NALSA (Victims of Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation) Scheme, 2015

BACKGROUND

Under Section 4 (b) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, the “Central Authority”, i.e. the National Legal Services Authority, has been obligated to “frame the most effective and economical schemes for the purpose of making legal services available under the provisions” of the Act. The Preamble of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, underscores that the legal services authorities are concerned with the weaker sections of the society and imposes a duty on them to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities.

There can be no doubt that victims of commercial sexual exploitation, whether trafficked or voluntary sex workers are by far a highly marginalised group. Their rights are forgotten; their conditions of life and living are not anybody's concern; what happens to them and their children interest no-one. Yet they are all entitled to benefits of the various schemes of the government by the mere fact of who they are. By their much marginalised existence they are entitled to all benefits that accrue to them as are available to other marginalised sections of the society.

Victims of trafficking for commercial sexual exploitation face a great deal of trauma not just following such trafficking but also after their rescue. They need to be protected against the traffickers who would want them to come back or not pursue their case. There are also livelihood issues and if a viable alternative is not given, chances of being re-trafficked are high.

In the case filed by PRAJWALA, being Writ Petition (C) No.56 of 2004 the NALSA has given a report in the Supreme Court to take the following actions in respect of victims of trafficking for commercial Sexual Exploitation and sex workers:

"The role of the legal services authorities as set out in the preliminary report is reiterated as follows:

- (a) Provide legal assistance to the victims of trafficking and sexual exploitation at the time of rescue and thereafter during trial.
- (b) Facilitate the accessing of the District Legal Services Authorities(DLSAs) for award of victim compensation under Section 357A Cr.P.C
- (c) To monitor and act as social auditors of the existing facilities available for rehabilitation of rescued victims of sexual exploitation and trafficking.
- (d) DLSAs can spread awareness in the community through the panel lawyers and para-legal volunteers about the issues of trafficking particularly in vulnerable areas and among vulnerable groups.
- (e) The DLSAs can act as converging nodes to ensure that the government schemes meant for the marginalized actually reach them as such access to the government support does have a positive impact in preventing trafficking and falling prey to traffickers.
- (f) Initiate steps to sensitize the corporate world to support rehabilitation measures for trafficked victims including skill building and employment under the head of CSR.
- (g) SLSAs can also assist in the training and sensitization of stakeholders, like police, lawyers including legal services lawyers, prosecutors, government servants and the judiciary.
- (h) SLSAs may also collaborate with the local educational institutions and civil society organisations and NGOs working in this field."

The NALSA believes that it is necessary to draw up a scheme to give a framework for the legal services authorities at different levels to put into action the undertaking given to the Supreme Court. To that end the present Scheme has been drawn up. It is expected that the Legal services authorities at all levels would be able to render legal services effectively to these vulnerable people by following the present scheme.

NAME OF THE SCHEME

The Scheme shall be called "NALSA (Victims of Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation) Scheme, 2015".

The objective of the Scheme is to provide legal services to address the concerns of victims of trafficking including women of all age groups and at every stage: ie prevention, rescue and rehabilitation.

The thrust of the scheme is to provide economic and social pathways for these marginalised groups so that they are socially included and thus get all social protections available to an ordinary citizen. The interventions of the legal services authorities should be to ensure the protection of the dignity of the victims which is as much their fundamental right to a life as of any other citizen.

In order that the already marginalised voluntary sex workers are not excluded from the assistance of the legal services authorities, they are also considered victims of commercial sexual exploitation, apart from those children and adults who are trafficked for the purpose.

STRATEGY FOR LEGAL SERVICES TO THE VICTIMS

The strategy of the legal services must be guided by a 360 degree approach. Thus, children, young adults of whatever sex, adolescent girls, young women and older women should all be included in the action plan. The legal services authorities must also develop an action plan for prevention, rescue and rehabilitation and not merely for one of these aspects. Further the legal services authorities must document each case and carry out a follow up at least for three years so that reintegration of the victim into the society is complete.

Enabling trafficked women to get their entitlements by completing all due diligence processes

The action plan must be to use the existing welfare schemes of the Government, both Central as well as the State, with a life-cycle approach to strengthen social security, social development and welfare in order to cover prevention of trafficking and rehabilitation of the victims. DLSA can request NGOs/CBOs to use tools such as micro planning and surveys to ascertain the demand for schemes and thereafter set up Help Desks across the district to facilitate registration for the schemes. Simultaneously the victims/community members could be motivated and educated about how to apply for schemes they wish to enroll or register for.

The DLSA, with the support of the concerned department could facilitate the applicant to fulfil the procedures stipulated under each scheme and comply with all the due diligence processes. This would include enabling the applicant to get the supportive documents that are required to be furnished in order to establish eligibility for the benefits under a scheme, such as getting proof of residence, age certificate, nativity certificate, income certificate, etc. Once all the due diligence is over and the scheme sanctioned, DLSA should provide support to the community till the scheme gets delivered or the benefit reaches the beneficiary.

The Available Schemes

- 1. ICDS or Childcare development ---0-6 years, pregnant women and lactating mothers (as care givers)
- 2. Food security or ration cards
- 3. Social security or Pension for the elderly women
- 4. Educational schemes including midday meal, bridge schools, residential schools of Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan, Sabala; scholarships for the primary, secondary and higher education from Social Welfare Department for adolescents and specifically girls

5. Livelihood- Skill Development, Financial Inclusion, Micro Enterprise -from SC/ST/BC/Minority and Women's Development Corporation and CSR funds from government and public sector undertakings
6. Housing or Subsidy for Construction and Land Pattas from Urban Development, Housing Corporation
7. Universal entitlements-Jan Dhan, Aadhar, Voter Card, SHG membership
8. Legal aid Schemes- Legal Literacy, Para Legal Volunteers, Legal services clinics to ensure free legal aid and protection

Role of LSAs

The most important role of the SLSAs/DLSAs is to maintain convergence oversight. While the administrative convergence for all the schemes no doubt will be under the District Collector, the protection convergence will have to be overseen by the SLSAs and the DLSAs. To converge social and legal protection for marginalized women SLSAs and DLSAs will provide the oversight on the process of convergence by bringing together the administrative convergence provided by the District Collector and those generated by the structures or community organizations that are facilitating the process on the ground and are rooted in the community and its realities and have played significant roles in preventing HIV, trafficking and violence against women and girls. In this background, the role of the SLSAs/DLSAs would be in:

Bridging the Gap- between all departments and trafficked women, women in sex work and those vulnerable to trafficking and extreme violence

Enhancing Engagement- Scheme Education Drive Organized by DLSA bringing together Community organizations and its members and government-department-district and sub-district administration

Facilitating Participation and Ownership-Led by DLSA in collaboration with community organizations through community meetings and camps

Sensitization- Enabling all departments and institutions to learn about dynamics of community, remove misconceptions

Strengthening Accountability –Through an MIS capturing all processes from identifying entitlement holder to scheme delivery.

Forging Partnerships – At the more micro level the collaborations will be with Community Organizations and NGOs working with sex workers and victims of trafficking and sexual exploitation. They will facilitate the process of reaching out to the many hidden members of the community and shape the process of community mobilization.

At the meso level, the partnership should be with and between district administrative mechanisms such as Department of Women and Child Development (especially Child Protection/Welfare Committees and Anti Human Trafficking Units) and the DLSA. This will highlight initiatives at the ground level with the community or beneficiaries.

The third level of partnership will be at the macro level with the Department of Women and Child which implements many schemes for victims of trafficking and also runs shelter homes for those rescued; Ministry of Home Affairs, Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment and Rural Livelihood Mission which also has the mandate of prevention of human trafficking and will be vital partner to strengthen protection and safety nets to the beneficiaries.

Action Plan

The first step that the DLSA should take is to reach out to the Non Governmental Organisations and Community Based Organisations (CBOs) working in the field. To do this, the SLSAs must contact the UNICEF or UNODC. State Agencies such as Department of Women and Child, Rural Livelihood Missions . They must also seek the assistance of the National Aids Control Organisation (NACO) and the State and District

Aids Control Societies (SACS & DACS). Thus the SLSAs/DLSAs would be able to obtain information about trafficking as well as sex workers.

The second step would be to catalyse inter departmental convergence both at the State and further down to the district level so that an all inclusive and comprehensive response from all concerned departments and stakeholders emerges and essential inter-sectoral linkages, processes and mechanisms get established.

Trafficking: As regards trafficking, from the Anti Human Trafficking units in the State and with the help of the NGOs/CBOs, the DLSA should map out the vulnerable areas and the vulnerable populations within its jurisdiction. Then preventive strategies can be put into motion. These would be spreading information about schemes and connecting the vulnerable people to such schemes so that they benefit from them. This would also include spreading awareness about the law and about the dangers posed by prospective traffickers. The children and adolescent children could be made aware of the dangers of strangers befriending them and the parents cautioned about the falsity of promises made to them of better education for their children in cities. Young adults could similarly be warned about false promises of jobs and better lives.

The SLSAs/DLSAs should create a team of panel lawyers and social workers to spread awareness about the welfare schemes of the government. The PLVs should be used to ensure that all the due diligence processes including eligibility documents and proofs are collected to enable the vulnerable communities to access the various schemes. The DLSA should use their PLVs and their offices wherever necessary to interact with the Administrative heads such as the District Collector or Chief Secretary to ensure the final realisation of the scheme.

The PLVs attached to or assigned to a police station in compliance of the orders of the Supreme Court of India to handle cases of missing children should be given special training by the SLSAs /DLSAs to sensitise them on children's issues as well as trafficking issues, so that they are responsive. These PLVs must inform the SLSAs/DLSAs whenever such a case of trafficking is reported or arrest of a sex worker occurs at the police station.

Sex Workers: One method of understanding community needs is to organise meetings between the Member Secretary SLSA or Full Time Secretary DLSA and the community leaders where the community leaders can explain the difficulties they face in accessing social entitlements especially the social security schemes such as widow and old age pension schemes even though they fall under eligible category.

The other method is to organize public hearings where community members would “depose”, or in other words relate their experience with governance at all levels. The “jury” should be made up of DLSA Chairperson and /or Full time secretary , other judicial officers wherever possible, high government functionaries such as DC, Principal secretaries or Chief Secretaries, police officers and protection officers. The SLSAs/DLSAs should also involve senior advocates and panel lawyers in such programmes.

After the deposition the Member Secretary /Secretary as the case maybe or the panel advocate should explain to the community about the legal services available in the Legal Services Authority and encourage them to file complaints and seek free legal aid whenever their rights are infringed or they have a legal problem such inheritance etc. The Legal Services Authority can enable the target groups to redress the violence and harassment they face in their day to day life. In cases of violence from partners or husbands, the DLSA along with Protection Officers can provide legal aid and counselling services.

The DLSAs can accredit Para legal volunteers drawn from the community and train them as per the NALSA module. These PLVs can then act as the front line workers of the Authority as far as the community is concerned. The effort must be to ensure “saturation coverage” by having representation from all the blocks of the district and ultimately the entire State.

Once again, the DLSAs should assess the need for schemes in the community and facilitate the access of the community to the various welfare schemes of the government in the manner as mentioned hereinbefore.

Prevention: While ensuring the implementation of government welfare schemes, the SLSAs/DLSAs should pay attention to the structure already available under the Integrated Child Protection Scheme, particularly the setting up of the Village Level Child Protection Committees (VLCPC). These Committees are made up of Panchayat members, school teachers, students and parents from the community. Special awareness programmes should be organized for the VLCPC to keep a watch on the children in the village. The teachers should be sensitized to keep a watch for children missing from school and report them, so that further enquiries about their well being are promptly made.

A similar awareness and sensitization programme should be organized for the Anganwadi and Health workers for younger children and adolescent girls. Again, the SLSAs/DLSAs must ensure that children remaining absent are followed up and reported immediately.

PLVs drawn from the VLCPCs and Anganwadis as well as teachers should be trained with special emphasis on the issues of trafficking and sexual exploitation. The work of these PLVs must be closely monitored. At the same time these PLVs must be given effective mentors and support so that any incident reported is given full and complete attention by the SLSA/DLSA concerned.

Student Legal Literacy Clubs should be encouraged to write about and talk and discuss about trafficking issues. These clubs could play the role of peer educators about the dangers of growing up and how to keep oneself safe.

The SLSAs/DLSAs should strengthen groups who are working to prevent child marriages and empowerment of women. Many times, child and forced marriages are a prelude to trafficking for sexual exploitation. Apart from spreading awareness student groups should be formed in vulnerable areas and communities to report on child marriages and initiate preventive action.

While dealing with women already in sex work, the SLSAs/DLSAs should focus on the livelihood alternatives to help these women come out of the profession and prevent their children entering it. Women could be encouraged to save money and channelize the money into entrepreneurship which would ensure their social recognition and assimilation. The SLSAs/DLSAs should help the women to protect themselves from domestic violence and provide legal assistance to follow up court cases. They should help these women access all government schemes as mentioned above.

Strategies of prevention and protection of victims of trafficking implemented by the Rural Livelihood Missions should also be understood and explored so as to replicate some of the successful methods and establish collaborative efforts.

Rescue and Rehabilitation: The protocol for the One Stop Crisis Centre would no doubt be available for the rescued victims of trafficking. Apart from ensuring compliance of the directions of the Supreme Court in Prajwala's case, the SLSAs/DLSAs must also follow up with the rehabilitation of the victim chiefly through access to government schemes to provide a stable alternate livelihood for the victims. The DLSAs should ensure that panel lawyers and PLVs help the victims to get their FIR registered and are present during remand proceedings to oppose bail etc. The Panel lawyers should obtain court orders for protection of witnesses wherever necessary and to counsel the victims before deposition and be present during trial including recording of the statement of the victim. The panel lawyers and PLVs should also help the victim to apply to the DLSAs for release of compensation under the Victims Compensation Scheme and also to access other welfare schemes of the Govt. meant for the rehabilitation of such victims.

Management Information Systems: The SLSAs and DLSAs will have to develop a sound MIS so that every activity under this scheme is recorded, followed up and assessed. Similarly, the assistance of the PLVs and the Panel lawyers given to the victims will have to be recorded and monitored closely by the Secretary DLSA. Where the DLSA has facilitated the rehabilitation, there must be a tracking of the person for at least three years so that the rehabilitation is complete and there is no danger of re-trafficking.

Transgenders: The provisions of this scheme will be applicable to all Transgenders as well.

NALSA (Legal Services to the Workers in the Unorganized Sector) Scheme, 2015

NALSA (Legal Services to the Workers in the Unorganized Sector) Scheme, 2015

1. Background

- 1.1 One of the major characteristics of the Indian economy is the contribution of a vast majority of labour employed in the unorganised sector. The economic survey of India (2007-2008) and National Sample Survey unorganized sector (2009-2010) have estimated the employment in this sector at about 93-94% of the total workforce. Its contribution to the GDP is estimated to be more than 50%.
- 1.2 Majority of unorganised workers (about 52 per cent) are employed in agriculture. Other major categories include construction workers, workers in small enterprises, workers employed through contractors even in large enterprises, artisans/craftsman, home based workers, workers depending upon forest produce, fisheries, self-employed workers like rickshaw pullers, auto drivers, coolies etc.
- 1.3 The distinguishing feature of the unorganised sector is non-applicability of most of the labour laws and other regulations providing for decent working conditions, job security and social security to the workers. The unorganised workers lack collective bargaining power and are therefore susceptible to excessive exploitation. They work under poor working conditions and receive far lower wages/remuneration as compared to the organised sector, even for comparable jobs. Most of the employment in this sector is seasonal and the workers therefore have no job guarantee. This also leads to large scale migration of workers from one place to another leading to un-stability of work and residence which further often leads to discontinuity of the education of their children. In cities, they live in slums without proper housing and sanitation. Health care and maternity benefits which are statutorily available in the organised sector are not available for them. The legislations providing for social securities for old-age, health-care and assistance in the event of death, marriage and accidents etc., like the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923; Employees State Insurance Act, 1948; Maternity Benefits Act, 1961; Industrial Disputes Act, 1974; Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972; Employee Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 etc., do not apply to them. The combined effect of the above factors is that many of them are generally, forced to lead an undignified and servile life.

1.4 Existing Legal Frame Work

Although there are a large number of categories of employment in the unorganized sector, legislation providing for working conditions etc., have been enacted only in respect of few categories like:-

- Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Act, 1948;
- Beedi and Cigar Workers (Condition of Employment) Act, 1966;
- Inter-State Migrant Workmen (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1979;
- Cine-Workers and Cinema Theatre Workers (Regulation of Employment) Rules, 1984;
- Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996;
- Prohibition Of Employment As Manual Scavengers And Their Rehabilitation Act, 2013.

1.5 In order to provide for social security to all categories of unorganised workers, the Central Government has also enacted an umbrella legislation by the name of Unorganised Workers Social Security Act, 2008. Various social security schemes have been/are required to be floated for the benefit of the workers under the Building and Construction Workers Act, 1996 and Unorganised Workers Social Security Act, 2008.

2. Scheme for providing legal services.

- 2.1 The enactment of the few statues as mentioned herein above does not appear to have made any appreciable difference to the lives of the workers inter-alia, for the following reasons:-
- a) The Social Security Act,2008 does not statutorily provide any mechanism to implement the schemes and there appears to be no sanction against a refusal of the concerned authorities to extend the benefits of the schemes to eligible workers.
 - b) Very few States have constituted the Social Security Boards and have framed rules as envisaged under Section 14 of the Act. The result is that in many states, no welfare schemes are being administered and even where the schemes are in place, there is no effective monitoring. Similarly, all the states have not yet established the Building and other Construction Workers Welfare Boards as mandated under the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act,1996 and consequently, no security schemes have been floated for these workers.
 - c) Although cess is being collected by many states under Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Cess Act 1996, utilisation of cess amount for the benefit of the workers is abysmally low. This may be due to very low registration of workers and / or non extension of benefits even to the registered workers.
 - d) The schemes and the benefits available thereunder are not being sufficiently publicised. Workers in the unorganized sector being generally uneducated and not unionised are mostly unaware of the schemes.
 - e) Workers Facilitation Centres as envisaged under section 19 of the Social Security Act 2008 have not been set up by any State.
 - f) There is no responsibility of the employer /contractor to get their workers registered under any of the schemes. It is for the workers to apply for the same and they are unable to do so due to lack of awareness and complexity of the procedure.

- g) Separate registration is required for each scheme which makes it difficult for workers to avail benefits under all the schemes available to them in case of need.
- h) The registration under the scheme is generally non-portable and therefore, workers in most of the categories being migrant workers are unable to avail the benefits and are therefore reluctant to register themselves under the scheme.

2.2 The Legal Services Institutions can play an important role in bridging the gap between the implementing authorities and target beneficiaries. With this object in view, the National Legal Services Authority had adopted the Scheme i.e. National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services to the Workers in the Unorganised Sector) Scheme, 2010 in the meeting of the Central Authority of NALSA held on 08.12.2010.

2.3 However, the magnitude of the problem and the fact that the benefits of the legislations are still elusive to the needy workers even after several years of their enactment has given rise to the need for more focused attention to this sector. The present revised scheme is meant to achieve this purpose.

The terms PLVs, Legal Services Clinics, Front Office , Panel Lawyers and Retainer Lawyers will mean the same as defined under the National Legal Services Authority (Free and Competent Legal Services) Regulations, 2010 and National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services Clinics) Regulations, 2011 and the NALSA Scheme for Para Legal Volunteers (Revised) and Module for the Orientation – Induction – Refresher Courses for PLV Training.

3. Name of the Scheme

The Scheme shall be called "NALSA (Legal Services to the Workers in the Unorganized Sector) Scheme, 2015".

4. Objectives

1. To institutionalize essential legal services to all unorganized workers.
2. To get the gaps in legislation/implementation plugged through coordination with government authorities and by initiating public interest litigation.
3. To mobilize the machinery of the State Government and the District Administration to identify and register all unorganized workers in all categories and to extend the benefits of all government schemes, as applicable to them.
4. To spread awareness among the employers regarding the statutory provisions and the need for providing decent working conditions, living wages and social security to the workers.
5. To disseminate information among the workers regarding their entitlements under the existing legislations and schemes.
6. To provide counselling and assistance to all categories of unorganized workers for their registration with the concerned authorities under the schemes available for their category.
7. To assist the workers in availing the benefits of the scheme for which they are registered as per their need/entitlements.

5. Guiding Principles

The following principles shall be borne in mind by all Legal Service Institutions while implementing the scheme for the unorganized workers:-

- 5.1 The Preamble of the Constitution of India assures equality of status and opportunity to all citizens and to promote among them fraternity, assuring the dignity of the individual. Article 42, mandates that the State shall make provision for securing just and humane conditions of work and for maternity relief. By virtue of Article 43, the State is obliged to secure to all workers, work, a living wage, condition of work ensuring a decent standard of life and full enjoyment of leisure, social and cultural opportunities.

- 5.2 The Preambular promise of upholding the dignity of the individual cannot be fulfilled unless the dignity of labour is ensured.
- 5.3 The unorganized sector is one of the marginalized sections of the society and they, as citizen of the country, are equally entitled to the right to work, just and humane conditions of work, living wages, maternity relief and a decent standard of life. It is the statutory mandate of the Legal Services Authorities to facilitate realization of this Constitutional assurance. The Legal Services Authorities have to act as watchdogs against administrative inaction.
- 5.4 The welfare measures initiated by the Government in the form of legislations or schemes etc. require the intended beneficiaries or the victims to mobilize the system for realization of their rights/entitlements. The workers in the unorganized sector belonging as they do, to the deprived and vulnerable sections of the society do not possess the capacity to mobilize the system. It is the job of the Legal Services Authorities to provide them support in getting justice to their doorsteps.
- 5.5 The large number of categories of the unorganized workers,, large population in each category and their vast geographical spread necessitates a project-approach to the issue of providing legal services to them. An institutionalized setup, committed work force and sustained efforts for a considerable period of time are required to be able to make them capable of realizing their constitutional rights.

Plan of Action

6. Setting up of Special Cells

- 6.1 In order to provide effective legal services to the workers in this sector, each State Legal Services Authorities (SLSAs) shall constitute a special cell focusing exclusively on these services. The cell shall be manned by one panel lawyer specialising in Labour Laws, one counsellor/consultant having requisite qualification/experience in relevant field, wherever feasible, representative of an NGO doing demonstrably good work in the area and such number of Para Legal Volunteers, as the SLSA may prescribe .

6.2 The functions of the special cell shall be:

- i) to organize and conduct Legal Awareness/Literacy programmes, training programmes and seminars for unorganized workers;
- ii) to co-ordinate with government authorities in relation with registration and extension of the benefits of the schemes to the unorganized workers;
- iii) to facilitate and provide assistance in filing , processing and furnishing application form for registration and in availing benefits of the schemes to the unorganized workers;
- iv) to provide legal assistance and legal aid to the unorganized workers in respect of any claim or defence before any court or other authority;
- v) any other function that the State Authority may prescribe for them.

6.3 The special cell shall work under the guidance of the Member Secretary or any other officer of the Authority, as nominated by the State Authority, and shall file periodic reports of the progress of its assigned duties with him.

- 6.4 The members of the cell shall be paid honorarium for each of the duties at such rates, as may be fixed by the State Authority.

7 Identification of Unorganized Workers

- 7.1 The first job for the Legal Services Institutions is to identify the categories and population of unorganised workers operating in their respective areas, by seeking the data available with the Labour Department/Social Welfare Department of the State and if necessary, conducting surveys either themselves or in collaboration with law students and NGOs operating in the area.
- 7.2 In the process of identification, special efforts should also be made to identify any child labour or bonded labour and in case any workers in the said prohibited categories are found, the Legal Services Authorities shall inform the concerned authorities and facilitate their rescue, release and rehabilitation, as provided under the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act 1976, The Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act 1986 and Juvenile Justice Act 2000.
- 7.3 The State Authority may fix timelines for identification of all categories depending upon the area, population and other relevant factors in each state.

8 Conditions of work and minimum wages

The State and District Legal Service Authorities shall, in collaboration with the State and District Administration and local NGOs, assess the need of statutory regulation of conditions of work and minimum wages etc., for the categories of Unorganized Workers particularly, of Domestic Workers and if found necessary, the State Legal Services Authority shall take the requisite steps to get the same notified.

9 Setting up of State Social Security Board and Building & Other Construction Workers Welfare Boards

Wherever the Social Security Board and Building & Other Construction Workers Welfare Boards have yet not been set up, the State Legal Services Authorities shall coordinate with the State Government and, if necessary, institute, with the approval of the Hon'ble Executive Chairman, SLSA, Public Interest Litigation in the respective High Courts for getting these boards set up, as soon as possible.

10 Utilisation of Cess

State Legal Services Authorities shall coordinate with the Building and Construction Workers Welfare Boards to ensure that the cess collected by them does not keep lying in fixed deposits and is actually utilised for the benefit of the needy workers as per the schemes available. The State Authorities shall seek relevant information from the boards, encourage the workers to apply for the benefits and then, coordinate with the boards to provide the said benefits.

In case of denial of due benefits to any worker, legal remedies can be prosecuted on his behalf by the State Legal Services Authority through the Special Cell for Unorganized Workers.

11 Government Schemes under the statutes

Legal Services Authorities shall move the State Governments to notify the schemes relevant to the category of unorganised sector operating in the States. This also, if necessary, can be achieved through institution of Public Interest Cases, with the approval of the Hon'ble Executive Chairman.

12 Legal Awareness

- 12.1 After identification of the unorganised workers in each category, legal awareness programmes may be organised about the different schemes and social security measures available for such categories. The special cells for unorganized workers shall organize legal literacy camps for this purpose preferably, at their place of work itself or at community centres etc.

- 12.2 All State Legal Services Authorities shall publish booklets/pamphlets containing the details of the available schemes, their eligibility criteria and procedure for registration for obtaining the benefits as per the requirements of the workers. Copies of the booklets/pamphlets shall be kept available in all Front Offices, Legal Services Clinics and the place of sitting of the Special Cell and shall be distributed in the legal awareness/literacy programmes.
- 12.3 Information regarding the abovesaid details should also be disseminated through Doordarshan, All India Radio and Community Radio.
- 12.4 The Labour and Social Welfare Departments of the State should be requested to display the telephone numbers and helpline numbers of the Legal Services Institutions and the members of the Special Cell.

13 Specialised Training for PLVs

State Legal Services Authorities shall conduct specialized training programs for the paralegal volunteers focusing on the needs of the particular categories of Unorganised Workers as are operating in that area and the benefits which they can avail from the government schemes. PLVs should be trained inter-alia to educate the workers, help them identify the benefits they should seek and to liaise with the authorities for making the said benefits available to the needy workers.

14 Workers Facilitation Centres

State Legal Services Authorities shall coordinate with the Labour Departments of the State for setting up of worker's facilitation centres as envisaged under Section 9 of the 2008 Act. They may also set up legal services clinics manned by specially trained PLVs/NGOs, to be attached to such centres.

15 Decent Working Conditions

Some of the Statutes like the Building and Other Construction Workers (Conditions of Service) Act and Beedi and Cigar Workers Conditions of Employment Act have provisions to regulate the minimum working conditions for all workers employed in the said sectors. Even in other sectors where the statutory provisions are not available, the requirement of having proper wages and humane work conditions cannot be over emphasized.

State Legal Services Authorities may launch campaigns, in collaboration with law students and suitable NGOs to ensure that the employers provide decent conditions of work to the unorganised sector workers, abiding by all the statutory provisions laid down for this purpose.

16 Seminars for Employers

State Legal Service Authority and the Special Cell for unorganized sector shall organize seminars/colloquia for making employers aware of their statutory duties and the need to fulfill the genuine requirements of the workers.

17 Rehabilitation Schemes

Certain statutes provide for rehabilitation of workers like in Section 13 of the Prohibition of Employment as Manual Scavengers and their Rehabilitation Act, 2013. State Legal Services Authorities shall coordinate with the concerned State authorities either themselves or through coordinating with NGOs to frame rehabilitation schemes for the erstwhile manual scavengers as per the provisions of the said Acts.

18 Legal Assistance and Legal Representation

The special cell for Unorganized Workers shall provide counselling, legal assistance and legal aid by way of legal representation before any court or other authority, as required, to all Unorganized Workers.

NALSA (Child Friendly Legal Services to Children and their Protection) Scheme, 2015

NALSA (Child Friendly Legal Services to Children and their Protection) Scheme, 2015

1. Introduction and Background

"It cannot be questioned that children are amongst the most vulnerable sections in any society. They represent almost one-third of the world's population, and unless they are provided with proper opportunities, the opportunity of making them grow into responsible citizens of tomorrow will slip out of the hands of the present generation....." The said observation made in Salil Bali Vs.: Union of India (UOI) and Anr, 2013VII AD (S.C.) by Supreme Court goes on to show that it is our obligation to the young generation to open up all opportunities including the legal services for every child to unfold its personality and rise to its full stature, physical, mental, moral and spiritual.

2. International Commitments

- 2.1 While adopting the declaration of the Rights of the Child on 20th November, 1959, the General assembly of the United Nations laid down ten principles designed to enable children, irrespective of race, colour, sex, language, religion or origin, to develop physically, mentally, morally, spiritually and socially in a healthy and normal manner and in conditions of freedom and dignity.
- 2.2 The United Nations standard minimum rules for the administration of Juvenile Justice(" The Beijing Rules," 1985) call on States to ensure that throughout the proceedings the Juvenile shall have the right to be represented by a Legal Advisor or to apply for free legal aid where there is provision for such aid in the country.

political, social, economic and cultural rights of every child which are as follows:-

8. Objective

8.1 In Delhi, 16-year-old 'X' is accused of stealing a cell phone. In Mumbai, 12-year-old 'Y' is the victim of sexual abuse. In Calcutta, 10-year-old 'Z's parents are fighting over his custody. In Chennai, 13-year old 'S' was rescued from a factory who found to be trafficked. Everyday children such as these come in contact with the justice system, where formal and informal justice providers make decisions that have the potential to influence the future course of their lives. What rights do these children have when they come in contact with the law? Are they entitled to any type of legal assistance? If so, how might those services best be made available and actually reach children in crisis or in need? How can legal services be made "child-friendly" given logistical and financial limitations? And how does the concept of child-friendly justice play out in informal justice systems? The purpose of this Scheme is to suggest a conceptual and practical framework for addressing these questions, with the ultimate goal to provide children with meaningful, effective, affordable, and age-appropriate legal assistance "on the ground."

8.2 The main objectives of the Scheme are:-

- i) To outline the basic rights and benefits that should be afforded to children.

- vi) To ensure that mandatory authorities and institutions, like JJBs, CWCs, other welfare committees, observation and shelter homes, psychiatric hospital or psychiatric nursing home, commissions, boards, office of probation officers etc. under various child friendly legislations have been set up;
- vii) To have database of all the existing central or state schemes, policies, regulations, SOPs, police directives, conventions, rules, declarations, comments, and reports etc. available for child welfare and protection;
- viii) To organise awareness programmes to educate public at large including all stakeholders i.e. PLVs, Panel Lawyers, member of JJBs and CWCs, welfare officers, counsellors, probation officers, police , public prosecutor, judicial officers, care takers of various homes, educational and medical institutions etc., on child rights and their protection on available child protection services, schemes and structures at all levels;
- ix) To undertake and organise training, orientation and sensitization programs, for senior police officers, SJPU, JWOs, panel lawyers, PLVs, member of JJBs and CWCs, welfare officers, counsellors, probation officers, public prosecutor, judicial officers, care takers of various homes for their skill enhancement and for creating a sense of responsibility amongst them;

- xi) To develop effective coordination and interface with all Govt. Bodies or functionaries, Institutions, Authorities, NGOs and other Organisations concerning or entrusted with the responsibilities relating to child rights;
- xii) To Undertake research and documentation to study the various schemes, laws etc. to find out the gaps and then to make suggestions to the appropriate authorities;

NALSA (Legal Services to the Mentally Ill and Mentally Disabled Persons) Scheme, 2015

NALSA (Legal Services to the Mentally Ill and Mentally Disabled Persons) Scheme, 2015

BACKGROUND

Persons with disabilities, especially those suffering from mental illness and other barriers like mental retardation are usually not those who catch the attention of the authorities that be. They are sidelined and are viewed only from the prism of the paternalistic “social welfare” which looks upon them merely as persons who are in need of special protection by the State and the society. India is a signatory to the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD) 2008 and since our country has ratified the Convention, it is obligatory for our legal system to ensure that human rights and fundamental freedoms of persons with disability (including mentally ill persons and persons with mental disabilities) are enjoyed on equal basis with others and to ensure that they get equal recognition before the law and equal protection of the law. The Convention further requires us to ensure effective access to justice for persons with disabilities on an equal basis with others.

Under Section 12 of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, persons who are disabled as defined in clause (i) of Section 2 of the Persons With Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 and those in a psychiatric hospital or in a psychiatric nursing home within the meaning of clause (q) of Section 2 of the Mental Health Act, 1987 are entitled to legal services. Hence NALSA had drawn up a scheme to provide effective legal services to the mentally ill and mentally disabled, in 2010, in terms of its mandate under S.4 (b) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987.

Though the Scheme was first launched in 2010, from the reports received from all the States on its implementation, it appears that there is a need to review the scheme to strengthen the services rendered by the State Legal Services Authorities/Legal Services Institutions to these marginalised people to enable them to access justice. There is imperative need for a proactive outreach to these people. So far, the SLSAs/DLSAs seem to be concerned only with matters reaching them. Even then, there remains much to be done in court related activities.

It is in this background, that this new Scheme for Legal Services to the Mentally Ill and Mentally Disabled persons has been drawn up as “NALSA (Legal Services to the Mentally Ill and Mentally Disabled Persons) Scheme, 2015”.

OBJECTIVES

This Scheme includes fresh guidelines to the Legal Services Institutions (State Legal Services Authorities, District Legal Services Authorities, Taluk Legal Services Committees, High Court Legal Services Committees, Supreme Court Legal Services Committee) to be followed while they render legal services to the mentally ill and persons with mental disabilities. The objective is to ensure that the mentally ill or mentally disabled are not stigmatized and they are dealt with as individuals who are to be helped to enforce all rights they are entitled to and as assured to them by law.

The terms PLVs, Legal Services Clinics, Front Office , Panel Lawyers and Retainer Lawyers will mean the same as defined under the National Legal Services Authority (Free and Competent Legal Services) Regulations, 2010 and National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services Clinics) Regulations, 2011 and the NALSA Scheme for Para Legal Volunteers (Revised) and Module for the Orientation – Induction – Refresher Courses for PLV Training.

PART- I:

PRINCIPLES

While dealing with Mentally Ill or Mentally Disabled Persons, the Legal Services Institutions must keep in mind the following factors:-

- (1) Mental illness is curable – The Legal Services Institutions shall keep in mind the fact that mental illness is curable on proper medication and care.

- (2) Mentally disabled persons are not mentally ill persons –Mentally disabled persons are suffering from mental disabilities due to developmental disorders. Mental Retardation (MR) is of permanent nature and is not curable. So also Autism and Cerebral Palsy. They are, therefore, treated as persons with disabilities under Section 2 of the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 (PWD Act). The statutory provisions for the welfare of mentally disabled persons are (i) PWD Act, 1995 and; (ii) National Trust for the Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999 .
- (3) Mentally ill and Mentally disabled persons are entitled to all human rights and fundamental freedoms – While dealing with mentally ill and mentally disabled persons for rendering legal services it shall be the prime concern of the legal services institutions to promote, protect and ensure the full and equal enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms of these persons.
- (4) Respect for the inherent dignity of mentally ill & mentally disabled persons - The legal services institutions shall promote respect for the inherent dignity, individual autonomy including independence of mentally ill & mentally disabled persons.
- (5) Non-discrimination – The legal services institutions shall not discriminate mentally ill & mentally disabled persons merely because of his/her state of mental health. Rather, they are to be dealt with greater sensitivity and care.
- (6) Reasonable Accommodation – The legal services institutions shall make provisions including reasonable accommodation to ensure that persons with mental illness or mental disabilities have equal access to any scheme, programme, facility or service offered.

- (7) The right of mentally ill persons to get treatment – Right to treatment and to get proper health care, emanating from Article 21 of the Constitution of India is equally applicable to all mentally ill persons. Mentally ill persons are deprived of treatment either due to lack of information or due to illegal confinement because of superstition or lack of means or stigma. Therefore the legal services institutions shall ensure that such persons are able to access treatment facilities available in the psychiatric hospitals or psychiatric nursing homes by invoking the provisions in chapter IV of the Mental Health Act, 1987.
- (8) Informed consent for treatment –Legal services institutions shall ensure that when a person is subjected to treatment for mental illness, his / her informed consent is obtained. If any person is incapable of giving such consent, the informed consent of his / her relatives or friend and in their absence, the satisfaction of the court under Part II Chapter V of Mental Health Act, 1987 shall be ensured.
- (9) Prevention of exploitation and abuse of mentally disabled persons– Mentally disabled persons, particularly female mentally disabled, are one of the vulnerable groups most likely to be exploited. Therefore, the legal services institutions shall come to the assistance of mentally disabled persons in preventing their exploitation including sexual abuse and also for taking legal action against the abusers and exploiters.
- (10) Mentally disabled persons and, by and large, mentally ill persons, cannot fruitfully utilize information, because of their mentally challenged situation. Hence, they cannot be imparted with optimum legal literacy to empower them to access justice. Therefore, legal service institutions should assess and audit their eligibilities and needs, in terms of the laws, on collective as well as individual basis, and such requirements shall be addressed by extending legal services.

PART-II

LEGAL SERVICES TO THE MENTALLY ILL AND MENTALLY DISABLED PERSONS IN PSYCHIATRIC HOMES, HOSPITALS AND OTHER SIMILAR FACILITIES AND IN JAILS

The Mentally Ill and Mentally disabled persons used to be kept in jails under the head of "non-criminal lunatics". Through directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Sheela Barse Vs. Union of India and others (Criminal Petition No.237/1989) the Supreme Court deprecated this practice and declared that the admission of the non-criminal mentally ill persons in the jails was illegal and unconstitutional. The Supreme Court further directed that henceforth only Judicial Magistrates and no Executive Magistrate shall send a person who is mentally ill to places of safe custody for treatment. The Judicial Magistrates are also obligated to first seek the advice of a professional or psychiatrist before doing so. The Judicial Magistrates are also required to, as per the directions of the Supreme Court of India to send quarterly reports to the High Court setting out the number of cases sought to be screened and sent to places of safe custody and the action taken by the Judicial Magistrates thereon.

The Supreme Court of India transferred the records of the case to each High Court requesting the High Courts to register the records so received as a Public Interest Litigation treating the High Court Legal Services Committee as the Petitioner, to assist the High Court in the matter of monitoring compliance of the orders and directions of the Supreme Court of India and the orders of the High Court which may be passed from time to time.

In order to comply with the directions of the Supreme Court of India, the following actions need to be taken:

At Jails:

- The SLSAs will have to first ensure that the Public Interest Litigation is registered in the High Court and an Hon'ble Judge is designated to deal with the matter, as directed by the Supreme Court of India.

- The SLSAs will carry out inspection of all jails with the assistance of the State Mental Health Authority (SMHA) or any other team constituted by the High Court or under the directions of the High Court to ascertain whether there are any mentally ill and mentally disabled persons in the jails and if there are, to immediately seek appropriate directions from the High Court with regard to their shifting out and their treatment.
- The SLSAs will in coordination with the SMHA constitute a team of psychiatrists/psychologists /counsellors to visit the jails and assess the state of mental health of the inmates in jail. Depending on the need assessment by the team, SLSAs will initiate corrective measures necessary to facilitate the treatment of the jail inmate by psychologists or psychiatrists.
- In compliance of the orders of the Supreme Court of India, the Judicial Magistrates should also send quarterly reports to the High Court setting out the number of cases screened and sent to places of safe custody and the action taken by the Judicial Magistrates thereon. Intimation regarding every such reporting shall be given by the Judicial Magistrate to the SLSA, which, in turn, shall ensure that the said quarterly report gains prompt attention of the designate Hon'ble Judge and shall seek such directions and orders as may be found necessary; either general in nature, or as regards any particular individual or issue. SLSA shall, in the event of any such direction or order being issued, notify the DLSA/TLSC concerned to aid and monitor its compliance, and shall also bring to the notice of the designate Hon'ble Judge any non-compliance or deficiency in compliance of any such direction or order.

At psychiatric hospitals, homes and facilities:

- The SLSAs should request the High Court for the constitution under Section 37 of the Act a Board of Visitors for all psychiatric hospitals, homes and similar facilities, whether government run or privately run in the State, in which the Member Secretary/Full Time

Secretary, SLSAs/DLSAs should also be a Member. The Board of Visitors should regularly visit these to assess the living conditions of the inmates in these facilities, homes or hospitals.

- The SLSAs/ Board of Visitors should review the persons in these hospitals, homes and facilities to ascertain whether there are any cured persons staying there whose families appear reluctant to take them back or are themselves not able to contact their families. Whenever the SLSAs/DLSAs or Board of Visitors find such inmates the SLSAs/DLSAs must take all steps to facilitate restoration, including providing legal representation in court to seek orders for restoration of the cured person with the family.
- Legal services institutions shall during their visits to the psychiatric hospitals or homes or facilities ascertain through interaction with inmates , doctors and staff as to whether any of the persons admitted there are victims of forced admission or not. In such cases, legal services shall be given to such persons for their release from the psychiatric hospitals or homes or facilities.
- SLSAs/DLSAs should setup Legal Services Clinics at the psychiatric hospitals, homes and facilities in order to provide legal assistance wherever required to the Mentally Ill/ mentally disabled persons and their families to address legal issues concerning the mentally ill and mentally disabled persons.
- Such a legal clinic should be manned by Para Legal Volunteers and Panel Lawyers who are sensitive to such issues and persons.
- It would be quite appropriate to train the doctors, nurses and other para medical staff/administrative staff at the mental health facilities as Para Legal Volunteers so that the best legal services can be provided keeping in mind the welfare of the mentally ill / mentally disabled persons.
- The Clinic should also help in ensuring that the homes meant for the mentally ill and mentally disabled persons have all facilities, including for learning appropriate skills for independent and/or assisted living and earning. The legal services institutions may approach the Government, and if necessary the High Court for appropriate directions, to ensure the availability of such facilities.

- The Legal Services Institutions should also connect the mentally disabled persons with the National Trust for Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities so that benefits provided under the “National Trust For Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999” are assured to these persons and their families.
- Legal Services Institutions should involve through the PLVs the para medical staff/administrative staff and doctors at the mental health facilities to identify the relatives and homes of those patients in relation to whom such facts are not available on record and take appropriate steps through the different legal services institutions to reach to the relatives of the patients to facilitate re-union of the patients with the near and dear ones.
- Patients, who are housed in mental health centres, homes and facilities, away from their domicile and home, must be considered for providing legal assistance to ensure their transit to mental health centres, homes and facilities nearer to their native place. This can be done with the involvement of SLSAs and DLSAs.

LEGAL SERVICES TO THE MENTALLY ILL AND MENTALLY DISABLED PERSONS WHO ARE WANDERING, HOMELESS AND DESTITUTES

Under the Mental Health Act, 1987, Section 23, the officer in charge of a police station can take or cause to be taken into protection a wandering mentally ill person or a dangerous mentally ill person within the limits of his station and produce such person before the Magistrate under Section 24 for passing reception orders authorizing the detention of the said person as an inpatient in a psychiatric hospital or psychiatric nursing home for purposes of treatment.

Similarly, under Section 25 , a police officer or a private person who has reason to believe that a mentally ill person within the limits of his station is not under proper care and control or is ill-treated or neglected by relatives or other the persons having charge of such mentally ill person, can report the matter before the Magistrate . The Magistrate can pass an order of reception or even fine the person who is responsible for neglecting the mentally ill.

In the case of the homeless or destitute mentally disabled person, ordinarily the matter must be reported to the Local Level Committee through a registered organization as prescribed under the National Trust For the Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999 and Rules and Regulations thereunder. It is the Local Level Committee which would pass appropriate directions for the care of the neglected or destitute mentally disabled person.

Action to be taken by legal services institutions

- The legal services institutions must draw up a panel of sensitive and sensitized legal services lawyers to represent the best interests of the mentally ill person at the time of the production of the person under Section 24 or Section 25 of the Mental Health Act, 1987 and assist the Magistrate while passing an order that would be in the welfare of the mentally ill person.
- The legal services institutions must assist the police through its PLVs assigned to the police stations to refer the mentally disabled persons, who are neglected, homeless or destitute to the Local Level Committee set up under Section 13 of the National Trust for the Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999 so that orders such as the appointment of guardian, whether individual or institutional, for the care and rehabilitation of the mentally disabled person is ensured.

- Legal services institutions must devise sensitization programmes with the junction of mental health officials including doctors, police officials and judicial magistrates dealing with inquisition proceedings to evolve locally conducive mode to ensure that wandering mentally ill persons are identified and dealt with securing their human rights by obtaining appropriate judicial orders as may be found necessary in each case.

LEGAL SERVICES TO MENTALLY ILL AND MENTALLY DISABLED PERSONS DURING COURT PROCEEDINGS

The two statutes governing the rights of the mentally ill persons and the mentally disabled persons are The Mental Health Act 1987 and the National Trust for the Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999. Both entail a hearing before the passing of appropriate orders by the Magistrate or the Local Level Committee as the case may be. It is important that the legal services institutions participate in them through the PLVs or the Panel lawyers.

- It shall be the duty of the legal services institutions to depute its retainer/panel lawyer to the court where an application for reception orders has been moved or is under consideration under Section 19, 20, 22, 24, 25, 26, 27 or 28 of the Mental Health Act, 1987.
- The legal services institutions may request the Magistrates who deal with such applications to give notice to the legal services institutions in all cases, for protecting the interest of the mentally ill persons in relation to whom the application for reception or discharge order is being made.
- The retainer/panel lawyer shall gather the details of the circumstances and shall liaise with the relatives of the alleged mentally ill persons, doctors in the psychiatric hospitals or psychiatric nursing homes or any other competent person to ensure that the condition of the person against whom the application for reception/discharge order has been made warrants such an order from the court.

- The legal services institutions having local jurisdiction shall keep a list of the mentally ill persons against whom reception orders have been passed by the courts and shall monitor the progress of treatment of the mentally ill persons in the psychiatric hospitals or psychiatric nursing homes where the mentally ill persons is detained as per the reception order.
- The legal services institutions shall bring to the notice of the Magistrate concerned about any cured mentally person remaining in the psychiatric hospitals or psychiatric nursing homes where such mentally ill person has been sent as per the reception order.
- The legal services institutions should through the PLVs/panel/retainer lawyers help the cured voluntary patients for moving requests for discharge under Section 18 or by an involuntary patient under Section 19.
- The legal services institutions should through the clinics or as part of the Board of Visitors always keep track of admissions under Section 19 (1) of the Act so that detention beyond the period of the first ninety days is only on the orders of the court.
- The legal services institutions shall also keep track of cases under Section 20 of the Act, so that no cured patient is allowed to remain in the psychiatric hospital, home or facility by default. They must move applications for discharge as soon as the patient is cured.
- The legal services institutions shall also keep track of cases under Section 23 read with Section 25 of the Act, in relation to wandering or destitute mentally ill persons, so that the requirements under Section 28 of the Act, of a ten day review by the Magistrate of the need to keep a person under observation is strictly complied with and no person is detained longer than needed for the issuance of the certificate of mental illness under Section 24 (2) (a) of the Act.

- The legal services institutions through their legal services clinics and PLVs and panel/retainer lawyers should keep track of discharge of patients and wherever necessary should aid and assist the patient to move the application for discharge to the medical officer in charge or to the court which had passed the reception orders.
- The legal services clinics and PLVs and panel/retainer lawyers should also render assistance to inpatients to obtain leave of absence as provided under Section 45 and Section 46 of the Act. They should also assist the filing of appeals as provided for under Section 49 of the Act.
- The legal services institutions shall also participate in inquisition proceedings under Section 50 of the Act to protect the interests of the mentally ill person. A request must be made to the District Judge to issue notice to the legal services institution whenever an application under Section 50 comes before it.
- Where an alleged mentally ill person is possessed of property and if no persons mentioned in Clauses (a) to (d) of Sub-section (1) of Section 50 of Mental Health Act is coming forward with an application for holding judicial inquisition under Chapter VI of the Mental Health Act, the legal services institutions shall take appropriate steps for initiating judicial inquisition regarding the mental condition of the alleged mentally ill persons, custody of his/her person and management of his/her property. For this purpose the Legal Services Institutions may contact any of the aforesaid persons referred to in Clauses (a) to (d) of Sub-section (1) of Section 50 of Mental Health Act, 1987 in writing and may also take up the matter with the Advocate General of the State or with the Collector of the appropriate District in terms of Clause (d) of Sub-section (1) of section 50 of that Act. Legal Services institutions must extend legal aid to the mentally ill persons involved in such matters by providing effective assistance as may be appropriate and requested for by the Collector concerned to aid and assist in preparing and processing such proceedings.

- The legal services institutions should follow up every case where a guardian of the person is appointed under Section 53 and /or the manager of the property has been appointed under Section 54 or an order of maintenance has been passed under Section 71 and Section 79 of the Act and take every step to protect the interests of the mentally ill person.
- The legal services institutions should render all help to pursue appeals as provided under Section 76 of the Act.
- The legal services institutions should through the legal services clinics and PLVs and through visits including as Member of the Board of Visitors that there are no transgression of the human rights of the inmates and whenever such transgressions are noticed, shall bring it to the notice of the High Court.
- As the National Trust for the Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act 1999, is a comprehensive Act to provide for the care of the mentally disabled, including assistance in care to parents of the mentally disabled and also for arranging the care and finances of the mentally disabled after the death of the parents through appointment of guardians, it is important that legal services institutions inform the public of the Act and further help them to benefit from it. The PLVs and the legal services clinics should come to the assistance of the mentally disabled and their families in the matter of appointment of guardians.
- Legal services institutions shall come to the help of mentally ill and the mentally disabled in protecting their rights of inheritance, owning properties and enjoying financial rights. The persons with mental illness or mental disability have rights with others to inherit property, both movable as well as immovable, and also have a right to control their financial affairs and have access to bank loans, mortgages and other forms of financial credit, which can be accessed by them personally or through a support person who has no interest in conflict to the person with mental illness or mental disability. Legal services institutions should render all legal help in realizing this.

- Legal services institutions shall assist the mentally disabled for obtaining all benefits under The Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995.
- The legal services institutions shall find out the different beneficial schemes for the mentally disabled and their families. The legal services institutions shall assist the mentally disabled and their families to avail the benefits under such schemes.

- The legal services institutions shall organize awareness programmes especially in rural areas, to educate people that mental illness is curable and there is no stigma attached to mental illness or mental disabilities.

- The legal services lawyer in such camps may educate the public and families on the property and other legal rights and the other provisions of law relating to the mentally ill and mentally disabled persons.
- The State Legal Services Authority / District Legal Services Authority may organize training programmes in association with the Judicial Academy to sensitize the judicial officers about the socio-legal problems faced by the mentally ill and mentally disabled persons, their parents, relatives and family members.

- Similar programmes may be organized with the help of the bar associations to sensitize the panel lawyers and the other members of the legal profession.

The legal services institutions shall co-ordinate with NGOs and other volunteer social organizations for dealing with the issues relating to mentally ill and mentally disabled persons.

NALSA (Effective Implementation of Poverty Alleviation Schemes) Scheme, 2015

NALSA (Effective Implementation of Poverty Alleviation Schemes) Scheme, 2015

1) Background

Under Section 4 (l) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, the National Legal Services Authority envisaged as the Central Authority under the Act, is obligated to “take appropriate measures for spreading legal literacy and legal awareness amongst the people and, in particular, to educate weaker sections of the society about the rights, benefits and privileges guaranteed by social welfare legislations and other enactments as well as administrative programmes and measures”. The Preamble of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, underscores that the legal services authorities are concerned with the weaker sections of the society and imposes a duty on them to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities.

Very often intended beneficiaries of poverty alleviation and social security measures are unable to access the benefits due to severe lack of capabilities, social structures, economic marginalisation and exploitation, social values, cultural norms, discrimination etc. In this context, the role of legal services authorities must be a proactive one where measures designed to alleviate poverty must be brought to the attention of the intended beneficiaries. Further, legal services authorities are very well suited to facilitating access to such poverty alleviation measures due to their last mile presence. Therefore this scheme lays down a mechanism for identification of poverty alleviation and social security measures, a framework for facilitating access to such measures by intended beneficiaries and a model for effective review of these processes. In designing this scheme, the concern that there could be local variations and requirements have been particularly considered and sufficient flexibility has been built in for local legal aid authorities to adapt this national scheme according to their needs.

This scheme is built on the foundation that poverty is a multi-dimensional experience and is not limited to issues of income. Multi-dimensional poverty include issues like health (including mental health), housing, nutrition, employment, pension, maternal care, child mortality, access to water, education, sanitation, subsidies and basic services, social exclusion, discrimination etc. Further, in identifying the specific schemes for implementation at the state and district level, legal services authorities are expected to be cognisant of the fact various vulnerable and marginalised groups experience poverty in myriad and unique ways.

NALSA (Protection and Enforcement of Tribal Rights) Scheme, 2015

BACKGROUND

Although the Census of 2011 enumerates the total population of Scheduled Tribes at 10,42,81,034 persons, constituting 8.6 per cent of the population of the country, the tribal communities in India are enormously diverse and heterogeneous. There are wide ranging diversities among them in respect of languages spoken, size of population and mode of livelihood. As per the Census of India 2011, the number of individual groups notified as Scheduled Tribes is 705.

The North Eastern States are not a homogeneous block, because of the diversities amongst themselves. There are about 220 ethnic groups with equal number of language and dialects. These groups can be broadly categorised into three main groups of Tibeto-Burman, Mon-Khmer and Indo-European.

Certain tribes have been characterised as Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups (PVTGs) (earlier known as Primitive Tribal Groups) on the basis of their greater 'vulnerability' even among the tribal groups. PVTGs, currently include 75 tribal groups, who have been identified as such on the basis of the following criteria: 1) forest-dependent livelihoods, 2) pre-agricultural level of existence, 3) stagnant or declining population, 4) low literacy rates and 5) a subsistence-based economy. As per the 2001 census, these 75 PVTGs had a total population of 27,68,322. The majority of the PVTG population lives in the six States of Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand, Odisha, Andhra Pradesh and Tamil Nadu. The PVTGs among the tribes need special attention due to their vulnerability.

Up till independence the tribal population lived in comparative isolation from the national scene and lived almost a self-sufficient life in the remote and rugged forested tracts. The interactions of the colonial administrative machinery with the tribes in India were largely of authoritarian and exploitative nature. They were largely interested to let them remain isolated and had no intention to integrate them with mainstream of national life.

After independence, the India Constitution adopted many provisions to provide tribal people with special status and Parliament through various protective legislations made conscious efforts to safeguard their interest. Planning Commission of India through its development initiative adopted Tribal SUB Plan (TSP) approach and under Panchayati Raj Institutions the Provisions of the Panchayats (Extension to Scheduled Areas) Act 1996 (PESA) was legislated.

Despite all these efforts made to improve the socio-economic conditions of tribes it is still a fact that the life situations of Scheduled Tribes (STs) have improved only marginally. The Human Development Index (HDI) of the STs is much lower than the rest of the population. The gap in the literacy rate is high. There are more ST families below the poverty line than those from other communities. Their percentage in government jobs is not in proportion to their population despite the provision of reservation. Their condition, thus, is far worse than that of the rest of the population and they have not been able to reach the envisaged level of development, where they could benefit from the opportunities offered by a fast expanding economy.

It was in this background that the NALSA felt the need to draw up a Scheme for the Tribal People. To facilitate this, a Committee was constituted to study the issue and come up with suggestions. The Committee submitted a comprehensive report to the Hon'ble Executive Chairman, NALSA on 9.8.2015 on the occasion of World Tribal Day. The present Scheme is based on the Report of the Committee.

The Scheme may be called "NALSA (Protection and Enforcement of Tribal Rights) Scheme, 2015".

OBJECTIVES

The Scheme is aimed at ensuring access to justice to the Tribal People in India. The access to justice would be facilitated in all its connotations, i.e. access to rights, benefits, legal aid, other legal services, etc., so that the assurance of the Constitution of justice social, economic and political, is meaningfully experienced by the tribal population in the country.

Several legal rights are guaranteed to the tribal people under:

- The Scheduled Tribes and other Traditional Forest Dwellers (Recognition of Forest Rights) Act, 2006 – (FRA)
- The Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989,
- The Right of children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009,
- The Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013,
- Panchayats (Extension to Scheduled Areas) Act 1996 – (PESA) and
- Fifth and Sixth Schedule of the Constitution of India.

These provisions are not implemented stringently, leading to violation of their legal rights. Such violations are one of the prime reasons for the marginalization of the tribal people.

This scheme is intended that these legal rights are not violated.

The terms PLVs, Legal Services Clinics, Front Office , Panel Lawyers and Retainer Lawyers will mean the same as defined under the National Legal Services Authority (Free and Competent Legal Services) Regulations, 2010 and National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services Clinics) Regulations, 2011 and the NALSA Scheme for Para Legal Volunteers (Revised) and Module for the Orientation – Induction – Refresher Courses for PLV Training.

Part I : An overview of the issues of Tribal people

A. Vulnerability Issues

1. The lack of literacy amongst the tribal people is a crucial issue. As a consequence, the tribes remain unaware of their fundamental, legal and statutory rights. They also lack knowledge about the welfare schemes run by the government for their well-being, thereby resulting in lack of participation from their side.
2. Non implementation of the schemes introduced by the government to resolve the problems is another major concern. However, non-implementation of programmes for tribal welfare is also due to lack of skilled work force in the tribal areas.
3. Numerous armed conflicts affect large parts of tribal areas in contemporary India spanning the central region to the North East, leading to severe problems in accessing legal and administrative mechanisms and in the implementation of beneficial schemes.
4. In the recent years the state police and the paramilitary forces have been accused of grave human rights violations in the tribal areas including of alleged fake encounters and rape.
5. A number of tribal people are put in jails allegedly as Maoists. There have been cases of people staying in Jail for days, without their name in the charge-sheet. Bails are not granted as cases are serious such as waging war against India, sedition and so on.
6. The unfamiliar judicial processes make the tribal people dread the court, even if they are the ones who are suffering from lawlessness. They feel that the laws like Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 do not exist for the protection of tribal people.
7. Migrating tribes face difficulties in accessing the welfare schemes run by the government. Some are totally devoid of any access.

8. There are preconceived notions or assumptions regarding the 'primitivism' and 'backwardness' of the PVTGs. It is essential for government bodies to shed assumptions of tribal backwardness and savagery and devaluation of the culture and traditions of these communities.
9. Many PVTGs and Scheduled Tribes (STs) are forest dwellers and depend heavily on land and forest resources for their subsistence. Over time, their habitat has been declared as Reserved Forest, Protected Forest, leaving them vulnerable to displacement and eviction without compensation.
10. All tribes in the list of PVTGs have not been granted ST status, thereby increasing the vulnerability of these tribes, who lack the protections and rights offered by the Fifth Schedule and the Provisions of Panchayat (Extension to Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996.
11. For PVTGs, the implementation of FRA has been poorest since their habitat rights are not clearly defined or understood by the Forest Department. No disaggregated information and data at the national level on status of the implementation of the provision for rights of PVTGs particularly of habitat rights under the FRA are available.
12. The North Eastern States share a large area of international boundary with the neighbouring countries of Bhutan, China, Myanmar and Bangladesh which makes it a very fertile ground for cross border terrorism, drug smuggling, arms smuggling, infiltration, etc.
13. Another issue which is of serious concern is human trafficking. Tribal people from central India and Assam appear particularly prone to trafficking.
14. Another issue is that till recently there has been no division of executive and judiciary. The institutions set up under the Sixth

Schedule apply customary laws which have their own issues as they are not codified.

15. Due to insurgency and law & order problems in the North East, there is absence of faith in the system. There has been a tendency of the public to take law into their hands, in what amounts to "mob justice" by dismantling/destroying houses of the suspected/accused persons and ostracising the family which leads to serious social problems. Even doctors and hospitals have not been spared for their alleged negligence in treatment of patients.
16. In the remote areas and villages large numbers of tribal people still believe in "Witch hunting".
17. Tribal people are not treated with dignity and so feel alienated. For instance, the Jarawas tribes in Andaman Islands are treated like animals by the tourists. They are teased and tormented as if they are monkeys/animals and fun derived from their angry responses. Similar experiences were earlier common in Bastar where cultural mores were never understood.

B. Land Related Problems

1. Forest and hills are the main source of tribal identity. It is in this context that the devastation of lives of tribal people caused by loss of access to forest and involuntary displacement from their land has to be understood. Dispossession takes place both directly by depriving tribal communities of their land, habitat, livelihood, political system, culture, values and identity and indirectly through denials of benefits of development and of their rights.
2. Under the Resettlement and Rehabilitation (R&R) programme, land is not replaced and there is meagre reconstitution of livelihoods. Almost all the R&R colonies lack proper public health facilities, protected drinking water, marketing, schools and transportation.

3. Dependence on forests for food in the form of shifting cultivation, fruits and flowers, small game, tubers for medicines, fodder, material for house building, raw material for traditional art and crafts income by selling firewood, leaf-plates, fruits etc is substantial. This loss, due to displacement is not compensated and also affects food security.
4. A major portion of land falls under forest areas. Most of the tribal people of the interior areas are staying on forest lands without having any right, title, interest on those lands and there are no such legal provisions for those homeless tribal people for protection and enforcement of their rights under "The Scheduled Tribes and other Traditional Forest Dwellers (Recognition of Forest Rights) Act, 2006".
5. Another major problem with tribal people is a result of development projects viz. construction of dams, Forest sanctuaries, mining operations, etc. These developments lead to an influx of non-tribal people, seeking employment in these areas forcing the tribal people to migrate. Hence, the tribal people have not been able to reap the benefits of development projects.
6. Growing indebtedness contributes as one of the most important reasons for land alienation and displacement of tribal people. Tribal indebtedness (they are often tricked into accepting loans with exorbitant interests) often leads to situations of bonded labour.
7. Further, there have been violations of PESA which endow Gram Sabha "the power to prevent land alienation of land in the Scheduled Areas and to take appropriate action to restore any unlawful alienated land of a Scheduled Tribe." In case of acquisition of forest lands, it is mandatory to consult with Gram Sabha of the affected area and obtain their free consent. However, often Gram Sabhas are neither sent notices for consultation, nor are their consent signatures taken.

8. The compensation given to the tribal people under The Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 is meagre and the living conditions that are provided on resettlement are very poor.
9. Another problem with tribal people is that instead of individual rights in the land, they believe in community rights and thus written proof of ownership are mostly not available in cases of litigation relating to land. The claims of tribal people in this respect are mostly based on oral evidences with consequential difficulties in establishing individual rights.

C. Legal Issues

The legal issues faced by the tribal people are as follows:

1. The recognition of rights of tribal people before their displacement from Protected Areas (PAs) is not being completed. Tribal people are evicted before verification and settlement of claims under the FRA. This has caused a decline in the economic status, as well as erosion in their customary forest practices.
2. Incorrect assumption by the Forest departments with regard to the FRA has led to violation of their legal rights. For instance, at some of the Forest Departments, it was believed, contrary to the provisions of section 4 (2) of the FRA that rights under FRA could not be claimed in Protected Areas (PAs) and that FRA is not applicable in Tiger Reserves.
3. Some problems that arise for tribal communities in claiming habitat rights include:
 - * lack of clarity over definition and interpretation of what is entailed in habitat rights;
 - * multiple interpretations of habitat, especially if the user rights of other, non- PVTG groups sharing the same territory are involved;

- * if the traditional habitat boundaries of PVTGs overlap with wildlife habitats; and
 - * a lack of awareness among such communities about the terms in which to articulate such claims.
4. There has been little perceptible effort to create awareness among women regarding the process of claim making, verification and the rules relating to it provided under the FRA.
 5. Claims filed by tribal people under the FRA are being rejected without assigning reasons, or based on wrong interpretation of the Other Traditional Forest Dwellers (OTFD) definition and the 'dependence' clause, or simply for lack of evidence or 'absence of GPS survey' (a lacuna which only requires the claim to be referred back to the lower-level body), or because the land is wrongly considered as 'not forest land', or because only forest offence receipts are considered as adequate evidence.
 6. The rejections are not being communicated to the claimants, and their right to appeal is not being explained to them nor its exercise facilitated. There is a need for awareness amongst tribal people, so that they can protect their legal rights against such practices.
 7. Section 3 (1) (m) of the FRA, regarding the rights of persons illegally displaced or evicted by development projects without proper compensation, has not been implemented at all.
 8. Lack of effective consultations with Gram Sabha and recognition of their rights of ownership in farm produce.

D. Other legal issues

1. Criminal charges are filed, maliciously, against the tribal people, and in some cases non-tribal people, who protest against the acquisition of land and thereby against the establishment of developmental projects. It has been found that between 2005 and 2012, over 95 percent of the cases were found to be baseless and ended in acquittal.

2. Discrimination, violence and police brutality is experienced at regular intervals by the people belonging to the De-Notified Tribes because of the Habitual Offenders Act, 2000.
3. In Andaman and Nicobar, the 'Jarawa' tribe face incidents of sexual exploitation. Also, the people of the tribe were asked to give their blood samples for DNA testing without their informed consent.
4. A study for the Planning Commission revealed that 43.6 percent of the rehabilitated bonded labourers belong to Scheduled Tribes. This suggests that many tribal families are trapped in bondage. The main reason for bondage that is cited is indebtedness and food.

E. Issues related to education

The scenario of education in India regarding the tribal people has improved, but there are some problems which still persist. The issues relating to education are as follows:

1. There are a large number of schools which do not have minimum facilities.
2. Even where there is reasonable infrastructure and student enrolment, regular school attendance is a problem in the tribal areas, due to distances and poverty.
3. Teacher absenteeism is high.
4. There is poor level of student learning and high drop-out rate at class X. A possible explanation for this is the failure of tribal students to cope up.
5. There is a marked gender gap. There is a need for greater gender focus and social mobilization to encourage education of girls.
6. Once the tribal students manage to take admission, they are humiliated in various ways that they are demoralized. This leads to a high school dropout rate. Derogatory names being given to tribal students from the North East are well-known.

7. There are residential schools for tribal girls which are often in the news for corruption, bad maintenance of facilities and sexual exploitation of resident girls.
8. As nomadic tribes are always on the move, their children miss out on education provided by the government for free.
9. Most of the tribal communities in India have their own mother tongue. But in most of the States, official/regional languages are used for classroom teaching and these are not understood by the tribal children particularly at primary level of schooling.
10. There is a need of familiarity for teachers teaching tribal children with tribal culture and language so that learning is hassle-free. For instance, most of the district officials, being from outside do not understand the languages of the people like Gondi and Halbi. Even the teachers in schools do not understand these languages.
11. Tribal children are not at ease in structured class rooms due to their affinity to nature causing them to lose interest in formal education as is presently provided.
12. The main reason of illiteracy amongst tribal people is low involvement of parents and community in education of tribal children and inadequate quality schools in Tribal areas. The Tribal Community is mostly unaware about the benefits of education.

F. Health issues

The tribal population face several health issues:

1. The national health model is primarily designed for the non-tribal areas. It does not take into account the different belief system, different disease burden and healthcare needs as well as the difficulties in delivering health care in a geographically scattered, culturally different population surrounded by forests and other natural forces.

2. There is a lack of health care human resource that is willing, trained and equipped to work in tribal areas. Though buildings are built and health care institutions created in the form of health sub-centres, PHCs and CHCs, they often remain dysfunctional. This is further compounded by inadequate monitoring, poor quality of reporting, and accountability.
3. Factors such as unfriendly behaviour of the staff, language barrier, large distances, poor transport, low literacy and low health care seeking, lead to lower utilization of the existing health care institutions in tribal areas.
4. The absence of participation of ST people or their representatives in shaping policies, making plans or implementing services in the health sector often ends up targeting wrong priorities.
5. The tribal population is seriously affected by high consumption of alcohol and smoking, often resulting in addiction. Immediate and serious corrective policy measures to curb the same are necessary.
6. Child marriage among the different tribal communities is still prevalent as illiterate tribal people follow their old customs without understanding the laws of the land which results in poor health.
7. Tribal people seek treatment modes based upon their customary beliefs without resorting to any modern medicines even when they contract modern day illnesses leading to high mortality even in curable situations.
8. The Jarawas remain vulnerable to outside diseases to which they have little or no immunity. When the tourists enter their areas, they contract new diseases because of them. Their women and girls are also being sexually abused which result in many diseases for which the tribal people have no cure.

9. The immunisation programme of the governments has not reached the tribal areas.
10. Tribal populations are highly malnourished. PVTGs inhabit areas that are inaccessible by road, and therefore they cannot travel easily to Anganwadi centres, where food is prepared. Moreover, their hamlets are considered too small to open an Anganwadi centre. The result is that their children do not get the nourishment provided under the government schemes.
11. Rules have been framed to prohibit the killing of forest animals without giving an alternative to tribal people who traditionally hunt them for food, leading to loss of nutrient food to these communities.
12. The tribal areas face acute water problems including water pollution and tribal health suffers as a consequence.
13. A very pernicious effect of violence and killing, is the rise in mental disorder cases.
14. In areas of high literacy, as in the North East, lack of employment amongst skilled youth has resulted in mental depression and high suicidal tendencies.
15. Health issues arising out of drug use such as HIV AIDS and mental disorder is high in the North Eastern states located in close proximity to the "Golden Triangle". Drugs such as Ketamine, pseudoephedrine, etc. are being smuggled into these regions with catastrophic effect on the families of drug users.

H. Livelihood

1. Due to absence of modern day skills and education, tribal people mainly depend on their traditional skills for livelihood, which is not profitable.
2. Although very few are landless, the land that tribal people possess is not very productive.

3. Due to language and cultural barriers, they lack modern skills of agriculture and agriculture based activities.
4. Further as a result of their living in difficult terrain and their aloofness from others they are not able to get adequate prices of their produce and products.
5. Inadequate transportation and communication facilities in their areas compounded by their reluctance in using such means also lead to failure to obtain good prices for their produce.
6. Adherence to traditional practices such as jhum cultivation for livelihood is an important reason that they live below poverty line.
7. When land is taken away from them for development work or they alienate their land, or they are denied access to forests for collecting forest produce, tribal people are left with no means of survival and are reduced to impoverishment and starvation.

Part II : Role of Legal Services Authorities

As is evident from the issues listed above, the State Legal Service Authorities have an important role to play in assisting tribal people in access to justice. The State Legal Services Authorities (SLSAs) will have to bridge the divide between the tribal communities and the Government and Judiciary. The SLSAs will have to ensure that Rule of law prevails. Restoring faith in the legal system, efficacy of rule of law is of prime importance amongst the tribal people. The SLSAs should explore activities in these areas.

The SLSAs should take the following initiatives:

A. Litigation related

1. They should constitute an exclusive panel of lawyers drawn from the tribal communities who should be paid good fees.

2. The Tribal people should be given suitable legal aid in litigation and in appropriate cases, senior lawyers should be engaged on their behalf even if on payment of special fee, so that the rights and interests of tribal people are protected.
3. The Judiciary operates in Hindi and English, leaving poor tribal people at the mercy of lawyers and judges from outside their community. They are the ones who need access to justice and should be supported by SLSAs.
4. Panel lawyers must sincerely represent the tribal people in the courts, explaining to them the process and the law so that distrust of the system is eliminated and there would be greater understanding of the processes of the court.
5. Panel lawyers must assist the tribal people in clarifying areas of confusion or overlapping of jurisdiction of the normal courts and the traditional village authority courts at the village level and help people in the smooth functioning of the justice system.
6. Panel lawyers must visit jails and set up legal services clinics in jails to tackle long term imprisonment without bail and also follow up cases where there are no charges made out so that there is early release from prison.
7. Panel lawyers should, with the help of para legal volunteers, facilitate the tribal people for getting compensation of their acquired land and assist them for rehabilitation.
8. The issues, requirements and legal needs as well as availability of educational and medical facilities in tribal areas must be identified with the assistance of PLVs and action for judicial redressal initiated in appropriate cases.
9. The full time Secretaries/judicial officers should interact with the persons of such area in order to identify their problems and needs and in order to assure them that they will be given suitable assistance and services for their genuine legal and other requirements and rights.

10. Where any tribal person is facing prosecution in a court of law, he should be identified and given proper legal aid and assistance by legal services authority from the inception of the proceedings against him, that is from the time of his interrogation.
11. The SLSAs must open legal services clinics wherever feasible to be visited by tribal lawyers.
12. The SLSAs must make use of the Multi Utility Vehicles to reach out to sparsely populated tribal areas not only for spreading awareness but also to extend prompt legal assistance to the tribal people who may have criminal, civil , revenue or forest rights issues.
13. The SLSAs must co-ordinate with government departments such as the forest department to settle habitat claims and compensation claims through the mobile lokadalats.
14. Legal assistance must be promptly given to the tribal people to approach the High Court under its writ jurisdiction both for civil as well as criminal matters. The High Court Legal Services Committees must empanel committed lawyers who are tribal people themselves or have a good understanding of tribal issues and are able to personally communicate with tribal people.
15. Social Justice Litigation with the approval of Hon'ble Executive Chairman, SLSA may be initiated whenever required.

B. Para legal volunteers (PLVs)

1. Each District Legal Services Authority, with the help of statistical and other Government department should identify the areas of the districts where there are tribal population and reach out to them through the Para Legal Volunteers.
2. In order to gain trust of the tribal communities, to know the problems of each such community and also to communicate with them effectively during awareness programmes it is necessary that para legal volunteers must be selected from amongst such tribal people.

The SLSAs should prepare exclusive panel of para legal volunteers (PLVs) from these communities under the direct mentorship and control of the Full Time Secretary of DLSAs.

3. Such PLVs should be properly trained in respect of their roles to reach out proactively to the tribal people and to become the 'go to person' for the tribal community he/she is assigned to serve.
4. The SLSAs through the PLVs should help the illiterate tribal people requiring legal assistance in filling up forms and filing applications for getting benefits of various schemes made by Government to do so for their getting such benefits.
5. Legal Services Authority could play a vital role in providing medical help with assistance of Para Legal Volunteers from amongst the tribal community. The needy persons may be identified with the help of Para Legal Volunteers and with assistance of the local Legal Services Authority, such tribal people may be facilitated in getting suitable medical assistance and medicines as well as benefits of medical schemes.
6. The PLVs must be the voice of the tribal people to communicate to the concerned authorities when there are issues relating the schools, absence of teachers, and harassment of tribal children etc as listed in Part 1 of this scheme.
7. The PLVs may be useful in the matters of human trafficking for identifying the victims of trafficking and taking suitable action for obtaining victim compensation and accessing various rehabilitation schemes.
8. The PLVs must assist the trafficked children when they are rescued and produced before the Child Welfare Committees (CWCs). They should help the CWCs in tracking out the families of the victims.
9. The PLVs must hand hold the victims when they have to testify in the Court.

10. The PLVs must be the bridge between the tribal people and the panel lawyers and must assist both the tribal person as well as the lawyer so that the case of the tribal is effectively understood and heard by the court.
11. The PLVs must also be the connect between the government departments and the tribal people to ensure that the food and rations meant for the tribal people reach them even when they live in remote and sparsely populated areas in the State.
12. Documentary proof of land is mostly not available with tribal people. The tribal people may, in such cases, need legal assistance for getting proper compensation and rehabilitation. PLVs should help the tribal people to collect all documents and other evidence so that displaced tribal people may be rehabilitated properly.
13. The PLVs must visit jails and interact with inmates to find out about their cases and report to the Full Time Secretary of the DLSA about them so that immediate follow up can be taken for their release on bail or expeditious hearing of their cases.

C. Awareness

1. Legal Awareness in Tribal area should be different than the ordinary mode of awareness programmes. Audio Visual Mode will be more useful in this respect. Awareness may be through organising cultural programmes such as dances, dramas etc. in which the involvement of tribal people must be ensured. Folk Songs and dances of such tribal people may be utilised for effectively conveying messages to them. The awareness programme in tribal area must be carefully carried out by persons having full knowledge of their problem and solutions.
2. There is requirement for spreading legal awareness amongst tribal people about forest laws and consequences of infringing the provisions of law.

3. The SLSAs should organise intensive legal awareness programme in tribal areas enlightening the Tribal community about the benefits of education, their rights and entitlements under various government schemes and benefits of modern technology which may be helpful in improving their occupational works.
4. The Tribal Community may be informed that education to their children may secure their future because such children may get jobs in public or private sector where reservation policy is applicable.
5. School legal literacy clubs should be started in tribal dominated areas to reach out to tribal children to encourage them to stay in school, while at the same time sensitising other students and teachers of the special needs of tribal children.
6. The SLSAs with the assistance of Govt. agencies and NGOs may organise training programmes by audio visual mode and also by showing them practical demonstrations of modern technology for gainful agricultural work.
7. Medical awareness programmes may be organised in tribal areas to teach them the benefits of safe drinking water, nutrition and care of pregnant women as well as immunisation programme with NGOs working in the field.
8. The SLSAs should take other initiatives like establishing a community radio in the villages to bridge linguistic divide.

NALSA (Legal Services to the Victims of Drug Abuse and Eradication of Drug Menace)
Scheme, 2015

NALSA (Legal Services to the Victims of Drug Abuse and Eradication of Drug Menace) Scheme, 2015

1 Background:

- 1.1. The phenomenal rise in drug trafficking and drug abuse amongst the youth, children and adolescents has serious implications, adversely affecting national health and economy. Curbing it is the highest priority for the State as well as the society.
- 1.2. It is an open secret that drugs have spread their dreaded tentacles on innocent children, adolescents, youth and women. The horrible dimension, which this menace has acquired, can be gauged from the average age of initiation of drugs which is as low as nine-ten years. Recent empirical studies reveal that about 7 crore people in India are involved in substance abuse, out of whom about 17% are addicts.
- 1.3. The illicit cultivation of plants wherefrom the substances/drugs are derived is an area of major concern. Generally, people are unaware of the ill effects of such cultivation. In order to prevent illicit cultivation of substances, participation of Panchayati Raj Institutions and Local Bodies is necessarily required.
- 1.4. Although many agencies of the State as well as Non-Governmental Organizations are working in the field for eradication of drug trafficking and drug abuse, there is lack of coordination amongst them. Individual efforts of different functionaries and agencies have not achieved the desired results. Experience shows that the victims of drug abuse have no idea how to tackle the issues of treatment and rehabilitation.
- 1.5. Considering the fact that Legal Services Institutions can contribute a lot to curb this menace, a resolution was passed in the 13th All India Meet of State Legal Services Authorities held at Ranchi (Jharkhand), concluding that Drug Addiction and Drug Abuse should be a major area of concern for all Legal Services Institutions and a necessity was felt to examine the issue therein.

2 Existing Legal Provisions

- 2.1 The efforts to combat the menace of Narcotic Drugs and Trafficking started at the International level with Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs by the United Nations in March, 1961 and thereafter a protocol amending the resolution of this Convention was adopted in March, 1972. The United Nations Convention on Psychotropic Substances was held in 1971, followed by United Nations Convention against Illicit Trafficking in Narcotic Drugs & Psychotropic Substances, 1988. India is signatory to all such Conventions.
- 2.2 Article 47 of the Constitution of India mandates that State shall endeavour to bring about prohibition of the consumption except for medicinal purposes of intoxicating drinks and of drugs which are injurious to health.
- 2.3 The growing trend of illicit drug traffic and drug abuse, at the National level, has led to the passing of comprehensive legislations: (i) The Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 and (ii) The Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, for prohibition, control, regulation, cultivation, manufacture, sale transportation, consumption etc. of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances. Despite tough laws, illicit drug trade, in an organized manner, is growing manifold.
- 2.4 It is in this background that it was felt by NALSA, that Legal Services Institutions have a significant role to play in supply and demand reduction and de-addiction and rehabilitation. A Committee was constituted for the purpose of understanding the dimensions of the problem and defining the role of the Legal Services Institutions to effectively address the problem. This Scheme has been framed on the deliberations of the Committee based on the inputs received at the Regional Conference on the 'Drug Menace in India – Overview, Challenges and Solutions' at Manali, Himachal Pradesh.

3 Name of the Scheme

The Scheme shall be called “NALSA (Legal Services to the Victims of Drug Abuse and Eradication of Drug Menace) Scheme, 2015”. (hereinafter referred to as “the Scheme”).
