No: 2860/SLSA-83/2025 (PS/Kuldeep) Dated: August 14, 2026

Sub: Regarding "Mediation for the Nation 3.0 Campaign."

Madam/Sir

As you are aware that Mediation for the Nation Campaign 3.0 is underway and it is impressed upon to refer maximum number of suitable cases under various categories for the mediation and their successful settlement.

In this regard, following suggestions have come across this Authority:-

1. Extensive Publicity up to Panchayat Level: The mediation campaign should be widely publicized up to the Panchayat level with the support of the District Administration through:

- Radio and FM channels
- Social media platforms
- Cinema halls (PVRs), digital screens
- Bulk messaging and newspapers
- Banners, posters, and hoardings at prominent locations
- Outreach through Gram Chowkidars, ASHA workers, Anganwadi Supervisors
- Nukkad Nataks at District Courts, Collectorates, Tehsils, and other Public places
- Mobile Publicity Vans

2. Early Information to Litigants: Courts should be under a clear obligation to inform both parties, at the first or earliest possible stage, about the benefits of mediation and the option of referring their dispute to mediation.

3. Information on Summons and Notices: In cases that are suitable for mediation, summons or notices should prominently display information regarding the possibility of settlement through mediation along with its benefits.

4. Distinctive Colour Coding of Notices: Such notices may be issued in distinct colours (blue, pink, or yellow) to draw attention, and the serving agency should ensure effective service.

5. Choice of Mediation Mode: Notices issued for appearance before mediation centers should clearly inform parties of their option to choose offline, online, or hybrid modes of mediation as per their convenience.

6. Weekly Review by District Judges: Weekly appraisal and review of the mediation campaign may be undertaken by the District Judges to ensure consistent monitoring and progress.

You are, therefore, humbly requested to kindly take necessary action in the light of aforesaid suggestions, in addition to the earlier circulated guidelines during the campaign Mediation for the Nation 2.0 as well by way of intimating to all Learned Judicial Officers in your prestigious Judgeship.

With regards,

Yours sincerely

Dr. (Smt.) Manu Kalia
