Note:- The date sheet for the tests to be held in September and March shall be prepared centrally by SCERT in consultation with BOSEH, Bhiwani and communicated accordingly.

- Duration of the test for class 1st & 2nd shall be o 45 minutes and for classes 3rd to 8th shall be of 60 minutes. The tests shall be conducted in the first period of the school on the designated date. There will be no morning assembly on the day of the test and the length of class periods that day shall be shortened so that all periods are taught that day after the test.
- The marks obtained in this assessment shall be duly filled in Evaluation Sheets (CCE Cards) of each student. As you are aware, CCE cards have already been provided to every school for every student. The learning outcomes must be shared with the parents during the Parents-Teacher

Meeting to be held in the first week of next month after conducting the tests. These CCE cards will be shown by the Class-teacher/Subject-teacher to the Officers during inspection.

4. The concerned Headmaster/Head Teacher shall send the test results to DEEO within two working days on prescribed format, which has already been provided last year. The DEEO shall get these results fed/entered into the software which is available on www.harprathmik.gov.in.
5. The question papers for each exam shall be prepared centrally by the SCERT for the sake of uniformity. While question papers for the months of September and March, 2015 shall be got printed for each student and shall be got delivered by Directorate, for the remaining months i.e. May, July, August, October, November, January & February (total 7), the test papers shall be e-mailed to the concerned BRC/Principal/Headmaster/Elementary Headmaster/Head Teacher who will be responsible for taking the printouts and delivering it to the Schools. The exact methodology for this will be detailed and sent by the Director General, Elementary Education. The Class-teacher/subject-teacher shall assess the answer-sheets for all the months except September and March. Answer-sheets for the months of September and March shall be got evaluated from teachers other than the class-teacher/Subject teacher to assess independently the level of learning outcomes.
6. All teachers of Government Schools in the State are requested to maintain utmost integrity during evaluation. All the question papers and answer-sheets shall be preserved for a minimum period of one year. Inspecting officers shall randomly check/see the answer-sheets, call the concerned students and may test the correctness of evaluation. If there is a substantial mismatch between the result based on their evaluation and the independent evaluator, the concerned teacher will be liable for disciplinary action in this regard.

It is reiterated in the interest of improving academic standards in the Government Schools. All teachers shall extend their full cooperation and maintain the highest standards of integrity as well as devotion to duty as they are engaged in a very noble profession that is essential for building national character.
