OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT & SESSIONS JUDGE
NORTH DISTRICT: ROHINI COURTS: DELHI

CIRCULAR

In order to obviate the problems faced by Advocates / litigants arising out of the judicial record / file requisitioned and retained by the Appellate Courts, it is impressed upon all the concerned Judicial Officers / Courts that, unless mandatory, the record of trial court be requisitioned a day before the actual date of hearing and returned immediately or on the next day so that proceedings before the trial court may not be stalled / delayed for the want of judicial record.

If needed further, the judicial record may again be requisitioned and returned in the same manner, unless stay on proceedings is there or case is already decided. In this regard, practice direction has been issued earlier also by Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, copy of which is annexed / attached herewith.
