OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM

Sub: Re-numbering of Transferred and LPC cases - directions issued by the High Court- directions applicable to split up cases - developing new module - reg.

Ref: High Court OM No. DI-3/ 10755/ 2023, dated 19-7-2023

Attention is invited to the OM cited above, whereby the High Court had directed the courts in the District Judiciary to retain the original year of the case while renumbering cases transferred from one court to another and also while renumbering the Long Pending cases.

Now doubts have been expressed from various courts whether the above process of renumbering is to be adopted in the case of split up cases. In light of the decision to extend applicability of this process to split-up cases, the following directions are issued:

1. A new dedicated module " Refile LP Conversion " has been developed in DCMS for refiling of criminal cases, as and when required and also for conversion as Long Pending Cases.
2. The cases converted to LP will not be registered as a case, but will be managed with Filing Number, to ensure that the same does not reflect in the system as a pending case.
3. In a case in which sanction is obtained for transferring it to long pending register, the conversion can be effected using the "Convert to LP Case" Module, by disposing of the original case. In such instances, the LP case will be assigned with a filing number, which will be the next LP filing number of that year.

4. On the apprehension or appearance of the accused, the LP case can be converted back to the original case type like CC/ST/CP/SC using the Refile option. The converted case then proceeds through the regular trial process. In such cases, the converted case will bear the same year as the original CC/ST/CP/SC case, and its number will be the next number of that year for the corresponding case type.

5. With this module, the refiling of cases in the event of splitting of accused can also be handled. In this scenario, the renumbering will happen by retaining the original case year.

Step by step guidelines for using the module is attached herewith as Annexure A.

Refiling of Criminal Cases and conversion to LP Cases in DCMS

Rule 15 of the Criminal Rules of Practice, Kerala, 1982 provides that when it is satisfied that the presence of the accused cannot be secured within a reasonable time or when the accused person is found to be of unsound mind, upon getting sanction as per the rules, the case can be removed from the register of cases and be entered in a separate register of long pending cases. On subsequent apprehension or appearance of the accused, the case against the accused shall be treated as a new case.

Further, rule 16 of the Criminal Rules of Practice states that where there are several accused persons in a case and only some of them have appeared or have been produced before the court, upon satisfaction that the presence of such accused could not be secured within a reasonable period of time, the case against the appeared accused shall be proceeded with and disposed of it according to law. The case against the non-appeared accused shall be given a new number and if it is pending for a long time, after following the procedure prescribed, it can be entered in the register of long pending cases.

The High Court, as per DI-3-10755/2023 dated 19.07.2023, directed that when cases are transferred from one Court to another and LP cases are renumbered, the original case year shall be retained.

To handle all these procedural requirements, a dedicated module is developed in the DCMS as “Refile, LP Conversion”. This new module enables the refiling of criminal cases, as and when required and also conversion as Long Pending Cases. This module will be available in the profiles of Bench Clerk , CMO and the Judicial Officer.

Refile Case Module

The tab “Refile Case” will be available only in cases in which there are multiple accused. This provision can be used to refile the case as against anyone or some of the multiple accused in the case. This can be done (i) at the time of disposal of the case against the appeared accused or (ii) during the pendency of the proceedings against the appeared accused (Refer to r. 16 of the Criminal Rules of Practice). In both such instances, the case will be refiled as the last case of the original year.

The step-by-step guidelines to use this module is as follows:

⇒ Choose Refile, LP Conversion Module

Convert to LP Case Module

In a case in which sanction is obtained for transferring it to long pending register, the conversion can be effected using the “Convert to LP Case” Module, by disposing of the original case. In such instances, the LP case will be assigned with a filing number, which will be the next LP filing number of that year.

On the apprehension or appearance of the accused, the LP case can be converted back to the original case type like CC/ST/CP/SC using the Refile option. The converted case then proceeds through the regular trial process. In such cases, the converted case will bear the same year as the original CC/ST/CP/SC case, and its number will be the next number of that year for the corresponding case type. Throughout the process, procedural formalities and records are maintained to preserve the case history.

After the implementation of the Convert to LP Case Module and as part of the Unification of the Case Types, the following changes will be introduced:

- In the Case Registration module, the case type LP (Long Pending Case) will no longer be available for registration. This will prevent the accidental registration of LP cases. LP cases will be treated as filing numbers only.
- LP (Long Pending Case) will not be available in the Case Type Conversion module, either for converting to LP or converting from LP.
- LP (Long Pending Case) will not be available in the Establishment Transfer module.
