RE : APPEARANCE IN THE COURTS THROUGH VIDEO CONFERENCING

Sirs,

I am sorry to bring to your notice that despite our earlier communications and despite our best efforts by widely circulating the said communication, the Advocates reportedly are not following the mandatory guidelines and not maintaining required decorum during the appearance in the Courts through V.C. (Video Conferencing), and are appearing with a very casual attitude unbecoming of an Advocate. It has been reported that Advocates often resorts to putting appearance on audio mode only and not on video mode in utter disregard to the guidelines & decorum to be maintained during appearance.

The often-observed common faults being made by the Advocates while appearing through VC before the Courts are once again mentioned herein below for your perusal:

- Advocates are not in proper attire while addressing the Court
- Place and background are not appropriate as per judicial norms
- Advocates do not mute themselves while not addressing the Court
- Advocates are not on time
- Proper software and hardware are not used
- Frame of the camera is not correctly placed
- Lack of proper lighting around
- Advocates are not looking into the camera and not paying attention

It is further emphasized that the V.C. proceedings must be carried out on proper equipment i.e. a laptop or computer. It should not be on the handheld devices or mobile phones. In case the advocates are not having the necessary gadgets for the V.C., they should appear in person and should not resort to VC on hand-held devices.

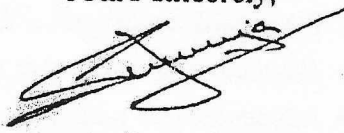

The Bar Council of Delhi requests your goodselfs to urge Advocates/ Members under the authority of your Bar Association to strictly follow the required guidelines, maintain decorum as per the judicial norms while appearing through VC before the Courts, as is followed in the open Court or otherwise, the said act of Advocates shall be taken as a misconduct under section 35 of the Advocates Act and appropriate action shall be initiated on receipt of any such complaint.

Your goodselfs, are therefore, requested to disseminate the required information to the general information of Advocates.

With regards,

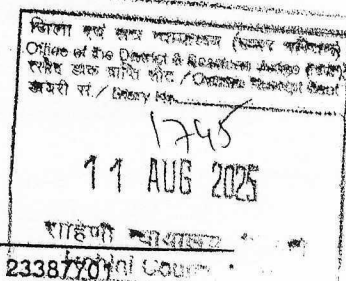

Yours sincerely,

(Surya Prakash Khatri)
Chairman
