

No.6(3)296/2016-LC(LS)

19 March, 2018

Public Appeal

Subject: Uniform Civil Code.

The Law Commission of India is examining the subject matter of Uniform Civil Code. Initially, the Commission solicited the views of all stakeholders through its appeal along with a questionnaire dated the 07th October, 2016, to which overwhelming responses have been received. While analysing them, it has been considered appropriate by the Commission to elicit detailed submissions on issue(s) from the stakeholders.

Any individual / organization (governmental or non-governmental) may send their submissions in the form of consultation / discussion / working papers, on any of the issues pertaining to Uniform Civil Code, (except the issue relating to Triple Talaq, which is pending before Parliament) to the Member-Secretary, Law Commission of India, 4th Floor, Lok Nayak Bhawan, Khan Market, New Delhi – 110 003 or by email to: lci-dla@nic.in (to be read as LCI-DLA@NIC.IN) on or before 6 April, 2018. If the Commission needs further clarification on any submission(s) so made, the individual / organisation or other stakeholder may be called for a personal hearing / discussion.
