Prior to expiration of the period of Bid validity, High Court of Uttarakhand will notify the successful Bidder and issue a work order.

27. Limitation of Vendor's Liability:

Vendor's cumulative liability for all its obligations under the contract shall not exceed the contract value and the Vendor shall not be liable for incidental, consequential, or indirect damages including loss of profit or saving.

28. Force Majeure

- Force Majeure shall mean any event or circumstances or combination of events or circumstances that materially and adversely affects, prevents or delays any Party in performance of its obligation in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, but only if and to the extent that such events and circumstances are not within the affected party's reasonable control, directly or indirectly, and effects of which could have prevented through Good Industry Practice or, in the case if construction activities through reasonable skill and care, including through the expenditure of reasonable sums of money. Any events or circumstances meeting the description of the Force Majeure which have same effect upon the performance of any contractor shall constitute Force Majeure with respect to the Bidder. The Parties shall ensure compliance of the terms of the Agreement unless affected by the Force Majeure Events. The Bidder shall not be liable for forfeiture of its implementation / Performance guarantee, levy of Penalties, or termination for default if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the Agreement is the result of Force Majeure.
- Force Majeure Events: The Force Majeure circumstances and events shall include the following events to the extent that such events or their consequences (it being understood that if a causing event is within the reasonable control of the affected party, the direct consequences shall also be deemed to be within such party's reasonable control) satisfy the definition as stated above. Without limitation to the generality of the foregoing, Force Majeure Event shall include following events and circumstances and their effects to the extent that they, or their effects, satisfy the above requirements:
- Natural events ("Natural Events") to the extent they satisfy the foregoing requirements including:
 - a) Any material effect on the natural elements, including lightning, fire, earthquake, cyclone, flood, storm, tornado, or typhoon;
 - b) Explosion or chemical contamination (other than resulting from an act of war);
 - c) Epidemic such as plague;
 - d) Any event or circumstance of a nature analogous to any of the foregoing.
- Other Events ("Political Events") to the extent that they satisfy the foregoing requirements including:
- Political Events which occur inside or Outside the State of Uttarakhand or involve directly the State Government and the Central Government ("Direct Political Event"), including:
 - a) Act of war (whether declared or undeclared), invasion, armed conflict or act of foreign enemy, blockade, embargo, revolution, riot, insurrection, civil commotion, act of terrorism or sabotage;

- b) Strikes, work to rules, go-slows which are either widespread, nation-wide, or state-wide and are of political nature;
- c) Any event or circumstance of a nature analogous to any of the foregoing.
- Force Majeure Exclusions: Force Majeure shall not include the following event(s) and/or circumstances, except to the extent that they are consequences of an event of Force Majeure:
 - a) Unavailability, late delivery
 - b) Delay in the performance of any OEM/IA, sub-contractors or their agents;
- Procedure for Calling Force Majeure: The Affected Party shall notify to the other Party in writing of the occurrence of the Force Majeure as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event within 5 (five) days after the Affected Party came to know or ought reasonably to have known, of its occurrence and that the Force Majeure would be likely to have a material impact on the performance of its obligations under the Agreement.

29. Contract Obligations

Once a contract is confirmed and signed, the terms and conditions contained therein shall take precedence over the Bidder's bid and all previous correspondence.

30. Amendment to The Agreement

Amendments to the Agreement may be made by mutual agreement by both the Parties. No variation in or modification in the terms of the Agreement shall be made except by written amendment signed by both the parties. All alterations and changes in the Agreement will take into account prevailing rules, regulations and laws.

31. Use of Agreement Documents and Information

- The Bidder shall not without prior written consent from High Court of Uttarakhand disclose the Agreement or any provision thereof or any specification, plans, drawings, pattern, samples or information furnished by or on behalf of High Court of Uttarakhand in connection therewith to any person other than the person employed by the Bidder in the performance of the Agreement. Disclosure to any such employee shall be made in confidence and shall extend only as far as may be necessary for such performance.
- The Bidder shall not without prior written consent of High Court of Uttarakhand make use of any document or information made available for the project except for purposes of performing the Agreement.
- All project related documents issued by High Court of Uttarakhand other than the Agreement itself shall remain the property of High Court of Uttarakhand and Originals and all copies shall be returned to High Court of Uttarakhand on completion of the Bidder's performance under the Agreement, if so required by the High Court of Uttarakhand.

32. Assignment & Sub Contracts

The Bidder shall not assign, in whole or in part, its rights and obligations to perform under the Agreement to a third party or a sub-contractor, except with the prior written consent from High Court of Uttarakhand. Such notification shall not relieve the Bidder from any liability or obligation under the Agreement. The Bidder shall fully indemnify High Court of Uttarakhand for any claims/damages whatsoever arising out of the Sub contracts.

33. Resolution of Disputes

- If any dispute arises between the Parties hereto during the subsistence or thereafter, in connection with the validity, interpretation, implementation or alleged material breach of any provision of the Agreement or regarding a question, including the questions as to whether the termination of the Contract Agreement by one Party hereto has been legitimate, both Parties hereto shall endeavor to settle such dispute amicably. The attempt to bring about an amicable settlement is considered to have failed as soon as one of the Parties hereto, after reasonable attempts [which attempt shall continue for not less than 30 (thirty) days], give 15 days' notice thereof to the other Party in writing.
- In the case of such failure the dispute shall be referred to a sole arbitrator or in case of disagreement as to the appointment of the sole arbitrator to three arbitrators, two of whom will be appointed by each Party and the third appointed by the two arbitrators.
- The place of the arbitration shall be Nainital, Uttarakhand.
- The Arbitration proceeding shall be governed by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act of 1996 as amended.
- The proceedings of arbitration shall be in English language.
- The arbitrator's award shall be substantiated in writing. The arbitration tribunal shall also decide on the costs of the arbitration procedure. The Parties hereto shall submit to the arbitrator's award and the award shall be enforceable in any competent court of law.

34. Terms of Execution & Delivery Time Schedule:
