APPENDIX - M

Notice U/s. 20(2) of Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987

No. .... 2009

Mumbai .....

From :
The Secretary,
Mumbai Suburban District Legal Services Authority,
High Peak Apartment,
Old Bandra Court Building,
S. V. Road, Bandra (West), Mumbai.

To

Subject : Proposal of _____ Bank for presenting your Bank Court
Matter in the Lok-Adalat for determination.

Sir,

Apropos to the subject mentioned above, you are hereby informed that, the Petitioner _____ Bank Limited, Branch _____, Mumbai has submitted an application for referring your Bank Court Matter to the Lok Adalat meant for pre-litigative claim/cases, to be held on _____. It is contended that you have availed loan facility of Rs. _____ but failed to repay / liquidate the amount as per terms and conditions settled between yourself and Bank Authority. The concerned Bank has given particulars about its claims :

- |                                  |       |
|----------------------------------|-------|
| (1) Purpose of loan              | ..... |
| (2) Name of the Guarantor        | ..... |
| (3) Amount of interest due on    | ..... |
| (4) Amount of interest due on    | ..... |
| (5) Total amount to be recovered | ..... |

Taking into consideration the aforesaid contentious issues, it is expedient for referring your Bank Court Matter at pre-litigation stage to Loak Adalat u/s. 19(5)(ii) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 for final determination.

Pursuant to Section 20(2) of Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, you are, therefore, requested to show cause "why your above Bank Court Matter should not be referred to Lok Adalat for determination" on or before _____ on the address of the undersigned mentioned above, failing, you will be responsible for further legal consequences.

Treat this as Most Urgent.

Yours faithfully,

(Secretary)
