After 'Goof-Up', DDA Works On Erecting Shelter Again

Many Homeless Forced To Spend Nights In The Open

DDA
works

New Delhi: Delhi Development Authority (DDA) is working to erect a shelter for homeless people after a 'goof-up' in the construction of a shelter. The shelter was intended to provide a safe place for homeless people to spend the night. However, the construction was delayed, and many homeless people were forced to spend the night in the open. The DDA is now working to complete the shelter as soon as possible.
