

3. Name of the scheme :- Ideal Gram Sevak Award

Brief information about the scheme :-

Government of Maharashtra, Rural Development and Water Conservation Department, Government Decision No. Vaiprob.1096/Pr.No.3202/49, dated 10th November 1998, to successfully implement various government schemes in rural areas and to improve the living standards of all the general public in rural areas and to solve their problems. One best Gram Sevak/Village Development Officer from each Block will be selected at the Zilla Parishad level as the ideal Gram Sevak, who will provide the best support They are felicitated with awards in the form of a certificate of appreciation and a medal of honor signed by the Hon. Chief Executive Officer.

Scheme criteria and terms and conditions:-

As per the instructions from the government, the information and proposal in the form of administrative and scheme performance evaluation items are submitted to the Zilla Parishad by the Gram Sevak and Village Development Officer through the Block Development Officer Panchayat Samiti. The selection process is done through the District Level Selection Committee.

Benefits of the scheme:-

To provide all possible assistance for the development of rural areas by successfully implementing various government schemes in rural areas, to carry out various public utility works through Gram Panchayat, Panchayat Samiti and Zilla Parishad, Each scheme is implemented properly at the village level to achieve commendable performance and to perform excellent work more efficiently, as well as to successfully fulfill the prescribed duties of the Gram Panchayat Officer.