REGISTRAR GENERAL

Procedure for allotment of Chambers under the Rules for Allotment of Chambers in Subordinate Courts of Rajasthan, 2016

1. Formation of Chamber Allotment Committee-

Concerned District & Sessions Judge shall constitute Chamber Allotment Committee, which shall consist of-

(i) District & Sessions Judge or any other Senior Judicial Officer(s) nominated by him.

(ii) President, Concerned Bar Association.

(iii) Secretary, Concerned Bar Association.

2. Applications for allotment of chambers would be invited from eligible advocates for which notice shall be published on notice board of District & Sessions Court or concerned Court (in case of chambers are situated other than District Headquarter) and concerned Bar Association.

3. After making scrutiny of applications as per eligibility norms, a provisional list of eligible advocates will be prepared and published as per Rule 7 of Rules for Allotment of Chambers in Subordinate Courts of Rajasthan 2016 and objections thereon shall be invited within 3 days of publication of list of eligible advocates.

4. Objections received regarding the list of eligible advocates would be considered and decided expeditiously by the grievance Committee constituted under the Rules.

5. Allotment process in the situation where the number of eligible advocates is more than the Chambers available for allotment-

(a) President of the concerned Bar Association will be requested by Chamber Allotment Committee to form Groups of the eligible advocates according to size and sitting capacity of the Chambers and send the list of such Groups to the Chamber Allotment Committee.

(b) Upon receipt of the list of above Groups, objections from the members of Bar shall be invited on proposed groups of advocates. The Chamber Allotment Committee shall decide the objections expeditiously say within 3 days and would finalize the groups.

(c) If the number of groups of advocates is lesser or equal to chambers available for allotment, lottery process shall be followed for determining particular chamber number for a particular group.

(d) If the number of groups of advocates is more than the chambers available for allotment, lottery process shall be followed for allotment of chambers amongst the groups.

6. Allotment process in the situation where the number of eligible advocates is lesser or equal to the Chambers available for allotment-

In such a situation, Chamber Groups will not be invited and lottery process shall be followed for determining particular chamber number for a particular eligible advocate.

Chamber Allotment Committee will consider and decide the applications for change of Groups. For any reason, if any vacancy is occurred after allotment, the same would be fulfilled by the Chamber Allotment Committee after giving equal opportunity to all eligible advocates by following lottery process.

7. Lottery Process-

(i) Date, time and place fixed for lottery process will be notified/published on the notice board of Court complex and concerned Bar Association.

(ii) Lottery shall be drawn in the presence of Chamber Allotment Committee. Eligible advocates may also remain present at the time of process.

(iii) Lottery slips will be prepared as per situation by Chamber Allotment Committee and senior Class-IV employee authorized by the Chamber Allotment Committee shall pick up the lottery slips for allotment of Chambers.

(iv) After picking up of the lottery slips, Chamber numbers will be announced and marked against the Chamber Groups or concerned advocate. List of such allotment will be prepared and all the members of Chamber Allotment Committee shall put their signatures on each page of such list.

8. After finalizing the allotment of chambers, PWD authorities will be requested to affix name plate of standard size on each Chamber showing names of the allottee advocate(s) as per allotment list.

9. If any difficulty or problem arises at local level during allotment of Chambers, the Chamber Allotment Committee shall sort out the same as per the provisions and spirit of Rules for Allotment of chambers in Subordinate Courts of Rajasthan, 2016.

10. Above allotment process shall be subject to the provisions of Rules for Allotment of Chambers in Subordinate Courts of Rajasthan, 2016.
