making an application to the State Legal Services Authority or by any other means known to law. There is also an absence of awareness in this regard.

In the circumstances, we direct that the concerned Special Court/Session Courts ought to pass appropriate directions with regard to payment of victim compensation in appropriate cases, so that the implementation of the said directions of the concerned Special Court/Session Courts could be easily made by the State Legal Services Authority through the District Legal Services Authority or the Taluk Legal Services Authority, as the case may be.

Hence, a copy of this order shall be dispatched by the Registry of this Court to the Registrar Generals of all the High Courts for onward transmission to Principal District Judges for communication to the concerned Special Courts.

Further, the Registrar Generals of all the High Courts shall communicate this order to the Directors of all the State Judicial Academies for onward communication to all Principal District Judges that the Special Courts/Session Courts and also to impress upon concerned Special Court Judges with regard to the aspect of payment of victim compensation during the course of their training in the State Judicial Academies in accordance with Section 357A of the CrPC, corresponding to Section 396 of the BNSS and POCSO Act and Rules.
