Sir/Madam,

In reference to the letter dated 02.06.2026 received from the Secretary General, Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, regarding the mentioning of the CNR number in orders and judgments to facilitate integrated data management in ICMIS, the following is conveyed for information and necessary compliance.

The Hon'ble the Chief Justice of India launched the "One Case One Data" initiative on 11.05.2026 with the objective of establishing an integrated case-management ecosystem across the Indian judiciary and eliminating errors arising from repetitive manual data entry as matters move from the District Courts and High Courts to the Supreme Court. Pursuant to the said initiative, a new module has been implemented in the Supreme Court's Case Management Software (ICMIS) to electronically fetch case-related information from the digital case-data repositories of the High Courts and District Courts, with the CNR number of the challenged matter serving as the key trigger for such automatic retrieval.

In light of the above, all Courts are directed to comply with the directions already issued vide letters dated 19.12.2019 and 04.03.2020 regarding the uploading of orders and judgments in the prescribed templates, so as to maintain uniformity in the format of orders and judgments across the State of Uttar Pradesh. It is further directed that no format or template other than the prescribed format/template shall be used for uploading any order or judgment.

In this reference, as directed may I request your goodselves to direct all the Presiding Officers of the Court to comply with the above directions so as to ensure uniformity in the format of orders and judgments uploading.

With regards.

O/o Jt. Registrar(J)(CPC)
Allahabad High Court
