

NALSA (Legal Services to Senior Citizens) Scheme, 2016

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 The Senior Citizens constitute a class in themselves. They are a reservoir of experience and knowledge, yet in many cases they are marginalised and almost wished away by the younger sections of the society as a burden on the society. The senior citizens do not constitute a homogenous group, the differences being based on the age gap amongst the senior citizens themselves, level of physical and mental alertness, their ability to work and such like.
- 1.2 Over the years, with advancement in science, there has been a substantial increase in life expectancy. As mentioned in the National Policy on Senior Citizens, 2011, “the demographic profile depicts that in the years 2000-2050, the overall population in India will grow by 55% whereas population of people in their 60 years and above will increase by 326% and those in the age group of 80+ by 700% - the fastest growing group.” 1/8th of the world's elderly population lives in India. In real terms the population of elderly persons has increased from nearly 2 crores in 1951 to 7.2 crores in 2001 to 10.38 crores in 2011. Thus about 8% of the population is above 60 years. The highest percentage of people aged above 60 years is found in Kerala with the elderly constituting 12.55% of the population of the state. The number of females is larger in the category of 60+ age group with the number of females being 5, 27, 77, 168 to 5, 10, 71, 872 males as per the Census of 2011.

- 1.3 Senior citizens face a myriad of challenges- social, physical, mental and economic which are unique to them. The economic problems could be on account of loss of employment with a consequent loss of income and economic insecurity. Physical problems include health and medical problems. Social problems could be lack of familial support and social maladjustment. Security is another major issue for the older persons. The problem is made more acute with the break-up of the joint family system and more and more elderly persons being left to fend for themselves. There is migration of productive members of the family from the rural to urban areas. As such the women and the older persons in rural areas face greater problems.
- 1.4 There is also evidence of systematic and continuous abuse of the elderly i.e. infliction of physical, emotional or psychological harm on the older persons. Half of the elderly population reportedly experience abuse besides disrespect and neglect. According to the report of the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB), a total of 8,973 cases were registered as crimes against senior citizens from January 2014 to October, 2014. As such every society and State recognizes certain rights of the senior citizens, distinct from the rest of the society.
- 1.5 The issue of ageing has been raised at the United Nations from time to time since 1948. The World Assembly on Ageing was held in Vienna in 1982 where an International Plan of Action on Ageing was adopted with the objective to strengthen the ability of individual countries to deal effectively with the ageing in their population, keeping in mind the special concerns and needs of the elderly. In 1991, the UN General Assembly adopted certain principles aimed at independence, participation, care, self-fulfilment and dignity of the older persons. 1st October has been declared as the International Day for the Elderly, now known as the International Day of the Older Persons.

Note: For the purposes of this Scheme, the persons above the age of 60 years are referred to as 'senior citizens' and the terms 'older persons', 'elder persons' are used synonymously.

2. CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEES

- 2.1 The Constitution of India guarantees the right to life and liberty of every individual under Article 21. This has been interpreted to include the right to live with dignity and would encompass the right to live with dignity of the senior citizens. Article 41 of the Constitution lays down that the State shall, within the limits of economic capacity and development, make effective provision for securing the right to work, to education and to public assistance in cases of unemployment, old age, sickness and disablement, and in other cases of undeserved want. Article 46 also imposes a positive obligation on the State to promote with special care the economic interests of the weaker sections of the people and to protect them from social injustice and all forms of exploitation. Articles 41 and 46 are included in the Directive Principles of State Policy which are not enforceable in any court of law, nevertheless, they impose positive obligations on the State and are fundamental in the governance of the country.
- 2.2 Entry 9 in the State List and entries 20, 23 and 24 of the Concurrent List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution relate to old age pension, social security and social insurance and economic and social planning. Entry 24 in the Concurrent List specifically deals with the 'Welfare of labour, including conditions of work, provident funds, liability for workmen's compensation, invalidity and old age pension and maternity benefits.' Thus, there are several constitutional entries relating to old age.

3. LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK

- 3.1 Most of the legislation as exists relates to making provision for maintenance for the parents and does not refer to senior citizens specifically. Hindu Law has recognized the obligation of the sons to maintain the parents, who were not able to maintain themselves since ancient times. Under the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, 1956, aged or infirm parents are entitled to maintenance from son and daughter provided the parents are unable to maintain himself/herself out of his/her own earnings or other property. The Muslim Personal Law places an obligation on children in easy circumstances to maintain their parents, even if the latter are able to earn something for themselves. A person is also bound to maintain his paternal and maternal grandfathers and grandmothers, if they are poor and not otherwise, to the extent as he is bound to maintain his poor father.

- 3.2 Sections 125 to 128, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 enable the father or mother, who is unable to maintain himself or herself to claim maintenance from his/her major son/daughter, if they neglect or refuse to maintain the parents. This is a secular law and applies across all religions. If the person against whom the order has been passed fails to pay the amount of maintenance without any sufficient reason, execution proceedings can be filed and the court may even issue a warrant imposing fines for the breach of the order and the person may be imprisoned. Similarly, the mother may file a petition against her son under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act if she is subjected to domestic violence and claim various reliefs provided under the Act.
- 3.3 Considering the need to protect the rights of senior citizens and to further the constitutional objectives, the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 was enacted. Under this Act, an application for maintenance can be made by (a) 'Parent', i.e., father or mother whether biological, adoptive or step father or step mother; and (b) 'Senior Citizen', i.e. a person who has attained the age of 60 years or above. The application for maintenance can be made by (a) parent or grand-parent, against one or more of his/her children, i.e., son, daughter, grandson and grand-daughter, not being a minor; and (b) childless senior citizen, against his/her relative, i.e. legal heir, not being a minor, who is in possession of or would inherit his property after his death. The Act provides for the setting up of one or more Tribunals for each sub-division for the purpose of adjudicating and deciding upon the order of maintenance and for the constitution of Appellate Tribunal for each district to hear the appeal against the order of the Tribunal. Importantly, under the Act, the right to receive maintenance is enforceable against transferee of property of the parent/senior citizen, if the transferee has notice of the right, or if the transfer is gratuitous though the same is not enforceable against the transferee for consideration and without notice of right. The Tribunal may even declare transfer of property by a senior citizen as void at the option of the transferor where a senior citizen has transferred the property by way of gift or otherwise, subject to the condition that the transferee shall provide the transferor with basic amenities and basic physical needs, and such transferee refuses or fails to provide such amenities and physical needs.

- 3.4 Another important feature of the Act is that abandoning of senior citizen by anyone having care or protection of such senior citizen is an offence punishable for a maximum period of 3 months or fine upto Rs.5000/- or with both. This is a very important provision for protecting the life and property of senior citizens and to prevent their being abandoned at places from where they could not be found. The Act also provides:

-for the establishment of Old Age Homes for Indigent Senior Citizens i.e. senior citizens who do not have sufficient means.

-that the State Government has to ensure that the Government hospitals or hospitals funded fully or partially by the Government shall provide beds for all senior citizens; separate queues are arranged for senior citizens and that facility for treatment of chronic, terminal and degenerative diseases is expanded for senior citizens.

4. GOVERNMENTAL SCHEMES FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

4.1 Different Ministries under the Central Government have come up with different Schemes for senior citizens. The National Policy on Senior Citizens focusses on mainstreaming senior citizens, especially older women, promoting the concept of 'ageing in place' or ageing in own home, housing, income security and homecare services, old age pension and access to healthcare insurance schemes and other programmes and services to facilitate and sustain dignity in old age. The Schemes for Senior Citizens include:

- i) Integrated Programme for Older Persons under which financial assistance upto 90% of the project cost is provided to NGOs for establishing and maintaining Old Age Homes, Day Care Centres, Mobile Medicare Units and to provide non-institutional services to older persons.
- ii) Rebate in income tax, deduction in respect of medical insurance premium upto Rs.30,000/- under section 80D of Income Tax Act, 1961, deduction under section 80D for treatment of specified ailment is Rs.60,000/- for senior citizens, separate counters for senior citizens at the time of filing the income tax returns and on the spot assessment facility.'
- iii) Senior Citizens Saving Scheme' under which the citizens of 60 years and above can deposit Rs.1000/- or its multiples in post offices doing savings bank work which carries an interest of 9% per annum and the maturity period of the deposit is five years, extendable by another three years. For senior citizens i.e. those having the age of 65 years and above, higher rates of interest on saving schemes are available.

- iv) Under the Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension Scheme, central assistance is given towards pension at the rate of Rs.200/- per month to persons above 60 years and at the rate of Rs.500/- per month to senior citizens of 80 years and above belonging to a household below the poverty line and the same is expected to be supplemented by at least an equal contribution by the States.
- v) Discount on basic fare for domestic flights in economy class and priority in boarding the flights.
- vi) Concession for senior citizens in all classes and trains, priority for lower berths, separate counters for senior citizens for purchase/ booking or cancellation of tickets, wheel chairs for use of senior citizens are available at all junctions, District Headquarters and other important stations.
- vii) Reservation of two seats in the front rows of buses of State Road Transport Undertakings for senior citizens and even fare concession.
- viii) Separate queues for older persons in hospitals for registration and clinical examination and concessions to senior citizens in treatment of diseases like kidney problem, cardiac problem, diabetes and eye problem.
- ix) Under the Antyodaya Scheme, the Below Poverty Line families which include older persons are provided food grains i.e. 35 kgs per family per month at concessional rates. The persons above 60 years from the BPL category were given priority for identification.
- x) Under the Annapoorna Scheme being implemented by the States/ UT Administration, 10 kgs of food grains per beneficiary per month are provided free of cost to those senior citizens who remain uncovered under the old age pension scheme.

- xi) Priority in issuance of ration to ration card holders who are over 60 years of age in Fair Price Shops.
- xii) Priority in giving telephone connections by the Ministry of Telecommunications and priority to faults/ complaints of senior citizens by registering them under senior citizens category with a VIP Flag which is a priority category.

4.2 Priority is also given to cases of senior citizens in the courts with a view to expeditious disposal. Under the Right to Information Act, second appeals filed by senior citizens are taken on a high priority basis.

4.3 Several States have come out with their own Schemes and Programmes for the benefit of the senior citizens especially to provide security to senior citizens.

4.4 Despite the existence of various legal provisions and Schemes for senior citizens, their benefits have reached very few senior citizens. Often the senior citizens are unaware of their entitlements and/ or they are in too destitute a condition to be able to access the said benefits. They are not only deprived of their properties but also subjected to all forms of abuse ripping them off their dignity as well. For the widows who are senior citizens or for the retired senior citizens, it often becomes a herculean task to get their pension and other benefits. The laws and the Schemes lay down the entitlements of the senior citizens and if the senior citizens have any difficulty in availing their entitlements under the laws and the Schemes, it is felt by NALSA that Legal Services Institutions have a significant role to play and they can play a pivotal role in ensuring access to the benefits of the Schemes and the legal provisions to the senior citizens.

- 4.5 The Preamble of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 emphasises that the legal services authorities are concerned with the weaker sections of the society and imposes a duty on them to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason or economic or other disabilities. Under Section 4(b) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, the “Central Authority” i.e. the National Legal Services Authority has been obligated to “frame the most effective and economical schemes for the purpose of making legal services available under the provisions” of the Act. Further Section 4(l) enjoins the “Central Authority” to take appropriate measures for spreading legal literacy and legal awareness amongst the people and, in particular, to educate weaker sections of the society about the rights, benefits and privileges guaranteed by social welfare legislations and other enactments as well as administrative programmes and measures. Likewise, under Section 7(c) it is the function of the State Authority i.e. the State Legal Services Authority to undertake preventive and strategic legal aid programmes. Thus the Act itself casts a duty upon the Legal Services Authorities to spread legal awareness about the laws and various administrative measures and programmes and to undertake preventive and strategic programmes.

7.4 Identification of issues affecting senior citizens

- a) SLSAs and DLSAs shall make an endeavour to identify the core issues which affect the senior citizens in a particular area and deal with them accordingly.
