Subject: Directions of the Admission Regulatory Committee for compliance by the Self-financing Institutions for carrying out MQ admissions Academic Session 2025-26

1. It is informed that during the Proceedings of Hearing No. XIV of Admission Regulatory Committee (ARC) which was held on 03.07.2025, the Admission Regulatory Committee emphasized the importance of transparency and reiterated following previous directions issued to ensure fair Management Quota (MQ) admission process:

- a). Public List of Applicants: A list of all applicants (online and offline) should be displayed on university and college websites, allowing students to verify their application status and rectify any errors within 2-3 days.
- b). Prominent Display: Management quota admission information should be prominently displayed on the college homepages alongwith detailed schedule.
- c). Website Accessibility: The websites should be functional 24/7 during the application period to ensure all interested students can apply without technical issues.
- d). No Deprivation: The university should ensure that no eligible student is deprived of the opportunity to apply for management quota admissions.

2. The Self-financing Institutions are requested to comply with the above directions in true letter and spirit and provide flawless glitch free online admission portal for the prospective students and follow the timeline prescribed in the DPCI Rule 2007 for conducting Management Quota admissions.

3. The copy of the Proceedings of Hearing No. XIV of Admission Regulatory Committee (ARC) is available at University website www.ipu.ac.in.
