NOTIFICATION

Jaipur, June 27, 2016

G.S.R.28.-In exercise of powers conferred by section 23 of the Family Courts Act, 1984 (Central Act No. 66 of 1984), the State Government in consultation with the High Court of Judicature for Rajasthan hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Family Courts (Rajasthan) Rules, 1991, namely:-

1. Short title and commencement.- (1) These rules may be called the Family Courts (Rajasthan) (Amendment) Rules, 2016.

(2) They shall come into force with immediate effect.

2. Substitution of rule 8.- The existing rule 8 of the Family Courts (Rajasthan) Rules, 1991, shall be substituted by the following, namely:-

"8. Appointment of counsellors.- (1) The High Court shall, by public notice published in any local daily news paper having wide circulation in the area, invite applications for each area from persons engaged or working in the field of social welfare and welfare of the family for being associated with or to assist the Family Court of such area.

(2) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a counsellor unless he possesses the following qualifications, namely:-

(i) Degree in social sciences such as social welfare, sociology, clinical psychiatry, psychology/philosophy, preferably with a Degree in laws; and

(ii) At least five years experience in field work/research or of teaching in Government department or in a College/university or a comparable academic institute, with special reference to problems of women and children.

OR

Five years experience in the examination and/or application of Central/State Laws relating to marriage, divorce, maintenance, guardianship and adoption and other family disputes.

Provided that the High Court may, in exceptional circumstances, relax the minimum academic qualifications:

Provided further that preference may be given to women having the requisite qualifications:

Provided also that preference shall be given to a candidate who has been an officer of District Judge cadre or has experience of counselling in family matters.

(3) The applications received for appointment as counsellors shall be examined and if the applicants are, on such enquiry as deemed proper, found to be fit for being associated as counsellors, such applicants shall, in consultation with the Judge of the Family Court, be authorized for a period of two years by the State Government by notification in the official Gazette, to be associated with the Family Court in that area.

(4) The Court may appoint a Counsellor from the persons authorized under sub-rule (3);

(5) The Court may secure the services of any other person whose association with the Court appears necessary so as to enable the court to exercise its jurisdiction more effectively in accordance with the purpose of the Act."

3. Addition of new rule 9 and 10:- After the rule 8 so substituted the following new rule 9 and 10 shall be added, namely:-

"9. Number of counsellor:- Each Family Court shall have as many counsellors as may be determined by the High Court.

10. Salary, Allowances & other terms and conditions of counsellors:- (1) The counsellors shall be entitled to receive the fee and other allowances at such rates as may, from time to time, be determined by the State Government in consultation with the High Court.

(2) The counsellor shall not be paid any fee or expenses by any party to the case.

(3) The Court may assign any work to a Counsellor for assisting it in discharging its functions under the Act.

(4) The Counsellor or the person associated with the Court under sub-rule (5) of rule 8 shall not act or plead for a party to a case or proceeding but shall generally assist the Court in reaching peaceful and amicable settlement of the dispute.

(5) The Counsellor entrusted with any petition, shall,-

- (i) attend the Court as and when required by the Judge of the Family Court;
- (ii) aid and advise the parties regarding settlement of the subject-matter of dispute or any other part thereof;
- (iii) help the parties in reconciliation;

- (iv) submit report or interim report, as the case may be required by the Court;
- (v) perform such other functions as may be assigned to him by the Family Court, from time to time.

(6) The Counsellor in performing his function shall be guided by such general or special directions as may be given by the Court, from time to time.

Explanation: The term "Counsellors" in this rule, shall include the persons associated with the court under sub-rule (5) of rule 8."

Sub. : Regarding appointment of Counsellors under the Family Courts (Rajasthan) Rules, 1991.

Sir,

I am directed to state that except Family Court, Dungarpur, two Counsellors in each Family Court and one Counsellor in Family Court, Dungarpur would be appointed for two years under the Family Courts (Rajasthan) Rules, 1991 (as recently amended).

For appointment of Counsellors in all Family Courts of Rajasthan, required Notification is being issued, a copy of which is enclosed herewith for ready reference. In pursuance to the above Notification, applications in prescribed format are to be submitted by eligible persons before concerned Family Courts upto 21.11.2016.

As per directions, concerned Judge, Family Court will maintain a record of the applications received upto 21.11.2016. He/she will examine and scrutinize all such applications as per Rules and make such enquiry as deemed proper. After making due compliance of the Rules, concerned Judge, Family Court will forward the applications of suitable candidate(s) with his/her consultation to the High Court for further authorisation and Notification as required under Rules!

123

To fulfill future vacancy, concerned Judge, Family Court will issue such public notice for selection of Counsellors and after due scrutiny/enquiry, consultation for appointment will be submitted to Hon'ble High Court for further required authorisation and Notification as per Rules.

The fee-cum-allowance to a Counsellor for appearance in the Court whenever required by the Family Court will be paid as per prescribed rates which will be communicated later on.

Encl. : As above.

Yours sincerely,
