

GAZETTEERS BRANCH

SUO MOTTO DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION UNDER SECTION 4 (1) (B) (I) OF RTI ACT, 2005

(As in July, 2023)

(Information for the Public under Section4(1) (b) (i) to (xvii) of the Right to Information act, 2005.

The preparation of gazetteers was initiated as early as 1871 when (Sir) W.W.Hunter presented a comprehensive plan for the gazetteers to the then Government of India. The first edition of The Imperial Gazetteers of India was published in 1881 in nine volumes. The companion volume The Indian Empire: Its History, People and Products, appeared in 1882, the second edition of The Imperial Gazetteers of India was brought out in fourteen volumes in 1885-87. The new revised edition of the Gazetteer was published in 1907-09 in twenty six volumes, the first four volumes being the revised versions of Hunter's The Indian Empire, the next twenty constituting the alphabetical series and the last two the index and atlas.

During the British times, the work of compiling Gazetteers was taken up in the Punjab after the great Census Report of Sir Denzil Ibbetson in 1881.

The Government of India replaced the Standing Order No. 43, Original Issue, dated 19th October, 1909 in this regard. The orders of the Government of India as to the preparation of the Gazetteers will be found in Paragraph 836 of the Land Administration Manual. Under the provisions contained in Chapter-XVII of the Land Revenue Manual (as applicable to Haryana) the revision of Gazetteers has now been entrusted to a separate organization under the supervision and control of the State Editor, Gazetteers, who under takes the work of revising gazetteers under the administrative control of the Financial Commissioner, Revenue. The instructions of the Government of India are contained in their letter No. F.23-1/55.C-1(A), dated 17th November, 1956.

To ensure "uniformity of form contents and standard", the Government of India laid down Chapter headings and Contents "providing", however "room for variations and additions to meet the local or special needs". The District Gazetteers of a country make a valuable series, which will serve as a harmonising factor by increasing one's knowledge of the different parts of the country and the people, which will lead to the engender ing of sympathy, tolerance, and a greater understanding of one another. As such, by stressing the fundamental unity underlying the difference that exists from district to district in any one State or in the country as a whole, the district gazetteers contribute in a vital form for promoting political unity, cultural oneness and national integration. As per the 'Plan of Gazetteers' as enshrined under paragraph 17.2 of the Land Revenue Manual, the district Gazetteers in Haryana have 19 chapters.

Since the inception of Haryana in 1966, the Gazetteers Organisation of the Revenue and Disaster Management Department has been compiling/re-revising the district Gazetteers and State Gazetteers on the pattern laid down by the Government of India.

The Gazetteers Branch has published following District/ State Gazetteers:-
