Innovation Idea Submission Form- Sample

A. Approach towards Problem Statement

1. Explain your understanding of the Problem Statement. (150 words)

2. What is the research & development work that has already been done in this area? (Both Globally & India)

3. Briefly describe your problem-solving approach for the problem statement.(You may use diagrams) Attachment (PDF within 10MB)

4. What will your innovation focus on?

   a) Application of existing technologies in new areas. (combination/ adaptation of existing approaches)

   b) Development of new technologies for existing areas

   c) Totally disruptive approach (Original/ New Concept)

5. Describe the following regarding your solution

   a) Process Flow (Process Flow Diagrams may be leveraged for explaining) Attachment (PDF within 10MB)

   b) Key Technology Involved

   c) Solution Capabilities (e.g. Preventive, Detective and/ or responsive), Features & Specifications.

   d) Scalability

B. Business Use Case

1. Explain business use case of your innovation and future plans (with Examples)

2. What is the USP of your innovation? (For e.g. Time Saved, Improved Efficiency etc.)

C. Solution Technical Feasibility

1. Does your innovation require assistance from existing products?

2. Briefly describe key technical hurdles that need to be overcome to implement your innovation, and the resources required to do so.

3. Are there any key partners whom you plan to work with to develop the technology?

4. How is your solution more appealing than existing products in the market (if any)? (In design, quality or additional features)/

5. Succinctly state why your company should win this award. (Please provide any additional information/supporting documents /testimonials that hasn't been covered in the above questionnaire, but that you feel will underpin your nomination) Attachment (PDF within 10MB)

6. Briefly explain the following:

   a) Technology Stack used for Development of Web Accessibility Compliance Checking Solution

   b) Deployment strategy and work plan to go Live