ASSAM STATE LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITY

"Access to Justice for all"

LEGAL ORIGIN:

Article 39-A was inserted in the Constitution by Amendment Act, 1976 with effect from 3.1.1977. It enjoins upon the State to secure that the operation of legal system promotes justice on the basis of equal opportunity and in particular to provide free legal aid by suitable legislation or schemes or in any other way and to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities. Equal justice to all and free legal aid are hallmark of Article 39-A.

Pursuant to these objectives the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, was enacted by the Parliament to constitute legal services authorities to provide free and competent legal services to the weaker sections of the society to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities and to organize Lok Adalats to secure that the operation of the legal system promotes justice on the basis of equal opportunity.

ESTABLISHMENT:

Assam State Legal Services Authority has been constituted as a separate establishment vide Notification No. LGL. 176/94/PT.II/47 dated 07th April, 1998 in terms of Section 6 of Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 read with Rule 3 of Assam State Legal Services Authority Rules, 1996, which is enacted to effectuate the constitutional mandate enshrined under Article 14 and 39-A of the Constitution of India.

OUR VISION:

Our motto is "ACCESS TO JUSTICE FOR ALL", so that justice is not denied to citizens by reasons of economic or other disabilities. The core value of our Constitutional philosophy, as reflects from the Preamble, is the dignity of individual which is an essence of human rights, demands, not merely the civil or political rights but also economic, social, cultural rights. The main objective, penchant and directions of the Legal Services

Authority is to take real, practical and positive steps to ensure that there is equality and fairness for all in the justice process to fulfil the mandate of Constitution of India. It is, indeed, an enormously onerous task in view of large populace cursed with poverty and illiteracy. Therefore, the role of Legal Services Authority assumes great significance.

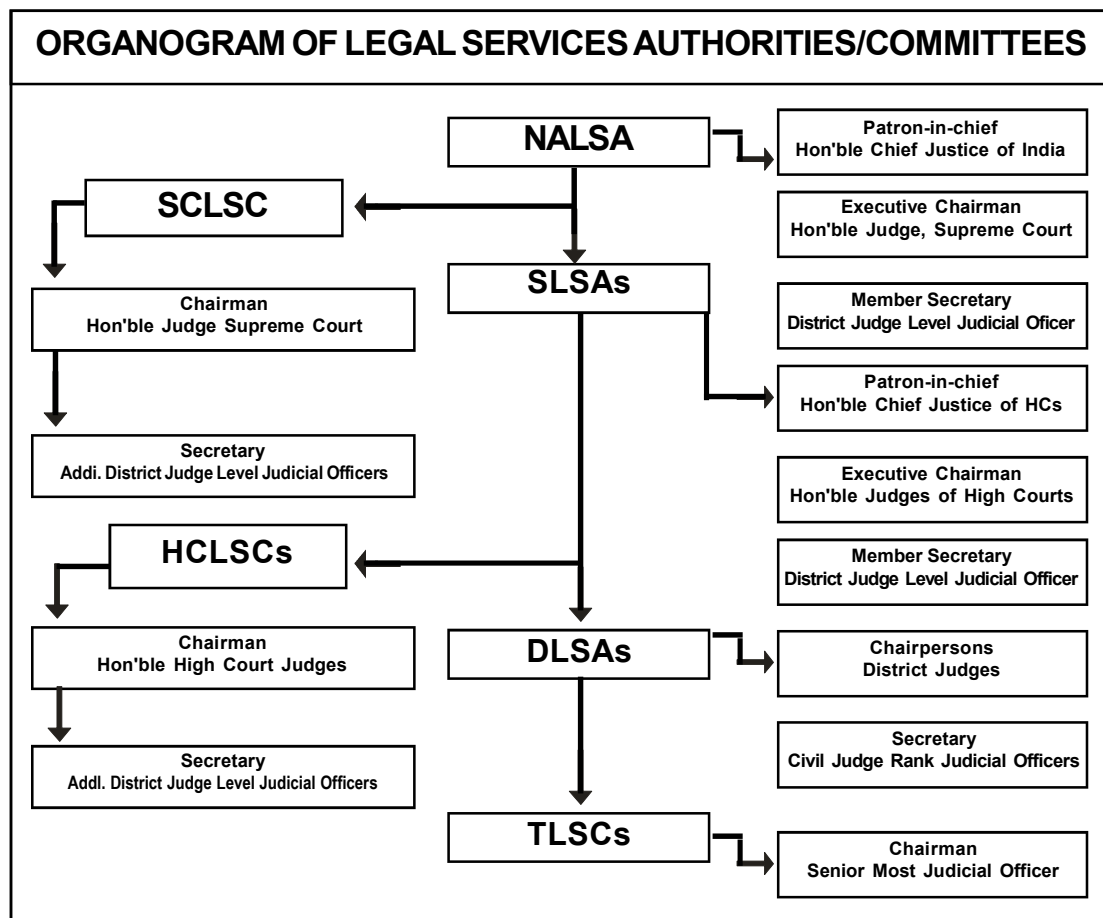

OUR MISSION:

To legally empower the marginalized and excluded groups of the society by providing effective legal representation, legal literacy and awareness and bridging the gap between the legally available benefits and the entitled beneficiaries.

To strengthen the system of Lok Adalats and other Alternate Dispute Resolution mechanisms in order to provide for informal, quick, inexpensive and effective resolution of disputes and minimize the load of adjudication on the overburdened judiciary.

ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE OF ASLSA:

- ❖ Hon'ble Chief Justice of Gauhati High Court is the Patron-in-Chief
- ❖ Hon'ble Judge of Gauhati High Court is the Executive Chairman of the Authority.

National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services Clinics in Universities, Law Colleges and other Institutions) Scheme, 2013

Background:

Section 4 (K) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 mandates the National Legal Services Authority to develop, in consultation with the Bar Council of India, programmes for clinical legal education and promote guidance and supervise the establishment and working of legal services clinics in universities, law colleges and other institutions.

The National Legal Services Authority has already notified the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Aid Clinics) Regulations, 2011 with the object of setting up of legal aid clinics in villages or for a cluster of villages, similar to the primary health centres set-up in the rural areas for the benefit of the rural population. These Regulations are applicable mutatis mutandis to student legal aid clinics. Regulations 22 to 26 of the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Aid Clinics) Regulations, 2011 pertain to the legal services clinics in the law colleges and universities.

The legal services clinics envisaged in Section 4 (k) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 aims at two objects. One is to improve the clinical legal skills of the students and the second is to inculcate an attitude amongst the students to provide effective legal services to the poor and marginalized people.

It needs to be mentioned that the Bar Council of India, being acutely aware of the need to provide practical experience of legal practice to the Final year students of law, has provided in Clause 11 of the Schedule III to its Rules on Standards of Legal Education and Recognition of Degrees in Law for the purpose of enrolment as advocates and inspection of Universities for recognizing its degrees in law, that each institution shall establish a Legal Aid Clinic to be run by the students under the supervision of a Senior Faculty Member in co-operation with the Legal Services Authorities.

Thus, the Legal Service Clinics Scheme under Section 4(k) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 needs to be framed adopting holistic approach providing a collaborative programme by involving Statutory bodies under the Legal Services Authorities Act 1987 and Advocates Act 1961 and extending support to universities, law colleges and other institutions in establishing and running legal service clinics. It is in this background, scheme has been drawn up :

1. This Scheme may be called the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services Clinics in Universities, Law Colleges and other Institutions) Scheme, 2013.
2. The objectives of the scheme are:
 - a. To set up nationwide collegiate Legal Services Clinics to familiarize law students of the country to the problems faced by the masses ignorant about their rights and remedies under the law.
 - b. To attain the ideals of "Social Economics and Political" justice as enshrined in the Constitution in the backdrop of poverty and inequality, by reaching out to the marginalized and the vulnerable communities through the collegiate Legal Services Clinics.
 - c. To spread legal awareness among students and people at large through aware camps, seminars, debates, legal counselling, poster making and street plays.
 - d. To expose students to community services.
 - e. To introduce the students to socio-economic impediments to access to justice.

SCHEME FOR PARA-LEGAL VOLUNTEERS (REVISED) & MODULE FOR THE ORIENTATION - INDUCTION- REFRESHER COURSES FOR PLV TRAINING

INTRODUCTION:

During the year 2009 National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) brought out a scheme called the Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme which aimed at imparting Legal training to volunteers selected from different walks of life so as to ensure legal aid reaching all sections of people through the process of Para-Legal Volunteers Scheme; ultimately removing the barriers into access to justice. The Para-Legal Volunteers (PLVs) are expected to act as intermediaries bridging the gap between the common people and the Legal Services Institutions to remove impediments in access to justice. Ultimately, the process aims at Legal Services Institutions reaching out to the people at their door-steps rather than people approaching such Legal Services Institution.

The western concept of 'Paralegals' cannot be totally adopted to Indian conditions having regard to illiteracy of large sections of the community. The hours of training as applicable to a regular academic course, cannot be adopted. It should be more like a bridge course conceptualised in a simple and need-based module. The PLVs have to be trained in the basics of different Laws which would be applicable at the grassroot level with reference to their day-to day life, the subtle nuances employed in the working of a judicial system, and the functioning of various other stakeholders like the Police, officials from Social Welfare Department, Woman and Child Welfare Department and other departments dealing with different beneficial schemes of Central and State Governments including the protection officers involved with Domestic Violence and Juvenile Justice Acts.

With the basic knowledge in the laws and other available welfare measures and legislation, they would be able to assist their immediate neighbourhood; Those who are in need of such assistance, so that a person, who is not aware of such right is not only made to understand his rights, but also will be able to have access to measures involving implementation of such rights.

PLVs are not only expected to impart awareness on laws and the legal system, but they must also be trained to counsel and amicably settle simple disputes between the parties at the source itself, which could save the trouble of the affected travelling all the way to the Legal Services Authority/ADR Centres. If the dispute is of such a nature, which cannot be resolved at the source with the assistance of PLVs, they could bring such parties to the ADR Centres, where, with the assistance of the Secretary in charge either it could be referred to Lok Adalat or Mediation Centre or Legal assistance could be provided for adjudication in a court of law, depending upon the nature of problem.

Though initially the NALSA Scheme of training of the PLVs included the legal fraternity of Advocates, Advocate community, later on experience revealed, the same to be unfeasible on account of conflict with the professional status of Advocates. The reality that marginalised people living in distant places will not have the benefit of lawyer PLVs also contributed to the practice being discontinued, and NALSA deciding that Advocates shall not be enlisted or engaged as PLVs.

The past experience gained from the working of the system after 2009 and also ground realities ascertained from the paralegals in the respective jurisdiction showed us that there has to be a re-look into the entire matter and who best could fit the role of a Para-Legal Volunteer. Initially, the training programme of PLVs was only for two-three days. Since the obligations of PLVs were vast in nature, it was felt, there has to be longer duration of training provided to the PLVs. At the same time, the training curriculum for PLVs adopted by NALSA cannot be such as to be training PLVs to become full-fledged lawyers. PLVs are not expected to conduct themselves as legal professionals. The aim of the training should concentrate on basic human qualities like compassion, empathy and a genuine concern and willingness to extend voluntary service without expectation of monetary gain from it. Then the line separating PLVs from professional lawyers should be zealously guarded.

Modalities:

- Ideally every Taluk Legal Services Committee (TLSC) shall have a panel of PLVs. of a maximum number of 25 (50) on their roll at any given point of time. The District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) shall have 50 (100) active PLVs on their roll.
- PLVs shall be literate, preferably matriculate, with a capacity for overall comprehension.
- Preferably PLV shall be selected from persons, who do not look up to the income they derive from their services as PLVs, but they should have a mind- set to assist the needy in the society coupled with the compassion, empathy and concern for the upliftment of marginalised and weaker sections of the society. They must have unflinching commitment towards the cause which should be translated into the work they undertake.
