Chief Justices and Judges of High Courts; legal experts, senior government officials were also present.

19th ALL INDIA LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITIES' MEET

Justice Dr. Dhananjaya Y. Chandrachud, Chief Justice of India, delivered the inaugural address. He congratulated NALSA and J&K Legal Services Authority for organizing the meet and bringing together the wealth of learning and experience of Indian Judiciary. The CJI expressed gratitude to NALSA, all its office bearers, members of State Legal Services Authorities, Legal Aid Counsels, Para-Legal Volunteers for striving to make the constitutional goal of social justice a veritable reality. He also complimented NALSA for organizing the event in Srinagar, as it went beyond pure symbolism and truly reflected the mainstreaming of Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh in the discourse on development in India. He also appreciated the Manual as a document which shall promote consistency in decision-making and ensure uniformity in the functioning of all DLSAs.

HMJ Dr. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, CHIEF JUSTICE OF INDIA AND PATRON-IN-CHIEF, NALSA (CENTRE); HMJ SANJAY KISHAN KAUL, JUDGE, SUPREME COURT OF INDIA AND EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN, NALSA (RIGHT); AND HMJ SANJIV KHANNA, JUDGE, SUPREME COURT OF INDIA AND CHAIRMAN, SUPREME COURT LEGAL SERVICES COMMITTEE (LEFT).

Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Executive Chairman, NALSA, appreciated the work done by the Legal Services Authorities in reaching out to the masses. He also praised the Manual as a comprehensive compendium for DLSAs to harmonize procedures across the country to inculcate a sense of uniformity and consistency.

Justice Sanjiv Khanna, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Chairman, Supreme Court Legal Services Committee, also praised the work done by NALSA and the Legal Services Authorities working under it. He stated that the conference shall help focus on our aims and objectives for the future and help us move forward. He also stressed on the importance of having definitive goals and timelines for achieving the same, so as to increase the legitimacy and visibility of work done by the Legal Services Authorities.

19th ALL INDIA LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITIES' MEET

Shri Manoj Sinha, Lieutenant Governor of J&K, lauded the efforts of Legal Services Authorities to achieve the Constitutional goal under Article 39 (A) to provide free legal aid to weaker sections of society and upholding justice and social equity even in far flung and rural areas of J&K. He also appreciated the Lok Adalat mechanism for expeditious disposal of cases and the efforts for extended outreach to public.

Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.), Lieutenant Governor of Ladakh, showered encomiums on NALSA for its dedicated efforts in ensuring access to Justice and promoting Legal Awareness among the citizenry.

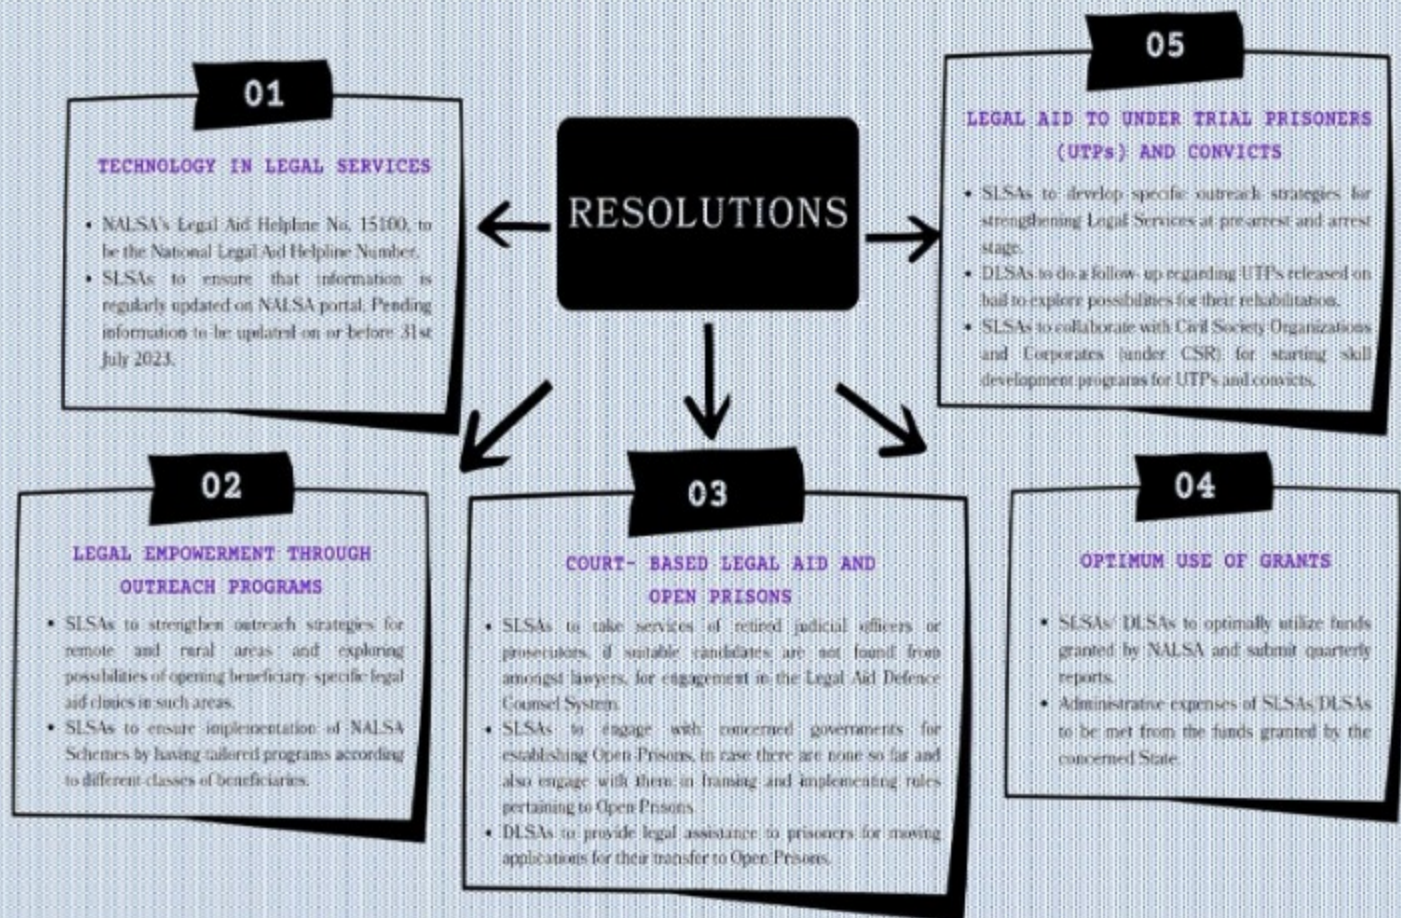

RELEASE OF THE MANUAL FOR DISTRICT LEGAL SERVICES IN THE CONFERENCE HALL

Shri Arjun Ram Meghwal, Minister of State (Independent Charge), Ministry of Law and Justice, Union of India, while lauding the initiatives of NALSA also highlighted the steps taken to overhaul the functioning of Indian Justice Delivery System and he also laid emphasis on strengthening the Legal Aid Defense Counsel System.

There are people who make things happen, there are people who watch things happen, and there are people who wonder what happened. BE THE PERSON WHO MAKES THINGS HAPPEN.

SUCCESS STORY NO. 1: PROVIDING 'ASHA' AND 'AASHRAY'

- Smt. Rani Devi, a dedicated PLV, associated with DLSA, Karbi Anglong, received information regarding an orphaned minor girl being in dire straits. Upon learning about the girl's miserable condition, the PLV promptly visited the orphaned girl and interacted with her. During course of interaction, it came to light that the girl had been evicted from her own house by her close relatives and had temporarily found refuge at the house of a compassionate neighbor. Recognizing the urgency of the matter the PLV coordinated with Secretary, DLSA, Karbi Anglong, and got the orphaned child produced before Child Welfare Committee (CWC), Karbi Anglong, which took up the matter in due earnest. With the collaborative efforts of the Secretary, DLSA, Karbi Anglong as well as Chairperson, CWC concerned, the child after being declared a 'Child in Need of Care and Protection' was sent to a Children's Home, located in Dhasiri, Karbi Anglong on 17th May, 2023. The nimble-footed thinking and empathetic response of PLV Smt. Rani Devi saved the orphaned girl from destitution. There was more to this happy story. The villagers, deeply moved by this act of kindness and support, expressed their heartfelt gratitude to the Secretary, DLSA, Karbi Anglong.

SUCCESS STORY NO. 2: PROMOTING 'MAITREYI'

- In January 2023, Shri Raju Prasad filed an application at the Legal Aid Clinic in Satbarwa, Palamu, Jharkhand, seeking legal assistance in a 2 decades old land dispute matter pertaining to 66 decimal lands (Khata no. 96, plot no. 1105). The petitioner had a land patta since 1946, while the respondent, Janeshwar Singh, received a forest patta in 1992. Both parties were summoned and with the assistance of a PLV, they agreed to resolve the issue through land measurement by an amin. The costs of engaging the amin were to be shared by the parties jointly. On 2nd May, 2023, in the PLV's presence, the disputed land was measured, confirming Raju Prasad's ownership of the disputed land. Both parties were satisfied with the outcome.

SUCCESS STORY NO. 3: 'EK PRAYAS, SWAVALAMBAN KI OR'

- On coming across a newspaper clipping on 09.05.2023 regarding a mentally challenged person, who had not been receiving pension since August, 2022, on account of non-renewal of his card, the Ld. Secretary, DLSA, Adilabad issued notices to the Director, RIMS, Adilabad; District Rural Development Agency, Adilabad and Municipal Planning and Development Office, Adilabad, asking them to take prompt action for issuance of "Sadaram Certificate" (Permanent Disability Certificate) required for payment of pension to the person. Pursuant to the same, the Director, RIMS, Adilabad issued the Certificate to the person on 20.05.2023.

SUCCESS STORY NO. 4: 'MAATRITVA KO EK MAUKA'

- During a visit to Bankura District Correctional Home, Ld. Secretary, Bankura met an under-trial prisoner Ms. X, who expressed her desire to meet her children aged 4 years and 1 year respectively. Moved by the maternal love of the under-trial prisoner, an application was moved on 16.05.2023 on behalf of the woman inmate seeking permission to meet her children. Finally, on 07.06.2023, the woman inmate met her children at District Correctional Home, Bankura.

No one can whistle a symphony. It takes an orchestra to play it.

Vision

The vision of NALSA is to promote an inclusive legal system in order to ensure fair and meaningful justice to the marginalized and disadvantaged sector.

Mission

To legally empower the marginalized and excluded groups of the society by providing effective legal representation, legal literacy and awareness and bridging the gap between the legally available benefits and the entitled beneficiaries.

To strengthen the system of Lok Adalats and other Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanisms in order to provide for informal, quick, inexpensive and effective resolution of dispute and minimize the load of adjudication on the overburdened judiciary.
