

(i) The particulars of its organization, functions and duties :

District and Sessions Court, Gandhinagar.

This organization is a subordinate institution of the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat, Ahmedabad.

Gandhinagar City is a capital of the State of Gujarat in Western India and lies on the west bank of the Sabarmati River. This name was given from the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi. The independent Gandhinagar Judiciary came into existence w.e.f. 31-07-2004.

Gandhinagar Judiciary was bifurcated from Ahmedabad (Rural) and Mehsana District. In this District Three Taluka Courts under Gandhinagar Judicial Headquarter - [1] Kalol, [2] Dehgam and [3] Mansa. Hon'ble Dr. Justice Kaushal Jayendra Thaker had the honour of being the first Principal District Judge of Gandhinagar District.

Functions of the Organization : (1) Judicial Function
(2) Administrative Function

Duties of Organization :

- To exercise the control over all its subordinate Courts functioning in its territorial jurisdiction i.e. Gandhinagar District.

- To distribute the various grants amongst its subordinate courts received from the Government from time to time.
- To deal with all correspondence relating to the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat.
- To administer justice as per the various laws.
- To promote the officials to the higher responsible posts, as per rules.
- To handle all the administration as per procedural laws, Gujarat Civil Services Rules, Government Resolutions and Notifications issued by the High Court from time to time.
- In exercise the duties and power of administrative nature, this organization is deals with the duties of its employees, transfer of it's employees, and to arrange the departmental examinations and departmental inquiries of the employees, etc.