Little graduates shine at Mount Fort Academy's Graduation Ceremony

Indrani Pandhi motivates young minds by inspiring them to achieve big

Dehradun, March 11 (HTNS): Mount Fort Academy witnessed a momentous occasion on Tuesday as the young scholars of Upper Kindergarten (UKG) proudly graduated to Class I. The sun seemed to shine a little brighter as the school celebrated the achievements of its little graduates with great enthusiasm and joy.

The ceremony commenced with the traditional lighting of the lamp, an auspicious start to the event. This honour was bestowed upon Vedansh Snehi, the oldest student of the school, who was accompanied by the esteemed Chief Guest, Indrani Pandhi, Owner The Himachal Times, along with the Director Dr. Puja Jain, the Principal Dr. Paarull Sharma, and the Headmistress N. Uniyal. Indrani Pandhi, has been the recipient of over 400 awards and holds the distinguished honour of winning the prestigious Uttarakhand Ratan Award three times in a row. She is also the recipient of Bharat Shree Samman. A noted social activist and entrepreneur, her presence added great prestige to the occasion.

The highlight of the event was the mesmerizing Guru Vandana performed by the little graduates, paying homage to their teachers and parents. Their dedication and enthusiasm captivated the audience, setting the tone for the celebration. The children were then awarded their graduation certificates by the Chief Guest in the presence of their proud parents and teachers, who have played an instrumental role in shaping their young minds.

Adding to the joyous atmosphere, the little graduates presented a lively dance performance on the song "You Can Do It If You Try" by Fred

Penner. This energetic act beautifully showcased their indomitable spirit and belief in self-determination.

In her address, Chief Guest Indrani Pandhi emphasized the importance of participation for children in every aspect of learning. She was thoroughly impressed by the performances, highlighting that they reflected the nurturing environment provided by the school. Encouraging the young graduates, she reminded them to always retain their curiosity, creativity and kindness as they embark on their educational journey.

Addressing the gathering, Principal Dr. Paarull Sharma emphasized the importance of parents spending quality time with their children, calling it the best gift they could provide. Her words resonated with the audience, reinforcing the role of family support in a child's educational journey. The grand ceremony concluded with the presentation of a memento to the Chief Guest by the Director and Principal, as a token of appreciation for her inspiring words and esteemed presence. The event marked yet another milestone in Mount Fort Academy's legacy of fostering learning, creativity and growth.

As the young graduates took their first step into a new academic chapter, the event left an indelible mark on their hearts, reminding them that education is not just about reaching a milestone but embracing a lifelong journey of learning, unlearning and relearning.
