Dear Brother,

The Library of the Indian Law Institute is one of the leading law libraries in Asia and attracts scholars from all over the world for legal research. The University Grants Commission has recognized the library as a place for Legal Research leading to the Doctorate Degree in Law and Political Science.

On 11.08.2015, the Library Committee of the Indian Law Institute released the newly developed website of the Library. The endeavour has been to utilize new technologies and the digital space for providing access to library resources so as to serve the legal fraternity in the best possible way. The main features of the website include Digital Collection, Web OPAC, Open Access Resources, Off campus access and Quick Links. The website enables free access to Indian Law Institute publications, including the Journal of the Indian Law Institute from 1958 to 2014 and the Annual Survey of Indian Law from 1965 to 2013. The Open Access Resources Link provides access to thousands of national and international law based databases containing millions of pages under different categories. The feature of Quick Links has been provided to enable fast and easy access to frequently referred and highly recommended, subscribed as well as open domain, websites containing legal information and resources for legal research and study. The website of the Library can be accessed through the following Link:

On visiting the said website, it can be seen that apart from subscribed resources, it has a wealth of information and resources which are otherwise scattered in the worldwide web, and can be accessed in one place.

Kindly visit the site and I am positive that it shall be an important avenue for any legal information and resources that you may require. The object of the website, as also the physical Library, is to enable legal research and this is an ongoing project. Therefore, suggestions for improvement of the facilities are welcome.

With best wishes,

and warm regards,

Yours sincerely,
