SECTION 28

Alteration of rent On Alteration of Area

28. Alteration of rent on alteration of area.--Every tenant shall--

(a) be liable to pay additional rent for all land proved to be in excess of the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that excess is due to the addition to his tenancy of land which having previously belonged to the tenancy, was lost by diluvion or otherwise without any reduction of the rent being made ; and

(b) be entitled to an abatement of rent in respect of any deficiency proved to exist in the area of his tenancy as compared with the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the deficiency is due to the loss of land which was added to the area of the tenancy by alluvion or otherwise and that an addition has not been made to the rent in respect of the addition to the area.

(2) In determining the area for which rent has been previously paid the Court shall have regard to the following among other matters namely :--

(a) the origin and conditions of the tenant's occupancy for instance whether the rent was a rent in gross for the entire tenancy ;

(b) whether the tenant has been allowed to hold additional land in consideration of an addition to his total rent or otherwise with the knowledge and consent of the landlord ;;

(c) the length of time during which there has been so dispute as to rent or area.

(3) In adding to or abating rent under this section, the Court shall add to or abate the rent to such an amount as it deems to be fair and equitable, and shall specify in its decree the date on and from which the addition or abatement is to take effect.

(4) An addition to or abatement of rent under this section shall not be deemed an enhancement or reduction of rent within the meaning of this Act.

SECTION 29-36

Remission

29. *Remission of rent by Courts decreeing arrears.--*Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing sections of this Chapter, if it appears to a Court making a decree for an area of rent that the area of a tenancy has been so diminished by diluvion or otherwise, or that the produce thereof has been so diminished by drought, hail, deposit of sand or other like calamity, that the full amount of rent payable by the tenant cannot be equitably decreed, the Court may, with the previous sanction of the Collector, allow such remission from the rent payable by tenant as may appear to it to be just.

SECTION 30

30. Remission and suspension of rent consequent on like treatment of

Ss.30

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887

Land revenue-- ¹[(i) Whenever the payment of the whole or any part of the land revenue payable in respect of any land is remitted or suspended, a Revenue-officer may, if the rent be payable in cash or be rent payable in kind of which the amount is fixed by order remit or suspend, as the case may be, the payment of the rent of that land to an amount which may bear the same proportion the whole of the rent payable in respect of the land as the land revenue of which payment has been remitted or suspended bears to the whole of land-revenue payable in respect of the land:

Provided that in the case of an occupancy-tenant, whose rent is of the nature hereinbefore in this sub-section described, the remission or suspension of the land-revenue payable in respect of the land shall, in the absence of a written order by a Revenue officer to the contrary carry with it a proportionate remission or suspension, as the case may be of his rent.

When the payment of the rent of any kind has been suspended under this clause it shall remain under suspension until the Collector orders the revenue of that land to be realized.]

(2) An order passed under sub-section (1) shall not be liable to be contested by suit in any Court.

(3) A suit shall not lie for the recovery of any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or during the period of suspension, of any rent of which the payment has been suspended.

(4) Where the payment of rent has been suspended, the period during which the suspension has continued shall be excluded in the computation of the period of limitation prescribed for a suit for the recovery of the rent.

²[(5) If the landlord collects from a tenant any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or is under suspension, the Revenue-officer may recover from the landlord the amount or value of the rent so collect, and may also recover by way of penalty a further sum not exceeding such amount or value, and may cause to be refunded to the tenant the amount or value of the rent so collected from him.]

(6) The provisions of this section relating to the remission and suspension of the payment of rent may be applied, so far as they can be made applicable, to land of which the land-revenue has been released, compounded for or redeemed in any case in which, if the land-revenue in respect of the land had not been released, compounded for or redeemed, the whole or any part of it might, in the opinion of the Revenue officer, be remitted or suspended under the rules for the time being in force regulating the remission and suspension of land-revenue.

provided that the Revenue-officer shall not make the order until he is satisfied that the notice was duly served on the tenant.

(6) If within those two months tenant institutes a suit to contest his liability to be ejected and fails in the suit, the Court by which the suit is determined shall by its decree direct the ejectment of the tenant.

COMMENTARY

--Section 45 of Revenue Act talks of a right which an aggrieved person may agitate if he is in possession of the land-Applicants here were deprived of the possession by an order of the State as early as about 1902-And later confirmed by consolidation proceedings-Stood so for years as having been decided by the then Tehsildar and Nazim-This would then operate as judicature to the present application- The position is different-Those not in possession want the record of rights to be a mended, and such request cannot be entertained by the Revenue Court as per Section 158(2) (vi)-Decree or decision of a Revenue Court having no jurisdiction could not operate as res -judicata suit for declaration is to be filed under Specific Relief Act- Jurisdiction of Civil court is not barred by section 77(3) of Punjab Tenancy Act, Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 Section 45-A the tenant may apply to the Revenue-officer having authority to order his ejectment under section 44 or section 45 as the case may be, to determine the amount of compensation due to him for improvement or for disturbance or for both and the Revenue officer shall determine the amount, if any, accordingly and stay the ejectment of the tenant until the landlord pays to the Revenue-officer the amount so determined less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Revenue-officer to be due to the landlord from the tenant.

SECTION 72.

72. Matters to be regarded in assessment of compensation for improvement.-In estimating the compensation to be awarded under this Chapter to a tenant for an improvement, the Court or Revenue officer shall have regard to-

- (a) the amount by which the value or the produce of the tenancy or the value of that produce is increased by the improvement;
- (b) the condition of the improvement and the probable duration of its effects
- (c) the labour and capital required for the making of such an improvement ;
- (d) any reduction or remission of rent or other advantage allowed to the tenant by the landlord in consideration of the improvement; and
- (e) in the case of a reclamation, or of the conversion of un irrigated into irrigated land, the length of time during which the tenant has had the benefit of the improvement.

SECTION 73

73. Form of Compensation.-(1) The compensation shall be made by payment in money, unless the parties agree that it be made in whole or in part by the grant of a beneficial lease of land or in some other way.

- (2) If the parties so agree, the Court or Revenue-officer shall make an order accordingly.

SECTION 74

Relief in case of ejectment before the determination of Compensation

74. Relief in case of ejectment before determination of compensation.-(1) If from any cause the amount of compensation payable to a tenant-

SECTION 81

81. Limitation for appeals.- The period of limitation for an appeal under the last foregoing section shall run from the date of the order or decree appealed against, and shall be allows, that is to say : -

- (a) when the appeal lies to the Collector-thirty days;
- (b) when the appeal lies to the Commissioner-sixty days;
- (c) when the appeal lies to the Financial Commissioner-ninety days.

SECTION 82

82. Review by Revenue officer.-(1) A Revenue-officer as such, may either of own motion or on the application of any party interested, review, and on so reviewing modify, reverse or confirm any order passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office :

Provided as follows :-

(a) When a Commissioner or Collector thinks it necessary to review any order which he has not himself passed, and' when a Revenue-officer of a class below that of Collector purposes to review any order whether passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office, he shall first obtain the sanction of the Revenue-officer to whose control he is immediately subject ; .

(b) no application for review of an order shall be entertained unless it as made within ninety days from the passing of the order, or unless the applicant satisfies the Revenue-officer that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period ;

(c) an order shall not be modified or reversed unless reasonable notice has been given to the parties affected thereby to appear and be heard in support of the order ;

(d) an order against which an appeal has been preferred shall not reviewed.

(2) For the purposes of this, section the Collector shall be deemed to

83. Computation of periods limited for appeals and application for review.--In the computation of the period for an appeal from or an application for the review of, an order under this Act, the limitation therefore shall be governed by the Indian Limitation Act, 1877.¹

SECTION 84

84. Power to call for, examine and revise proceedings of Revenue officers and Revenue Courts.- (1) The Financial Commissioner may at any time call for the record of any case pending before or disposed of by any Revenue officer or Revenue Court subordinate to him,

(2) A Commissioner or Collector may call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control.

(3) If any case in which a Commissioner or Collector has called for a record he is of opinion that the proceedings taken or the order or decree made should be modified or reversed, he shall submit the record with his opinion on the case for the orders of the Financial Commissioner.

(4) If, after examining a record called for by himself under subsection (1) or submitted to him under sub-section (3). the Financial Commissioner is of opinion that it is inexpedient to interfere with the proceedings or the order or decree, it shall pass an order accordingly.

(5) If, after examining the record, the Financial Commissioner is of opinion that it is expedient to interfere with the proceedings or the order or decree on any ground on which the [High Court] in the exercise of its revisional jurisdiction may under the law for the time being in force interfere with the proceedings or an order or decree of a Civil Court, he shall fix a day for hearing the case, and may, on that or any subsequent day to which he may adjourn the hearing or which he may appoint in this behalf, pass such order as he thinks it in the ease.

(6) Except when the Financial Commissioner fixes under subsection (5) a day for hearing the case, no party has any right to be heard before the Financial Commissioner when exercising his powers under this section.

(3) The fees of a legal practitioner shall not be all owed as cost in any proceedings before a Revenue officer under this Act, unless that officer considers, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing that the fees should be allowed.

SECTION 87

87. Costs.-(1) A Revenue-officer may give and apportion the costs of any proceedings under this Act in any manner he think fit.

(2) But if he orders that the costs of any such proceeding shall not follow the event, he shall record his reasons for the order.

SECTION 88

88. Procedure of Revenue Courts.-(1) The 1[State] Government may² 3[--] make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue Court in matters under this Act for which a procedure is not prescribed thereby, and may by any such rule direct that any provision of the 1Code of Civil Procedure shall apply, with or without modification, to all or any classes of cases before those Courts.

(2) Until rules are made under sub-section (1), and subject to those rules when made and to the provisions of the Act,-

(a) the 4Code of Civil Procedure shall, so far as it is applicable, apply to all proceedings in Revenue Courts whether before or after decree; and

(b) the Financial Commissioner shall, in respect of those proceeding be deemed to be the High Court within the meaning of that Code, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, exercise, as regards the Courts under his control, all the powers of a High Court under the Code.

SECTION 89

89. Power of Revenue officer or Revenue Court to summon persons.(1) A Revenue officer or Revenue Court may summon any persons whose attendance he or it considers necessary for the purpose of any application, suit or other business before him or it as a Revenue-Officer or Revenue Court.

(2) A person so summoned shall be bound to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons in person or if the summons so allows, by his recognized agent or a legal practitioner.

(3) The person attending in obedience to t he summons shall be bound to state the truth upon any matter respecting which he is examined or makes statements and to produce such documents and other things relating to any such matter as the Revenue-"Officer or Revenue Court may require.

SECTION 90

90. Mode of service of summons.- (I) A summons issued by a Revenue-Officer or Revenue Court, if practicable, be served (2) personally on the person to whom it is addressed, or failing him on (b) his recognized agent on (c) an adult male member of his family who is residing with him.

(2) If service cannot be so made or if acceptance of service so made is refused, the summons may be served by posting a copy thereof at the usual or last known place of residence of the person to whom it is addressed, or, if that person does not reside in the district in which the Revenue Officer is employed or the Revenue Court is held and the case to which the summons relates has reference to land in that district, then by pasting a copy of the summons on some conspicuous place in or near the estate wherein the land is situated.

(3) If the summons relates to a case in which persons having the same interest are so numerous that personal service on all of them is not reasonably practicable, it may, if the Revenue-Officer or Revenue Court so directs, be served by delivery of a copy thereof to such of those persons as the officer or Court nominates in this behalf and by proclamation of the contents thereof for the information of the other persons interested.

(4) A summons may if the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court so directs be served on the persons named therein, either in addition to, or in substitution for, any other mode of service, by forwarding the summons by post in a letter addressed to the person and registered under Part III of the Indian Post Office Act, 1886¹, (XIV of 1866)

(5) When a summons is so forwarded in a letter and it is proved that the letter was properly addressed and duly posted and registered, the officer or Court may presume that the summons was served at the time when the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of posts.

SECTIONS 91-96

91. Mode of Service of notice order of proclamation or copy thereof. --A notice, order or proclamation, or copy of any such document issued by a Revenue-Officer or Revenue Court for service on any person shall be served in the manner provided in the last foregoing section for the service of a summons.

92. Additional mode of publishing proclamation.-When a proclamation relating to any land is issued by a Revenue-Officer or Revenue Court, it shall, in addition to any other mode of application which may be prescribed by any enactment for the time being in force, be made by beat of drum or other customary method, and by the posting of a copy thereof on a conspicuous place in or near the land to which it relates.

93. Joinder of tenants as parties to proceedings relating to rent.-(1) Any number of tenants cultivating in the same estate may, in the direction of the Revenue-Officer or Revenue Court and subject to any rules, which the [State] Government may make in this behalf, be made parties to any proceeding under Chapter III.

(2) But a decree or order shall not be made in any such proceeding unless the Revenue-Officer or Revenue Court is satisfied that all the parties thereto have had an opportunity of appearing and being heard.

(3) A decree or order made in any such proceedings shall specify the extent to which each of the tenants is affected thereby.

94 Exception of suits under this Act from operation of certain enactment.-Nothing In section 424 of the 1Code of Civil Procedure XIV of 1882 or in section 6 of the 2Punjab Municipal Act. 1834, (XIII of 1884) shall be construed to apply to it suit of a class mentioned in section 77 of this Act.

95. Payment into Court of money admitted to be due to a third person. -When a defendant admits that money is due from him on account of rent, but pleads that it is due not to the plaintiff but to a third person, the Court seal, except for special reasons to be recorded by It, refuse to take cognizance of the plea unless the defendant pays into Court the amount to admitted to be due.

(2) Where such a payment is made the Court shall forthwith cause notice of the payment to be served on third person.

(3) Unless the third person within three months from the receipt of the notice institutes a suit against the plaintiff and therein obtains an order restraining payment of the money, it shall be paid to the plaintiff on his application to the Court therefor.

(4) Nothing in this section shall effect the right of any person to recover from the plaintiff money paid to him under sub-section (3)
