- (18) The Industrial Disputes Act, 1946 and the Maharashtra Unemployment Allowance to the Workmen in Factories (for Temporary Period) Act, 1976 (Amendment) Bill, 1980.

39. The Honourable Members are aware that recently the elections to the Lok Sabha in the State were held peacefully and smoothly. This was possible because of the whole-hearted co-operation extended by all political parties and the conscientious people having faith in democracy. It is the duty of us all to honour the popular mandate. Keeping in view the wider national interest my Government will extend full co-operation to the new Union Government on all issues of vital interest to the society.

Honourable Members, I have endeavoured to highlight some of the major policies, programmes and achievements of my Government in various fields. During this short Session of two weeks, you have to consider the Supplementary Demands, which will be presented to you. You will have to consider the Bills to convert the Ordinances, as also some other Government as well as non-official urgent business. I earnestly hope that with your guidance and co-operation, the heavy agenda before the Legislature will be discussed and disposed of in time according to the best traditions of our Legislature.

Jai Hind
