PREFACE TO REPRINTED EDITION

The District Gazetteer is a miniature encyclopaedia and a good guide. It describes all important aspects and features of the district; historical, physical, social, economic and cultural. Officials and other persons desirous of acquainting themselves with the salient features of the district would find a study of the Gazetteer rewarding. It is of immense use for research scholars.

The old gazetteers of the State published in the British regime contained very valuable information, which was not wholly re-produced in the revised volume. These gazetteers have gone out of stock and are not easily available. There is a demand for these volumes by research scholars and educationists. As such, the scheme of reprinting of old gazetteers was taken up by the Gazetteers Organisation of Haryana.

In 1908 there were large number of princely States viz., Phulkian States, Nabha State, Jind State, Dujana State, Loharu State, Chhachhrauli State, Pataudi State and Kalsia State. The Imperial Gazetteer of India (Provincial Series), Volume-II, Punjab, 1908 contains very important information and data pertaining to the Revenue System, Law & Order, Flora & Fauna and the Social hierarchy system under these principalities. In those days Narnaul and Mahendergarh Nizamats were part of Patiala State; Jind & Narwana a part of Jind State and areas of Pataudi & Loharu were under the Nawab of Pataudi & Loharu, respectively.

The Volume is the reprinted edition of the Imperial Gazetteer of India (Provincial Series), Punjab, Volume-II, 1908. This gazetteer was printed under the supervision of Superintendent of Government Printing Press, Calcutta. This is the nineteenth in the series of reprinted gazetteers of Haryana. Every care has been taken in maintaining the complete originality of the old gazetteer while reprinting. I extend my appreciation to Sh. A. K. Jain, Editor, Gazetteers and Sh. J.S. Nayyar, Assistant, who have handled the work with efficiency and care in the reprinting of this volume.

I am very thankful to the Controller, Printing and Stationery, Haryana and his staff in the press for expeditiously completing the work of reprinting.
