2. In case both the parties desire that their matter may be taken up physically, a joint request maybe made and the Ld. Judge may list that matter on the day of his/her physical hearing. The Ld. Judicial Officers shall ensure that a limited number of cases are listed for physical hearing after taking due care of safety measures and social distancing norms.
3. It may be ensured that there is no overcrowding inside the court room during the hearings and an endeavour shall be made that only one lawyer from each side may appear and the litigants be called only when necessary. The windows of the court room shall be kept open for proper ventilation. It may be ensured that no one is allowed entry in the court room without a mask.
4. No applications/documents shall be handed over across the dais and shall be be put in the petition box kept in the court room which shall be taken out after two days and put up before the Ld. Judge. The soft copy of the applications/ documents may also be filed on the court e-mail address.
5. The application for certified copy/ inspection of court record may be filed physically or through e-mail and the date and time for collection of copies/ inspection may be confirmed telephonically from the concerned official-in-charge in order to avoid overcrowding and inconvenience to all.
6. The Under Trial Prisoners shall continue to be produced through video conferencing only in order to avoid over-crowding,
7. The Standard Operating Protocol (SOP) issued by Hon'ble High Court of Delhi for resumption of Physical functioning of the subordinate Courts, be scrupulously followed by all the stake holders.
8. If an advocate/litigant stays away from the virtual proceedings after being intimated that a case would be taken up on a particular date, it be left to the discretion of the concerned court to proceed further in the matter, depending on the urgency and/ or other attending circumstances.
