- 1) Government Notification No. LAW-LCE/153/2025 dated 07.08.2025,
 - 2) Letter No. GOB.II.63(78)/2024 dated 14.08.2025 of Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka, Bengaluru
 - 3) This office note and orders thereon.

Preamble: It is stated that when the Courts are established in the District Judiciary, the nomenclature to the said courts are been given and the Government has noticed that in many of the Districts the nomenclature of the Courts were not in order/not given uniformly which was causing confusion and inconvenience to the Advocates and litigant public to attend the Court and filing of cases and also administration of the Courts in the District Judiciary. Further, the Hon'ble High Court has directed to change of nomenclature of the Courts established in the District as per notification if any.

The Government has issued Notification with regard to re-designation of Nomenclature of the Courts in the District Judiciary. The Government has notified that to "maintain uniformity in nomenclature of the Courts in the District Judiciary that as and when the Additional Courts are established in the cadres of District Judge, Senior Civil Judge and Civil Judge in the District Judiciary, the nomenclature of the Court established at first shall be changed by adding the word "Principal" in the prefix and the next established court should be "I Addl." Court and similarly the nomenclature of the subsequent Courts shall be changed in Chronological order, i.e., II Addl., III Addl., IV Addl. with immediate effect. Further, it is stated that the nomenclature of the courts already established throughout the District Judiciary of the Karnataka State shall be altered accordingly with immediate effect. Hence the following
