However, what happened outside the examination center was the responsibility of the authorities maintaining law and order at the time of board examination. The charged officer prayed to consider his version and requested to drop the present charge-sheet as his retirement is due on 30.09.2022.

Keeping in view the above facts and circumstances enunciated above, finding of inquiry officer, reply of charged officer to the dissenting note and documents on record, it is found that the charged officer cannot be held responsible for administrative lapse as he was not the center superintendent at the said school during the board examination. The same has also been proved in the report of the regular inquiry officer.

Therefore, taking a lenient view, the present charge sheet Shri Mukesh Kumar Tyagi, the then Head Master Govt. High School, Chirsami, Sonapat now posted at Govt. High School, Shahpur, Block Nissing, District Karnal is hereby filed.
