C.L. No.27/Admin.A-2/2026 Dated: Nov. 02, 2026

Subject: Compliance with Rule 13 of Chapter III of the General Rules (Criminal) and Rule 116 of Chapter IV of the General Rules (Civil) regarding service of summons upon Judicial Officers.

Sir/Madam,

It has come to the notice of the Hon'ble High Court that communications/applications are being forwarded to the High Court seeking permission for summoning Judicial Officers to appear before various Courts in the State for the purpose of giving evidence, making statements or being examined as witnesses. In certain cases, requests are also being made to the High Court to direct the concerned Judicial Officers to appear before the summoning Court, without even enclosing a copy of the summons issued by such Court. Such communications are being forwarded despite the fact that the procedure governing the service of summons upon Government Officers is already prescribed under Rule 13 of Chapter III of the General Rules (Criminal), read with Appendix 'E' thereto, and Rule 116 of Chapter IV of the General Rules (Civil), read with Appendix '3' thereto.

2. The aforesaid Rules prescribe the procedure for service of summons upon Government Officers through their respective Heads of Offices. Accordingly, in terms of the entries contained in the respective Appendices, summons issued to District Judges and Additional District Judges are required to be served through the High Court, whereas summons issued to Civil Judges (Senior Division) and Civil Judges (Junior Division) are required to be served through the concerned District Judge.

3. It is clarified that the aforesaid provisions deal exclusively with the procedure for service of summons and do not, by themselves, contemplate either seeking prior permission of the High Court for issuance of summons or obtaining any direction from the High Court for securing the presence of a Judicial Officer before the summoning Court. It is pertinent to clarify that the power to summon any person as a witness, whose evidence is considered necessary for the adjudication of a matter, vests in the concerned Court, subject to the applicable procedural law.

4. Accordingly, all the District Judges, Heads of Judicial Offices, Heads of Quasi-Judicial Offices and Heads of Administrative Offices under whose administrative control Judicial Officers are working are hereby directed to ensure strict compliance with the procedure prescribed under Rule 13 of Chapter III of the General Rules (Criminal), read with Appendix 'E' thereto, and Rule 116 of Chapter IV of the General Rules (Civil), read with Appendix '3' thereto, in all applicable cases relating to service of summons upon Judicial Officers for their appearance before Courts for the purpose of giving evidence, making statements or being examined as witnesses.

5. For the sake of clarity, the procedure for service of summons shall be as follows:

Table-I

Rank of the Judicial Officer	Authority through whom summons shall be served
District Judges and Additional District Judges, including Judicial Officers posted in the Registry of the High Court, Family Courts, Uttarakhand State Legal Services Authority and Uttarakhand Judicial and Legal Academy.	High Court of Uttarakhand
Civil Judges (Senior Division) and Civil Judges (Junior Division), including Secretaries of District Legal Services Authorities.	Concerned District Judge

Table-II

Rank of the Judicial Officers	Authority through whom summons shall be served
District Judges and Additional District Judges posted on deputation to other departments, except those covered under Table-I in the respective ranks.	Head of the respective Department
Civil Judges (Senior Division) and Civil Judges (Junior Division) posted on deputation to other departments, except those covered under Table-I in the respective ranks.	Head of the concerned Office

6. It is further directed that communications/applications seeking prior permission of the High Court merely for issuance of summons to Judicial Officers, or requesting the High Court to direct their appearance before the concerned Court, shall not be forwarded to the High Court. The concerned Courts and authorities shall take necessary steps in accordance with the applicable legal provisions. The procedure prescribed under Rule 13 of the General Rules (Criminal) and Rule 116 of the General Rules (Civil) shall be followed only for the purpose of service of summons, wherever applicable

7. Copies of Rule 13 of Chapter III of the General Rules (Criminal), along with Appendix 'E' thereto, and Rule 116 of Chapter IV of the General Rules (Civil), along with Appendix '3' thereto, are enclosed herewith for ready reference and necessary compliance.

Yours sincerely,

(Kaushal Kishore Shukla)
Registrar General
