Subject:- Publicity of the Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society Scheme.

Respected Sir/Madam,

I write to you on behalf of Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society. The said MIG Society was set up way back in the year 1999 and is presided by a sitting judge of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. At present, Hon'ble Mr. Justice Dipankar Datta is President of the MIG Society. The Ld. Attorney General for India is Ex-officio Vice President of the MIG Society.

The MIG Society was set up with a view to provide partial legal aid to litigants for contesting their cases in the Supreme Court of India. Partial legal aid is provided on payment of Rs.15,000/- to those persons whose annual income is Rs.12 lakh or less. The aim of the MIG Society is to provide legal aid to those persons who don't fall within the benefit provided under the National Legal Services Authority Act.

The Society has been in operation for last more than 26 years and has provided legal aid to more than 2,000 litigants. There are large number of Advocates-on-Record who are on panel of the MIG Society. The advocate is chosen as per the choice of the litigant. If the litigant desires, he/she can engage the services of the Senior Advocate also on the concessional fees of Rs.25,000/- only.

2 copies of brochure of the MIG Society are enclosed herewith for your kind reference. The intention of the present letter is to appraise your good-self about availability of the aforesaid scheme. If any litigant so requires he/she can be informed of the said scheme and can be requested to approach the Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

SUPREME COURT MIDDLE INCOME GROUP LEGAL AID SOCIETY SCHEME

1

The Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society [MIG Society] is a Society registered under the Societies Registration Act. Under the Rules and Regulations of the Society, the Hon'ble Chief Justice of India nominates a Hon'ble Sitting Judge of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India to be the President of the MIG Society. The Ld. Attorney General for India is the ex-officio Vice President of the MIG Society. The Society has been functioning since 1994 and has provided legal aid to thousands of litigants till date.

The Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society provides legal aid to citizens whose gross income is less than Rs.12,00,000/- per annum at a very reasonable cost of Rs.15,000/- in advance which deposit through a demand draft in favour of the "Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society". This Scheme is called the Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society Scheme.

The MIG Legal Aid Society is provided only for cases which are to be filed in Hon'ble Supreme Court or where the litigants wish to defend a matter in the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

A person whose wishes to avail benefit of the legal aid scheme is required to submit an application to the MIG Society which is situated at 109, Lawyers Chambers, R.K Jain Block, Supreme Court Compound, New Delhi alongwith necessary documents like order of the High Court sought to be challenged and copies of documents relating to the case. The litigant would be required to execute an affidavit and produce documents to show that his/her income is less than Rs.12,00,000/- per annum.

The litigant is required to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- along with the papers for processing his/her case by the MIG Society. This amount is intended to cover the fees for the Advocate-on-Record and the expenses involved [as per the schedule annexed]. A sum of Rs.750/- is retained by the MIG Society as Society Registration Charges and postage charges.

The litigant is entitled to an Advocate-on-Record from the panel of Advocates-on-Record which is maintained by the MIG-Society. The litigant may indicate 3 names of his/her choice as Advocate-on-Record. If the litigant does not express any choice, then the MIG Society would allot the matter to an Advocate-on-Record as per roster. While every attempt would be made to honour the wishes of the litigant in appointment of the Advocate-on-Record, the MIG Society reserves the right to assign the case to an Advocate-on-Record different from the Advocate-on-Record chosen by the litigant.

papers are forwarded to said Advocate-on-Record to opines whether it is a fit case to file a petition before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. If the Advocate opines that it is not a fit case for filing a petition before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the MIG Society would return the papers and the fee received from the litigant [after deducting Rs. 750/- towards Society Registration Charges and postage charges].

8

If the Advocate opines that it is a fit case for filing the petition before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the Advocate-on-Record will draft the petition. The papers, if any, required from the litigant would be provided by the litigant to the Advocate-on-Record. The Advocate-on-Record would be responsible for processing the matter and getting the same listed. The litigant would also be updated by the Advocate-on-Record regarding the status of the case.

The litigant can, if he/she so desires, request for engagement of a Senior Advocate from the panel of Senior Advocates which is maintained by the MIG Society. In such cases, the litigant would be required to deposit a further sum of Rs. 25,000/- in favour of the "Supreme Court Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society."

10

After the disposal of the case, the Advocate on Record / Senior Advocate would be paid the amounts as per the Fee Schedule annexed herewith. The balance amount [after deducting Rs.750/- as Society Registration Charges, Legal Expenses and postage charges] alongwith the case papers would be returned to the litigant.

11

If the litigant does not wish to avail the services of the Society at any point of time, then the Advocate on Record would return the papers to the MIG Society with his/her memo of fees and expenses. The MIG Society would return the balance amount to the litigant [after deducting the fee/expenses and Rs.750/- as Society Registration Charges and postage charges].

12

If a complaint is received by the MIG Society from the litigant against the Advocate on Record, the MIG Society after enquiry may take such action as is deemed fit and necessary. If the Advocate on Record who is appointed under the Scheme is found negligent in the conduct of the case entrusted to him, then he will be required to return the brief together with the fee which may have been received. The name of the Advocate may also be struck off from the panel prepared under the Scheme.

13

The Society is only facilitating legal aid through its panel Advocate on Record and is not rendering any service and is not in any manner responsible for the conduct of case.
