The documents filed along with the application no. 00099/08.07.2014 of Ms. Rajkumari, Advocate, have been re-scrutinized and personal hearing was given to the applicant. Out of the 15 (fifteen) cases submitted by her, 01 (one) has earlier been considered invalid by the then Sub-committee in terms of resolution of Minutes of Meeting dated 05.09.2017. In the invalidated case, the order sheet doesn't reflect the name of the applicant, and the Vakalatnama is signed by more than one lawyer including the applicant. In support of her claim for allotment of Chamber, the applicant has pointed out that she filed documents in case Harish Vs. Kartar Singh &amp; ors. and the copy of order sheets enclosed are of cases for different purpose, one in DAR and other in respect of claim of her client for damages to his motorcycle. With these submissions she requested to consider the same as two cases. Both the undersigned opined that though the purpose of petition/application could be different but claims relating to same incident, heard by the same court of jurisdiction &amp; for a same petitioner/client, it can not be treated as two cases. Further, It is mentioned that neither title sheet nor order sheet dated 15.02.2012 reflects the case no(s). Therefore, both the ACJ(s) found no ground to opine differently in the above-said case in terms of resolution of LCAC dated 05.09.2017. The recommendation of both the ACJ(s) is unanimously accepted and representation made by Ms Rajkumari, Advocate is rejected, accordingly.
