

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT & SESSIONS JUDGE ROHINI COURT : DELHI

C I R C U L A R

It is noted with concern that staff members of the District Courts at Rohini Courts have started coming for their duties in dresses which do not be fit the decorum of the Court. It is also difficult to identify the staff members, who have access to the private corridors of the Judges and to other restricted areas, as they are not found wearing identity cards.

Attention of all the staff members posted at District Courts Rohini is drawn to the various orders issued earlier in this respect. All the staff members are once again directed to strictly adhere to the specified formal uniform/dress code as under:-

For Male Officials

Shirt and Trouser

For Female Officials

Salwar Kameez(with sleeves) with Dupatta and/or Saree.

Officials are also advised to adhere to the clothing in sober designs and colours which are in conformity with the dignity of the Court atmosphere.

It is also compulsory for all the officials to wear identity card regularly around their neck during all times in the Court Complex.

Any violations of the above directions shall be viewed seriously inviting disciplinary action against the erring official.
