NOTIFICATION for Centralised e-Counselling, WBJEE-2026 for Pharmacy (B. Pharm & Pharm D)

The West Bengal Joint Entrance Examinations Board (WBJEEB), established by the Government of West Bengal pursuant to the West Bengal Act XIV of 2014 (The West Bengal Joint Entrance Examinations Board Act, 2014), is responsible for conducting Common Entrance Examinations for selection of candidates for admission to undergraduate and postgraduate Professional, Vocational and General Degree Courses in the State of West Bengal and to conduct on-line counselling process or otherwise adopting a single-window approach.

Accordingly, prospective students seeking admission into the undergraduate engineering, technology, or pharmacy programs offered by state-aided universities, university departments, self-financing universities, government or self-financing colleges and institutions in West Bengal must sit for the Common Entrance Examination WBJEE and get a valid rank.

For the academic year 2026-27, the admission process includes a streamlined online counselling system. The WBJEE-2026 examination was held on 24th May, 2026, and the results have already been made public. The centralised online counselling (e-counselling) process for admission to the undergraduate (UG) courses in Engineering, Technology, and Architecture in various colleges, Institutions/Universities across the State of West Bengal has recently been completed. At present, the WBJEEB is going to start the process of centralised online counselling, or e-counselling, for the Pharmacy course (B. Pharm and Pharm D) of state-aided universities, university departments, self-financing universities, government or self-financing colleges and institutions in West Bengal.

The e-counselling process will assist students in choosing their colleges and courses based on their merit ranks. Students are advised to read this notification carefully and stay updated on any new notices. By registering for e-counselling, students agree to follow all the rules and guidelines provided by the Board. Students need to understand these rules to avoid any confusion. The Board will not be responsible if students do not understand the rules correctly.

This notification aims to ensure a fair and smooth admission process, giving all eligible students an equal chance to gain admission to their desired courses and Institutions.

The following rules and guidelines will be followed for e-counselling.

	RULES & GUIDELINES
1.0 Introduction	a) Centralised online process: i. All parts of the counselling process, including registration, choice filling, allotment, and payment of the seat acceptance fee, will be done online through a centralised system. ii. There will be three (03) rounds of counselling. iii. Fresh Candidates are allowed to register at the beginning of each round of counselling. All eligible registered candidates may opt for choice filling in each round of counselling. Unregistered candidates will not be considered for seat allocation in any round. b) Rank-Based Eligibility: To register, candidates must be valid WBJEE-2026 (GMR and PMR) or JEE(Main)-2026 rank holders. c) Registration and Fees: To participate, the candidates must register by the deadline given, and those who haven't registered will not be considered under any circumstances. 12.0 Document Verification
13.0 Exit Conditions	After successful document verification, candidates shall exercise either the "YES (Upgradation)" or "NO (No Upgradation)" option, wherever such option is applicable under the counselling process. The option of "YES (Upgradation)" shall be available only to those candidates who remain eligible for consideration in a subsequent counselling round in accordance with the approved counselling rules. Candidates who have been allotted their first preferred choice, or who are not eligible for any further round of counselling, shall not be required to exercise the upgradation option. Failure by an eligible candidate to exercise the applicable option within the prescribed period shall be treated as unwillingness to continue in the counselling process, and the candidate shall forfeit the right to participate in any subsequent round, wherever applicable.
14.0 Cancellation Rules	Allotments shall be liable to cancellation if, at any stage of scrutiny or verification, it is found that a candidate is not eligible for the allotted seat or has furnished incorrect, false, or misleading information. Present allotment may be cancelled and candidates considered in the next round with their revised academic scores/categories.
15.0 Refund Provisions	Refund, withdrawal, and forfeiture of the Seat Acceptance Fee shall be governed exclusively by the refund policy notified separately by the Board. A candidate may withdraw during the specified withdrawal period; upon successful withdrawal, the full amount will be refunded through online banking within 60 to 90 days after all rounds conclude, but the candidate ceases to be eligible for future rounds.
16.0 Reserved Category Rules	Reservation policies apply strictly for candidates who are Indian citizens and domiciled in West Bengal. The OBC reservation will follow relevant Gazette Notifications; OBC candidates must produce NCL certificates. PwD candidates must verify their status at designated Government Medical Colleges for physical verification. Certificates are verified during counselling, and invalidation modifies the candidate to the General category for subsequent rounds.

17.0 No De-reservation Rule	The Board shall not convert or de-reserve any vacant seats earmarked for reserved categories (SC, ST, OBC, EWS, TFW and PwD) into General (Unreserved) category seats in any round of the e-counselling process.
18.0 Institute Responsibilities	Document verification is entirely the responsibility of the allotted Institute. WBJEEB shall not be responsible for any mistakes in document verification and subsequent admission.
19.0 Candidate Responsibilities	Whenever a candidate is required to produce counselling documents (allotment letters, locked choices, receipts), only the original documents printed directly from the counselling portal shall be treated as valid. Screenshots, photographs, or manually reproduced copies shall not be accepted. Securing a rank does not guarantee admission if candidates fail to comply with criteria.
20.0 General Rules	a) Seat allotment results for each counselling round shall be published on the notified date as per the counselling schedule. b) All allotments shall be made strictly on the basis of the information furnished by the candidate during registration, the applicable merit rank, eligibility criteria, reservation status, availability of seats and the order of choices submitted and locked by the candidate. c) Candidates shall be required to log in to the counselling portal to view their allotment status and download the relevant allotment letter and other counselling documents. d) Candidates shall be required to log in to the counselling portal to view their allotment status and download the relevant allotment letter and other counselling documents. e) A candidate receiving a seat allotment for the first time in any counselling round shall be required to pay a 'Seat Acceptance Fee' of ₹5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) through the prescribed online payment modes and download the allotment letter. f) Failure to pay the Seat Acceptance Fee within the stipulated period shall result in cancellation of the allotment. The candidate's further participation in subsequent counselling rounds(except 1st choice allotment) shall thereafter be governed by the approved counselling rules applicable to the concerned category of candidate.

	g) After payment of the Seat Acceptance Fee, wherever applicable, the candidate may report to the allotted Institute within the notified period for physical verification of documents. h) Failure to complete document verification within the stipulated schedule shall result in cancellation of the current allotment. Eligibility for participation in subsequent rounds shall be governed by the approved counselling rules. In such case, if the candidate has already paid registration fee/seat acceptance fee, no additional fee is required for participation in any subsequent round(s) of counselling/allotment. i) If, at any stage of scrutiny or verification, it is found that a candidate is not eligible for the allotted seat or has furnished incorrect, false or misleading information, the allotment and/or admission shall be liable to cancellation. j) Whenever a candidate is required to produce counselling documents such as allotment letters, locked-choice statements, participation confirmations, admission letters, physical reporting receipts or similar records, only the original documents generated through the counselling portal shall be treated as valid. Screenshots, photographs or manually reproduced copies shall not be accepted. k) Automatic category upgradation within the same Institute and the same course may occur if vacancies arise in a higher-preference reservation category for which the candidate is eligible. l) If a candidate receives an upgraded allotment in any counselling round, the earlier allotment shall stand automatically cancelled and released for allotment to other eligible candidates according to merit and reservation rules. Such upgradation shall be irreversible, and the candidate shall not be entitled to reclaim the earlier allotment. m) If no upgradation occurs, the candidate shall continue to retain the previously accepted allotment, subject to compliance with the applicable counselling rules. n) Refund, withdrawal and forfeiture of the Seat Acceptance Fee shall be governed exclusively by the refund policy notified separately by the Board from time to time. o) If any change occurs in domicile reservation in any institutions, these changes have to be reflected in the seat
