

HIGH COURT OF DELHI, NEW DELHI

No.1180/E-1/Estt.I/DHC
Dated: 25.11.2021

CIRCULAR

This is for the information of all the officers and officials that Department of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Law and Justice in collaboration with National Academy of Legal Studies and Research (NALSAR), University of Law, is going to launch an "online course on Constitution" on 25th November, 2021 on the eve of 'Constitution Day' as a part of celebrations of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav and to create awareness and strengthen the citizens of this Country to familiarize with the text of the Constitution and leading cases, identify the fundamental policy choices incorporated in the Constitution, examine the historical evolution and understand the post independence constitutional journey, through a series of 15 conceptual videos. These videos shall be available for viewing for a fixed period of six months after the date of registration by the applicants. A certificate of participation shall be automatically generated after any person registers and views the videos on the portal <https://legalaffairs.nalsar.ac.in>.

The registration for the course has been kept free for all the citizens and members of the society for viewing and participation. However, any citizen who wishes to obtain a Certificate of Appreciation or Certificate of Merit, is required to opt for online assessment on a token fee of Rs. 100/- (Rupees One Hundred only) which is purely optional.

It is expected that enrolment and participation shall go a long way in achieving the goals of the Constitution as a part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav celebrations.

All the Officers and Officials who are willing to enroll and participate in the aforesaid online course are requested to register themselves for the said online course which has been kept free and those who wish to obtain a Certificate of Appreciation or Certificate of Merit are required to opt for online assessment on a token fee of Rs. 100/- which is purely optional.

It is made clear that no separate permission is required for enrolling and participating in the said online course on Constitution.
