This C.O.S. SR coming for hearing regarding maintainability on 24.02.2026 before me in the presence of M/s. S. Bala Ganesh, K.M. Mrithunjayan, M.Ravi Shankar, S. Jeeva, S. Kowshick, the learned counsels for the plaintiff and upon perusing the documents and hearing the arguments of the plaintiff side and having stood over for consideration of till this day and this court today delivers the following:

ORDER

1. The learned counsel for the plaintiff submitted that plaintiff wants to waive the period of invoking of pre litiation mediation in view of the matter requires urgent internvention of this Court which should exercise its power under Order XXXVIII Rule 5 and Order XXXIX Rule 2 of C.P.C. to secure the plaintiff's mandatory claim of Rs.57,20,000/- invested by him with first defendant for production of Tamil film "Jora Kaiya Thattunga" which was released by the 1st defendant behind the back of the plaintiff in spite of existence of joint venture agreement between the plaintiff and the 1st defendant with regard to Commercial and Theatrical rights, Satellite broadcasting rights, overseas distribution rights, digital media rights and remake and dubbing rights in other languages over the film. The learned counsel further submitted that 1st defendant has not only caused monetary loss to the plaintiff but also he is attempting to dub the film in other languages, depriving of right of the plaintiff who is a co-producer of the film.

2. I have perused the entire plaint. Even as per the plaint, the film was released in theatres and OTT plat form. The plaintiff can work out his remedy to recover his amount with interest if he is found eligible. The urgent intervention of this court into the matter does not warrant. Even before the institution of the suit, the plaintiff has made efforts for compromise talks. The pre litigation mediation would give a chance for parties to arrive at amicable settlement. Therefore, the plaintiff is directed to present the plaint after invoking pre litigation mediation.

In the result, the plaintiff is directed to present the plaint after invoking pre-litigation mediation.

Dictated by me to the Steno-Typist, transcribed and typed by him in the computer, corrected and pronounced by me in the open court, this 24th day of February 2026.
