

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT & SESSIONS JUDGE (HQs): DELHI

CIRCULAR

All the Judicial Officers holding courts are hereby informed that designation-based official email IDs of all the functional courts have been created under ddc.nic.in domain. The necessary training w.r.t activation and use of official email ID has already been imparted to all concerned by the Computer Branch of respective court complex.

It has been noticed that most of the courts are still using private domain email IDs like Gmail.com/Hotmail.com etc. for official communication and are reflecting on the website of Delhi District Courts even after activation of official email IDs during training session.

Considering the above, all the Judicial Officers holding courts are requested to direct the staff posted in the respective court to stop the use of private domain mail ids immediately and to exclusively use designation based Official/Govt. email ID for all official communications and to get the same updated on the official website latest by 6th January, 2024 positively failing which, the Computer Branch of respective district will replace the private email IDs with designation based official email IDs. In case of any query/difficulty w.r.t use/functioning of official email, the Computer Branch of respective court complex may be contacted.

This issues with the approval of Ld. Principal District & Sessions Judge (HQs), Delhi.
