SOP FOR FILLING THE PDF OF FORM VI

01. Point no 10 of Form VI:

- a) Make a list of teachers who were in school in January' 2023 and also in January' 2024. Do not include teachers who were in school in January' 2023 but were not there in January' 2024. Likewise, do not include teachers who were in school in January' 2024 but were not there in January' 2023.
- b) Compute average salaries paid to these teachers in January' 2023 as well as January' 2024 by dividing the sum-total of salaries paid to all these teachers in the months of January' 2023 and January' 2024 respectively by number of teachers.
- c) Compute the average increment between these two average salaries.
- d) This is the 'per capita increase of monthly salary of teaching staff'.

02. Point no 12 of Form VI:

- a) Schools that have maintained a single fee structure for all its students and have never made any incremental increase in the fee structure in the past for new admissions should submit a single fee chart for existing students.
- b) Schools that had revised their fee structure for new students in one or more academic years in the past should submit multiple fee charts for existing students.

Illustration:

- A school increases its fee by 10% every year;
- The school had a particular fee structure in academic year 2021-22;
- For the academic year 2023-23, the school increased the fee for new students by 15% i.e. more than 10%. Subsequently the fee of these new students increased 10% year on year.

Fee structure over the years for existing students who were enrolled in school up to 2021-22:

GRADE	2021-22	2022-23	2023-24	2024-25
Nursery	36,000	39,600	43,600	48,000
