ACB COURTS TO ROUSE AVENUE COURTS COMPLEX

- (1) As ordered by the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, all CBI Courts [except the Courts of District & Sessions Judge, East cum Special Judge (CBI)] will be transferred to Rouse Avenue Court Complex along with all the pending and decided cases files after 01.01.2015 if the said files have not been yet consigned to record room.
- (2) The concerned District Judge shall direct the respective Care Taking Branch to provide requisite transport and labour for shifting the records of CBI/ACB Courts from different Court Complexes to Rouse Avenue Court Complex on Sunday 07.04.2019.
- (3) Safe custody of the record during shifting is the responsibility of the staff of concerned Court. One of the staff members (Ahlmad/ Asstt. Ahlmad) shall travel in the Mini Truck/ Tempo in which the record is being carried to Rouse Avenue Courts Complex. Other staff members from the concerned Court shall be present in Rouse Avenue Courts Complex to receive the record. However handling of the boxes/ bags containing the record will be done by Care Taking Staff/ labour arranged by the Care Taking Branch of the respective Court Complex.
- (4) It will be responsibility of the concerned staff of the Court to ensure that the record of the said Court is kept safely at the designated place in Rouse Avenue Court Complex.
- (5) Ahlmad/ Asstt. Ahlmad of the Court shall make himself conversant with the space allocated to the said Court for keeping the said record in the Rouse Avenue Court Complex on 05.04.2019 or 06.04.2019 so that there is no confusion on the date of shifting of the record.

(6) Ahlmad/ Asstt. Ahlmad shall prepare the Peshi for 08.04.2019 (one day) and hand over the same to the Reader of his/ her respective Court in the evening of 06.04.2019. The entire record as detailed above, except the matters listed on 08.04.2019 shall be shifted to Rouse Avenue Court Complex on 07.04.2019.

(7) Care Taking Branch of respective Courts Complex has to ensure that each Court is provided separate Mini Truck/ Tempo so that there is no mixing of boxes/bags containing record of respective Courts. However as a matter of abundant precaution, Ahlmad/ Asstt. Ahlmad shall write the name of Court, name of case and brief description of the contents on each box/ bag with a permanent marker so as to identify the respective boxes/ bags in case of mixing up of the same.

(8) The case files of the matters listed on 08.04.2019 shall be carried by the concerned Reader/ Ahlmad to Rouse Avenue Court Complex in the evening of 08.04.2019 after the matters are over and Pool Car Section of respective Court Complex shall provide vehicles for shifting of said record to Rouse Avenue Court Complex.

(9) All the library books/ journals, which are issued in the name of Readers of respective Courts, shall be carried by the Readers to Rouse Avenue Court Complex. However, the Reader shall prepare a list of the said books and submit the same to concerned Librarian in their present Court Complex before shifting the books to Rouse Avenue Court Complex. The concerned Librarian shall prepare a separate register of the books being transferred to Rouse Avenue Court Complex by the respective CBI/ ACB Courts. When the library at Rouse Avenue Court Complex starts functioning, the said registers from Libraries of different Courts Complexes will be sent to the Library at Rouse Avenue Court Complex for maintaining proper record of the books and registers issued to Readers of Courts.

(10) The books and journals issued/ subscribed in the name of concerned Ld. Judges of CBI/ACB Courts shall be at their disposal and there is no provision of return of the said books/ journals to concerned library.

(11) Indian Penal Code / other offence cases investigated by CBI and pending in the Courts of concerned CMM/ ACMM shall be transferred to Rouse Avenue Courts Complex on weekly basis to the Courts of Ld. CMM/ ACMM at Rouse Avenue Court Complex (meaning thereby that files of the cases listed in the next week should reach in the office of Ld.
