Subject: Availability of orders in protected matters through the e-Filing Portal.

Reference: This Court's letter no. 801 dated 09.04.2025 (copy enclosed).

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to refer you on the subject cited above and to inform you that a provision has been made by the Hon'ble e-Committee, Supreme Court of India to allow advocates and litigants to view orders in hidden or protected matters after creating an account and logging into the e-Filing 3.0 portal.

As per the prescribed process, access to these orders will be granted only when the mobile number registered in the eFiling portal matches the mobile number in the CIS for the specific case. Upon successful validation of the registered mobile number, the user will be able to access and download the copy of the order from the e-Filing portal.

You are, therefore, requested to bring the above to the notice of the Bar Associations, Judicial Officers, advocates and litigants in your respective Sessions Division for their information.

Encl. as above.

Yours faithfully,

Subject: Deployment of migration script for accessing orders in protected matters through eFiling Portal.

Sir,

I am directed to refer you to the subject cited above and to inform you that a provision has been made by the Hon'ble eCommittee, Supreme Court of India to allow advocates and litigants to view orders in hidden or protected matters upon logging into the eFiling portal. Access to these orders will be granted only when the mobile number registered in the eFiling portal matches the mobile number in the CIS for the specific case.

With the earlier migration of CIS to Version 4.0, orders in such matters are now stored in a separate folder, distinct from regular matters. However, these orders were not replicated to the NJDG server. To ensure that these orders are replicated and accessible, a modified migration script received from Sh. Amol Avinash, Sr. Director (IT), NIC Pune and successfully tested at the District Courts of Patiala, Kapurthala, and Moga will be shared with the technical team of your court.

You are, therefore, requested to deploy the migration script at the earliest to ensure proper replication of such orders and their availability through the e-Filing portal. Further, you are requested to inform the advocates and litigants about the availability of orders in protected matters via the e-Filing portal.

For any queries, you may contact Sh. Mandeep Kumar (System Officer), Punjab and Haryana High Court on Mob: 9815099166.

Yours faithfully,

Joint Registrar
