– Reg.

* * *

It has been brought to the notice of the High Court that requests for extension of time for disposal of main cases or Interlocutory Applications are being made by the Presiding Officers of the Courts in District Judiciary including Tribunals, with enormous delay, after the expiry of the time initially fixed for disposal of the cases by the High Court. The High Court has time and again expressed deep concern over the delay in adhering the directions, where timeframe is stipulated, holding that the Presiding Officers of the Courts in District Judiciary including Tribunals and authorities on administrative side should ensure compliance with the directions/orders passed by the High Court for disposal of the cases and the indolence to comply the directions in disposal of the cases could not be countenanced.

Pertinent to note, it shall be the bounden duty of the Presiding Officers of the Courts in the District Judiciary including the Tribunals working under the control of the High Court and the authorities on administrative side as well, to ensure compliance within the timeframe stipulated by the High Court and in the event of any hindrance to adhere compliance of timeframe, proactive efforts should be made by addressing a
