aims to raise awareness about the legal services to every individual in the State and specially those communities facing socio – economic challenges. It also aims to enhance the legal literacy amongst the general public by organizing workshops, seminars and awareness campaign to educate people about their rights.

The modalities for celebration of the legal services day include followings:-

- Organization of legal awareness and literacy camps at district, block, school, college level with the coordination & cooperation of office bearers of government departments.
- Organization of programme in far-flung areas of the districts with the help of Asha workers, ANMs, Anganwadi workers, Panchayat Secretaries, Lekhpals, self help groups, PLVs.
- Organization of Rallies at district, tehsil and block level.
- Display of posters and banners at visible populous places.
- Extensive publicity through print and electronic media etc.
- Recognition and honour the contribution of stakeholders of DLSAs.

On this momentous occasion, various awareness related and other programmes were organized in all the districts of the state. The details of the programmes are as follows:-

Organization of Awareness Camps :

Legal Awareness camps were organized by the District Legal Services Authorities in all the districts of the state. Camps were organized not only in urban areas but also in remote rural areas and a large population of the State was made aware of their rights by explaining the importance of Legal Services Day.

The details of State wide beneficiaries on the occasion of Legal Services Day are as follows:-

Subject	Number of camps	Number of beneficiaries
Legal Services Awareness Camps	15,643	7,60,298

Organization of Rallies:

In all the districts of the Uttar Pradesh, Prabhat Pheri/Rallies were taken out by the District Legal Services Authorities to make the general public aware about the topic of Legal Services Day. These Prabhat pheri/rallies were organized by students and teachers of primary schools, secondary Schools and colleges. During the event, participants displayed placards giving the message of legal services and used slogans related to legal services. NCC cadets, court employees, college students and teachers also participated in Prabhat Pheri and rallies.

The details of the participants and beneficiaries through the organization of Legal Services Day are as follows:-

Number of rallies	Number of participants/beneficiaries
11,581	7,90,771

Awareness programme organized with the help of Asha workers, ANMs, Anganwadi workers etc. on Legal Services Day:

Asha workers, ANMs, Anganwadi workers, Panchayat Secretaries, Lekhpals, self help groups, PLVs have also propagated and spread legal awareness in small groups in remote rural areas on the occasion of Legal Services Day in the entire state. They provide information about the legal services and laws to the local rural people in their respective work areas and a large number of persons were benefited by this campaign. The details of the aforesaid programme is as under:-

Details of contributors	number of contributors	Number of events	Number of beneficiaries
Asha workers, ANMs, Anganwadi workers, Panchayat Secretaries, Lekhpals, self help groups & PLVs	54,708	48,113	5,13,378

