(2) The parties to the dispute shall be required to affix their signatures or thumb impressions, as the case may be, on the statements and/or compromise recorded by or to be placed before the Lok Adalat.

31. Compilation of results – At the conclusion of the session of the Lok Adalat, the Member Secretary or the Secretary of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, shall compile the records of the disposed cases so as to make a statement of "disposed of cases" in Form A and forward the same to the State Authority.

32. Procedure for maintaining records of cases referred to under section 20 of the Act or otherwise.

(1) The Member Secretary or the Secretary of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, shall maintain a register, wherein all cases received by him by way of reference to the Lok Adalat or otherwise shall be entered stating the particulars as to –

- (i) the date of receipt and the name of the Court from which received ;
- (ii) category and subject wise nature of the case ;
- (iii) such other particulars as may be deemed necessary ; and
- (iv) date of settlement and the date of return of the case record.

(2) When the case is finally disposed of by the Lok Adalat, appropriate entry as to the result thereof shall be made in the register.

33. Budget

The expenditure for Lok Adalat convened and organized by the State Authority, the High Court Legal Services Committee, the District Authority or the Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee, as the case may be, shall be met from and out of the respective Fund of the concerned Authority or the Committee and the State Authority or the Committee and the State Authority shall, from time to time, provide necessary fund for the purpose to the said Authority or the Committee.

34. Maintenance of Accounts:

(1) The Executive Chairman or the Chairman of the concerned Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, shall exercise complete and full control over the expenditure incurred in the Lok Adalat.

(2) The Member Secretary or the Secretary of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, shall furnish true and proper accounts of the Authority or the Committee concerned quarterly to the State Authority.

35. Procedure in Lok Adalat.

(1) In the Lok Adalat, the parties are not required to be represented by their lawyers. However, a party may, at his opinion, get represented by a lawyer for the purpose of settlement of the dispute and the Lok Adalat shall not refuse such appearance of lawyer.

(2) Every Bench of Lok Adalat may evolve its own procedure for conducting the proceedings before it and shall not be bound either by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the Evidence Act, 1872 or the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, subject, however, to the principles of natural justice.

(3) No fee shall be required for any miscellaneous petition, interlocutory petition or any other kind of application to be filed or contested in any case before the Lok Adalat.

36. Mode of Legal Aid.

Legal Aid may be given in all or any one of the following modes, namely –

- (i) payment of Court Fee, Process Fee, expenses of witnesses and all other charges payable or incurred in connection with any legal proceedings;
- (ii) representation by a legal practitioner in any legal proceedings;
- (iii) supply of certified copies of judgements, orders, notes of evidence and other documents in legal proceedings;
- (iv) preparation of appeal, including typing and translation of documents in legal proceedings; and
- (v) drafting of legal documents.

37. Legal Aid not to be given in certain cases.

Legal Aid shall not be given in the following cases, namely –

- (i) proceeding wholly or partly in respect of –
  - (a) defamation, or
  - (b) malicious prosecution;
- (ii) proceeding relating to any election;
- (iii) proceeding incidental to any proceeding referred to in items No (i) or (ii) or both;
- (iv) proceeding in respect of offences punishable with fine only;
- (v) proceeding in respect of economic offences and offences against social laws such as the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955, the suppression of Immoral Traffic in Women and Girls Act, 1956 etc.;
- (vi) where a person seeking legal aid –
  - (a) is concerned with the proceeding only in representative or official capacity; or
  - (b) is concerned only with the proceeding jointly with other person or persons, whose interests are identical with the interest of such a person, or any of such person is adequately represented in the proceeding; or
  - (c) is only a formal party to the proceeding, not materially concerned in the out come of the proceeding and his interests are not likely to be prejudiced on account of absence of proper representation.

38. Application for Legal Aid or Advice.

(1) Any person desiring legal aid or advice may make an application in Form 'B' addressed to the Member Secretary or the Secretary of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be. But if the applicant is illiterate or not in a position to fill in the particulars required in the application, the Member Secretary or the Secretary, as the case may be or any other Officer of the Authority or the Committee or any legal practitioner, whose name appears in the panel of legal aid lawyers of the said Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, or any person authorized by the applicant, shall gather the necessary particulars from the applicant and prepare the application on his behalf and after reading it over and explaining it to him, obtain his signature or thumb impression on it. In such a case, the person preparing the application on behalf of the applicant shall also put his signature with an endorsement on the body of the application, to the effect that he has prepared it.

(2) The Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, shall maintain a Register of Applications, wherein all applications for legal aid or advice shall be entered and registered and the action taken on such application shall be noted against the entry relating to each such application.

39. Disposal of Applications.

(1) On receipt of an application for legal aid or advice, the Member Secretary of the State Authority or the Secretary of the High Court Legal Services Committee or of the District Authority, as the case may be, or the Chairman of the Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee in case of Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee, shall scrutinize the application for the purpose of deciding whether the applicant deserves legal aid or advice in accordance with the provisions of these regulations and for the purpose of arriving at such decision may require the applicant to submit such further information as may be necessary and also to discuss the matter personally. The application shall be processed as early as possible and preferably within one week.

(2) The State Authority, the High Court Legal Services Committee, the District Authority or the Sub-Divisional Services Committee, to whom an application is made, shall consider the application and decide the desirability for accepting or refusing the application and its decision thereon shall be the final.

(3) Where an application is decided to be refused, the reasons therefore shall be entered in the Register of Application maintained by the State Authority, the High Court Legal Services Committee, the District Authority or the Sub-Divisional Services Committee, as the case may be, and information in writing shall be communicated to the applicant.

(4) No application for legal aid or advice shall be allowed, if the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, is satisfied that –

- (a) the applicant has knowingly made false statement or furnished false information; or
- (b) in a proceeding other than the case relating to criminal prosecution, there is no prima facie case to institute or, as the case may be, to defend the proceeding; or
- (c) the application is frivolous or fictitious; or
- (d) the applicant is not entitled to the same under regulation 37 or any other provision of these regulations; or
- (e) having regard to all the circumstances of the case, it is otherwise not reasonable to grant it.

40. Certificate of Eligibility.

(1) Where an application for legal aid or advice is allowed, the Member Secretary of the State Authority, Secretary of the High Court Legal Services Committee, the District Authority, as the case may be, and the Chairman, in the case of the Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee, shall issue a Certificate of Eligibility in Form 'C' to the applicant entitling him to legal aid or advice in respect of the proceeding concerned.

(2) The Certificate of Eligibility shall stand cancelled if the legal aid is withdrawn and the legal practitioner to whom the case of the applicant is assigned and also the court before which the case is pending shall be informed in writing accordingly.

41. Honorarium payable to legal practitioners of the panel

(1) Subject to the approval of the State Authority, each of the High Court Legal Services Committee, the District Authority and the Sub-Divisional Legal services Committee shall prepare, for a period of two years, a panel of legal practitioners, who are prepared to give legal aid or advice by prosecuting or defending the cases on behalf of or by representing the legal aided person. The legal practitioners on the panel shall be paid a fixed honorarium at the rate as set out in the schedule appended to these regulations; provided that where the matter is disposed of in less than five effective hearings, the honorarium payable shall be half of the rate prescribed in the Schedule.

Provided further that the Executive Chairman of the State Authority, the Chairman of the High Court Legal Services Committee, the Chairman of the District Authority or the Chairman of the Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee, as the case may be, may having regard to the nature of any particular case dealt with by any legal practitioner, fix in his discretion a higher honorarium.

(2) No legal practitioner to whom any case is assigned either for legal aid or for legal advice shall receive any fee or remuneration, whether in cash or in kind or any other advantage, whether monetary or otherwise, from the legal aided person or from any other person on his behalf.

(3) The legal practitioner on the panel, who has completed his assignment, shall submit a statement showing the honorarium due to him in connection with the legal proceedings conducted by him on behalf of the legal aided person to the Member Secretary or the Secretary of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, who shall, with the approval of the Executive Chairman or the Chairman, as the case may be, after due scrutiny and countersignature – replace the same before the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, for sanction and, on such sanction having given by the Authority or the Committee, the amount shall be paid by the Member Secretary or the Secretary, as the case may be, to the legal practitioner. It shall, however, be open to the legal practitioner to waive the honorarium in whole or in part.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, the court may, in any appropriate case in which no legal practitioner on panel has been engaged, direct engagement of any other legal practitioner as it may deem appropriate and in every such case –

(a) it shall be the duty of the legal practitioner so engaged to inform the fact of his such engagement to the concerned Authority or the Committee; and

(b) the provisions of these regulations shall apply to such legal practitioner as they apply to the legal practitioners on the panel.

42. Duties of Legal Aided Person

(1) A person seeking legal or receiving legal aid or advice shall comply with any requisition or direction that may be made upon him by the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, from the date of application for legal aid or advice till the completion or cessation of the legal aid or the cancellation of the Certificate of Eligibility.

(2) Every such person shall execute an agreement in Form 'D' agreeing that in the event of the Court passing a decree or order in his favour awarding costs or other monetary benefit or advantage to him, to repay, by way of reimbursement, to the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, all costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Authority or the Committee in giving legal services to him. For facilitating such reimbursement, he shall also execute an irrevocable Power of Attorney in Form 'E' authorizing the Member Secretary or the Secretary of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, to do all such acts and things as may be necessary for recovering or realizing the amount decreed, awarded or ordered to be paid to him. The costs, charges and expenses, which may be recovered by the Authority or the Committee as aforesaid, shall be credited to the Fund of the concerned Authority or the Committee.

(3) Every legal aided person or his representative shall attend the office of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, as and when required by the said Authority or the Committee or by the legal practitioner rendering legal services to him and shall furnish full and true information and shall make full disclosure of the real facts of the dispute or the case to the legal practitioner concerned and shall attend the Court as and when required, at his own expenses.

43. Cancellation of Certificate of Eligibility.

(1) The Authority or the Committee may, either on its own motion or otherwise, cancel the Certificate of Eligibility granted by it under regulation 40 on any one or more of the following grounds, namely -

- (a) in the event of being found that the legal aided person was possessed of sufficient means or that the Certificate of Eligibility was obtained by misrepresentation or fraud;
- (b) in the event of any material change in the circumstances under which the Certificate of Eligibility was granted to him;
- (c) in the event of any misconduct, misdemeanor or negligence on the part of the legal aided person in the course of receiving the legal aid;
- (d) in the event of the legal aided person not co-operating with the Authority or the Committee concerned or with the legal practitioner assigned by the Authority or the Committee or the Court;
- (e) in the event of the legal aided person engaging a legal practitioner other than the one assigned by the Authority or the Committee unless the engagement is under the direction of any Court;
- (f) in the event of death of the legal aided person, except in the case of civil proceedings, where the right or liberty survives;
- (g) a report has been received from the legal practitioner assigned to the legal aided person that the legal aided person is not co-operating with him or is guilty of misconduct towards the legal practitioner and such report has been verified and found correct by the Executive Chairman or the Chairman of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be;
- (h) in the event of externment of the legal aided person, under any law for the time being in force, from the area or place of his residence or business;

Provided that no such Certificate of Eligibility shall be cancelled without giving due notice thereof to the legal aided person, or, to his legal representatives in the event of his death, to show cause as to why the Certificate of Eligibility should not be cancelled.

(2) Where the Certificate of Eligibility is cancelled on the ground set out in clause (a) of sub-regulation (1) above, the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, shall forthwith discontinue the legal aid allowed to him and shall be entitled to recover the amount of the legal aid given from the legal aided person.

44. Emergency power of Executive Chairman and Chairman.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these regulations, in emergent cases, where the Executive Chairman of the State Authority or the Chairman of the High Court Legal Services Committee, or of the District Authority or of the Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee, as the case may be, is of the opinion that such a situation has arisen where immediate action is required to be taken or there is no possibility of immediately convening the meeting of the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, in anticipation of the approval of the said Authority or the Committee, take such action as may deem fit, and thereafter, he shall, as soon as possible, place a report of his such action before the Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, for approval.
