Lok Adalat vis-à-vis Permanent Lok Adalat

Two institutions. One goal – Amicable settlement of disputes.

National Lok Adalat (NLA)

Held on a particular day (e.g., National Lok Adalat, State Lok Adalats, etc.) throughout the country

Resolves pending and pre-litigation disputes through compromise or settlement.

Held at regular intervals on a notified date.

Presided over by a panel comprising a serving or retired Judicial officer and other persons as notified.

Awards passed are final, binding on the parties as a decree of Civil Court and non-appealable.

If no settlement could be arrived at between the parties, the record of the case is returned back to the court.

WHAT IF SETTLEMENT COULD NOT BE ARRIVED AT?

TYPE OF CASES

Permanent Lok Adalat (PLA)

Constituted as a permanent body on a continuous basis for a particular area.

Deals only with disputes relating to Public Utility Services that are compoundable and involve a dispute value of less than ₹1 crore.

Sits regularly throughout the year.

Presided over by the Chairman and two members.

Awards passed are final and binding on the parties as a decree of Civil Court.

If no settlement could be arrived at between the parties and the dispute does not relate to any offence, the PLA decides the dispute on merits.

Transport, postal, telegraph, telephone, supply of power, light or water, public conservancy or sanitation, hospital, dispensary, insurance, housing and real estate, education and educational institutions

Message from the Patron-in-Chief, NALSA

“Access to justice is not merely a principle but a lived reality that must reach every doorstep. The National Lok Adalat offers citizens a structured, time-bound and cost-effective mechanism to resolve pending disputes through mutual consent and settlement. I encourage all to actively participate in this Lok Adalat and experience a faster, simpler and more harmonious path to resolution, reducing the burden on courts while restoring peace between parties.”

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Surya Kant,
Chief Justice of India and
Patron-in-Chief, NALSA

National Lok Adalat

12th September 2026

Justice within reach, resolution with dignity, and harmony for all.

Message from the Executive Chairman, NALSA

“The National Lok Adalat continues to serve as a practical and effective alternative dispute resolution mechanism, enabling swift disposal of cases through amicable settlement. It helps reduce long pendency in courts while ensuring that parties arrive at mutually acceptable solutions without prolonged litigation costs and delays. I urge citizens to take full advantage of this opportunity and resolve their disputes through dialogue, cooperation and consensus.”

Hon'ble Mr Justice Vikram Nath,
Judge, Supreme Court of India,
Executive Chairman, NALSA

National Lok Adalat

12th September 2026

Justice is best served not only in courts, but also through dialogue, understanding and a genuine willingness to resolve.
