OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: - Mandatory requirement of UDID Number/UDID enrolment number with copy of disability certificate for availing benefits under the schemes regarding.

The Department of Empowerment of Persons with Disabilities is implementing Unique Disability Identification (UDID) Project since 2016. Under the UDID project, Unique Disability Identity (UDID) cards are issued to PwDs based on the evaluation and assessment of type and percentage of disability.

2. In order to bring transparency and to reduce the burden of paperwork on the PwDs, the UDID will be mandated for various schemes of DEPwD and its associated organizations (National Trust, RCI, NHFDC, ALIMCO, All National Institutes and Composite Regional Centres etc.) In case, UDID number is not available, UDID enrolment number (Generated from UDID portal only) along with certificate of disability shall be mandatory. It may be noted that physical copy of disability certificate or uploading the disability certificate is not required, in case of availability of valid UDID number.

3. In view of above, all divisional heads in the Department and Head/In-charge of National Institutes/Organizations/Statutory Bodies/Public Sector Undertakings under the Department are directed to ensure strict compliance of mandatory requirement of UDID number/UDID enrolment number (Generated from UDID portal) along with copy of disability for availing benefits/relaxation under the schemes mentioned in the enclosure with effect from 01.04.2023.

4. This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.
