Further, in this regard it is also directed that if any detained official on account of any unforeseen exigency is not in a position to report for duty as per the imminent sequenced schedule then he/she shall timely intimate about the same to their respective Branch In-charges, who shall make alternate arrangements for the said incumbent from within their own branch with consensus among themselves (date adjustments), under prior intimation to the PS to the undersigned.

Non compliance of the above directions shall be viewed seriously.

Note:- It is further ordered that those officials of Filing Section & Pool Car, Central who were reporting for duty during the hitherto lockdown period shall continue reporting in the same chronology, as apart from them rest of the incumbents in these two Branches are either residing in areas which are outside the territorial limits of Delhi or are having their residences in containment zones or are female staff, thereby making it difficult for them to report for duties during the lockdown.
