Shri Mansukh Mandaviya releases State of the World's Children report of UNICEF

Report throws light on impact of COVID-19 on Mental Health in children and Young People

“Health of the Body and Mind are inseparable in Indian traditions of Medicine which emphasize Holistic Health”

It is vital to address mental health issues for creating a healthy society: Union Health Minister

“Pradhan Mantri Ji invested personal effort to relieve students of their exam stress”: Shri Mandaviya on ‘ParikshapeCharcha’

Shri Mansukh Mandaviya, Union Minister for Health and Family Welfare released UNICEF's global flagship publication – “The State of the World's Children 2021; On My Mind: promoting, protecting and caring for children's mental health”, here today. The report details the significant impact of COVID-19 pandemic on children's mental health.

The Union Health Minister highlighted that “COVID-19 was a test of mental stress for the entire society. He recounted his personal experience as the Pharmaceuticals Minister during the second surge of COVID19. “Production capacity of drugs had to be amplified and due official process to establish new plants had to be speeded up. Such work in the midst of a then unfolding human tragedy was very stressful.” Yoga, deep breathing and cycling helped him to overcome the stress, he added.
