Sub. : Regarding appointment of Counsellors under the Family Courts (Rajasthan) Rules, 1991.

Sir,

I am directed to state that except Family Court, Dungarpur, two Counsellors in each Family Court and one Counsellor in Family Court, Dungarpur would be appointed for two years under the Family Courts (Rajasthan) Rules, 1991 (as recently amended).

For appointment of Counsellors in all Family Courts of Rajasthan, required Notification is being issued, a copy of which is enclosed herewith for ready reference. In pursuance to the above Notification, applications in prescribed format are to be submitted by eligible persons before concerned Family Courts upto 21.11.2016.

As per directions, concerned Judge, Family Court will maintain a record of the applications received upto 21.11.2016. He/she will examine and scrutinize all such applications as per Rules and make such enquiry as deemed proper. After making due compliance of the Rules, concerned Judge, Family Court will forward the applications of suitable candidate(s) with his/her consultation to the High Court for further authorisation and Notification as required under Rules.

To fulfill future vacancy, concerned Judge, Family Court will issue such public notice for selection of Counsellors and after due scrutiny/enquiry, consultation for appointment will be submitted to Hon'ble High Court for further required authorisation and Notification as per Rules.

The fee-cum-allowance to a Counsellor for appearance in the Court whenever required by the Family Court will be paid as per prescribed rates which will be communicated later on.

Encl. : As above.

Yours sincerely,
