shall be eligible for appointment to the Service :

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied that such marriage is permissible under the personal law applicable to such person and the other party to the marriage and there are other grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

10. (1) A Committee consisting of the following members shall consider the cases of all eligible officers for promotion to the Service :—

- (i) The Secretary to Government, Haryana, Architecture Department ;

Disqualification.

Appointment by promotion.

(ii) Head of Architecture Department ; and

(iii) The Additional Chief Architect, Haryana,

(2) The Secretary to Government, Haryana, will preside over the meetings of the committee.

(3) The Committee shall meet at intervals, ordinarily not exceeding six months, and consider the cases of all eligible officers for promotion to the Service, as on the first day of January and July of that year.

(4) The committee shall prepare a list of such officers. The selection for inclusion in such list shall be based on merit and suitability in all respect with due regard to seniority.

(5) The names of the officers included in this list shall be arranged in order of seniority:

Provided that any junior officer, who, in the opinion of the committee, is of exceptional merit and suitability, may be assigned a place in the list higher than that of the officers senior to him in his own class.

(6) The list prepared shall be revised every year.

(7) If in the process of preparing the list in its revision, it is proposed to supersede any eligible candidate, the committee shall draw up a list of such officers and may record its reasons for the proposed supersession.

(8) The list prepared or revised in accordance with sub-rules (4), (5) and (6) shall then be forwarded to the Commission, by the Government along with—

(a) the records of all officers included in the list ;

(9) The Commission shall consider the list prepared by the committee along with other documents received from the Government and unless it considers any change necessary approve the list.

(10) If the Commission considers it necessary to make any change in the list received from Government, the Commission shall inform the Government of the changes proposed and after taking into account the comments, if any of the Government, may approve the list finally with such modification, if any, as may, in its opinion, be just and proper.

(11) Appointment to the Service shall be made by Government from this list in the order in which names have been placed by the Commission.

(12) Appointment may be made to an ex-cadre post, or to any post in the cadre in an officiating capacity from the list prepared under this rule.

Promotion
within the Service.

11. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rules (2) and (3) members of the Service shall be eligible for promotion to any of the posts in the Service,

Explanation.—Once an officer has been appointed as a member of the Service, his promotion within it from one rank to another shall be regarded as promotion within the same cadre.

(2) Promotions shall be made by selection on the basis of merit and suitability in all respects and no member of the Service shall have any claim to such promotion as a matter of right on the basis of seniority alone.

(3) A member of the Service shall not be eligible for promotion to the rank of—

(a) 'Senior Architect' unless he has rendered seven years' service as Architect ;

(b) 'Chief Architect/Additional Chief Architect' unless he has rendered three years' service as Senior Architect.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-rules (1), (2) and (3), the Government may fill up, in the public interest, the vacancies in the Service by taking suitable personnel on transfer or deputation holding equivalent posts under the Central or any State Government.

Probation.

12. (i) Persons appointed to any post in the Service shall remain on probation for a period of two years if appointed by direct recruitment and one year, if appointed otherwise :

Provided that—

(a) any period after such appointment spent on deputation on a corresponding or a higher post shall count towards the period of probation ;

(b) any period of work in equivalent or higher rank prior to appointment to the Service may at the discretion of the appointing authority, be allowed to count towards the period of probation fixed under this rule ; and

(c) any period of officiating appointment shall be reckoned as period spent on probation, but no person who has so officiated shall on the completion of prescribed period of probation, be entitled to be confirmed, unless he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(2) If in the opinion of the appointing authority the work or conduct of a person during the period of probation is not satisfactory, it may,—

(a) if such person is appointed by direct recruitment, dispense with his services, and

(b) if such person is appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment,—

- (i) revert him to his former post ; or
- (ii) deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of his previous appointment permit.

(3) On the completion of the period of probation of a person, the appointing authority may,—

- (a) if his work or conduct has, in its opinion, been satisfactory,—
 - (i) confirm him from the date of his appointment, if appointed against a permanent vacancy ; or
 - (ii) confirm him from the date from which a permanent vacancy occurs, if appointed against a temporary vacancy ; or
 - (iii) declare that he has completed his probation satisfactorily, if there is no permanent vacancy ; or
- (b) if his work or conduct has, in its opinion, not been satisfactory,—
 - (i) dispense with his services, if appointed by direct recruitment, if appointed otherwise revert him to his former post or deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of his previous appointment permit ; or
 - (ii) extend his period of probation and thereafter pass such orders, as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation :

Provided that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed three years in case of direct recruitment and two years in the case of appointment made by promotion or by transfer.

13. Seniority, inter se of members of the service shall be determined as under :—

Seniority of members of the Service.

(1) Seniority of members of the Service shall be determined by the length of continuous service on any post in the Service :

Provided that in the case of members appointed by direct recruitment, the order of merit determined by the Commission shall not be disturbed in fixing the seniority :

Provided further that in the case of two or more members appointed on the same date, their seniority shall be determined as follows :—

- (a) A member appointed by direct recruitment shall be senior to a member appointed by promotion or by transfer ;
- (b) a member appointed by promotion shall be senior to a member appointed by transfer ;
- (c) in the case of members appointed by promotion or by transfer seniority shall be determined according to the seniority of such members in the appointments from which they were promoted or transferred ; and

- (d) in the case of members appointed by transfer from different cadres, their seniority shall be determined according to pay, preference being given to a member who was drawing a higher rate of pay in his previous appointment ; and if the rates of pay are also the same, then by their length of service in the appointments, and if length of such service is also the same, the older member shall be senior to the younger member.

(2) The inter se seniority within the group of promoted officers (from a particular source) shall be as in the list approved under rule 10.

Pay.

14. Members of Service will be entitled to such scales of pay including special pay as may be authorised by the Government from time to time. The scales of pay at present in force are given in Appendix B :

Provided that Government may in consultation with the Commission and Finance Department grant an initial start to any person appointed to the Service higher than that to which he would have been otherwise entitled.

Liability.

15. (1) A member of the Service shall be liable to serve under the State Government at any place whether within or outside the State of Haryana.

(2) A member of the Service may also be deputed to service under—

- (a) a company, an association or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not, which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by Government, a municipal corporation or a local authority within the State of Haryana ; or
- (b) the Central Government or a company, an association or a body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Central Government ; or
- (c) another State Government, an international organisation, an autonomous body not controlled by the Government or a private body :

Provided that no member of the Service shall be deputed to the Central or any State Government or any organisation or body referred to in clauses (b) and (c) except with his consent.

Leave,
pension or other matters.

16. In respect of pay, leave, pension and all other matters, not expressly provided for in these rules, the members of the Service shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may have been or hereafter be adopted or made by the competent authority under article 309 of the Constitution of India or under any law for the time being in force made by the State Legislature.

Discipline,
penalties
and appeals.

17. (1) In matters relating to discipline, penalties and appeals, members of the Service shall without prejudice to the provisions of the Public Servants (Inquiries) Act, 1850, be governed by the Punjab Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1952, as amended from time to time :

Provided that the nature of penalties which may be imposed, the authority empowered to impose such penalties and appellate authority shall, subject to the provisions of any law or rules made under article 309 of the Constitution of India, be such as are specified in Appendix C to these rules.

(2) The authority competent to pass an order under clauses (c) and (d) of sub-rule (1) of rule 10 of the Punjab Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules 1952, and the appellate authority shall also be as specified in Appendix D to these rules.

18. Every member of the Service shall get himself vaccinated and re-vaccinated if and when the Government so directs by a special or general order.

Vaccination

19. Every member of the Service, unless he has already done so, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance to India and to the Constitution of India as by law established.

Oath of allegance.

20. Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

Power of relaxation.

21. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the appointing authority may impose special terms and conditions in the order of appointment if it is deemed expedient to do so.

Special provisions.

22. In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, the members of the Service shall be governed by such general rules as may have been or may thereafter be framed by the Government from time to time.
